

IONE

MRS. JENNIE E. McMURRAY,
Correspondent

Sunday, June 5, Postmistress Ruby O. Roberts received notice that the contract for star mail route No. 73126 has been awarded to Mrs. Cecil Stefani. Her work will begin July first, and will necessitate three trips each week, each round trip being about sixty miles. Mr. and Mrs. Stefani will live in the Earle A. Brown house on Third street.

When Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd King returned recently from a trip to Portland, they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gibbs, who will remain in Ione until after harvest. Last Sunday the two families spent a happy day picnicking in the mountains above Heppner. Mrs. King and Mrs. Gibbs are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Morgan and Gene Grabill motored to Baker Sunday for a week's visit with relatives. They were accompanied by Mrs. Edmond Bristow and two children who were returning to their home in Baker after a pleasant visit with home folks here.

Mrs. J. E. Grimes is having her residence on Second street painted. The work is being done by Charley Allinger.

Mrs. Fred Nicholson is so much improved in health that last week she was moved from the Heppner hospital to the home of her mother, Mrs. Katy Petseys, on Willow creek. At the same time that Mrs. Nicholson was able to leave the hospital, Mr. Nicholson was forced to enter the hospital for treatment. He was suffering from tonsillitis and quinsy. Mrs. Katy Petseys who has been very ill for some time is slowly recovering. Mrs. Frank Engelmann, with the assistance of Mrs. Crystal Sparks, is caring for the patients at the Petseys home.
