

IONE

MRS. JENNIE E. McMURRAY,
Correspondent

The marriage of Miss Alice Head and Carl Linn, both well known young people of this district, took place at St. Helens, on Tuesday, the third day of June. The marriage ceremony was held in Plymouth church, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Allen, reading the marriage service. The wedding march was played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Mildred Laughlin. Mrs. Linn is the daughter of W. W. Head, editor of the Ione Independent, and Mr. Linn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn of this place. They are both graduates of the Ione high school. Mrs. Linn has been a successful teacher in the schools of our state, and Mr. Linn has been employed in the lumber mills at Vernonia. They have not yet decided where they will locate, but expect to visit in Ione shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Laxton McMurray have received the announcement of the marriage of their son, Nolan Page, and Miss Lois Gray, Saturday, June 14, at Iowa City, Iowa. After a short wedding trip the young people will make their home in Iowa City where Mr. Page has a position at the University of Iowa.

SHEEP CONDITION NORMAL.

Oregon sheep show about the same condition as last month. Prospects are for a normal crop though considerable numbers of dry ewes are found in some sections. Ewes are in good condition and lambs are doing well. No bad effects were experienced from May storms for the state as a whole. Shearing was delayed a little by May rains. Washington lambs have made good growth except where range was short and will probably be shipped a little early this year. The Idaho lamb crop is above normal and losses have been light. Some wool is selling at 18-21c with the bulk of the crop being consigned.

Wherever the practice of adequate regulation and inspection of market milk has been firmly established on a practical basis, it has seldom been given up. It stabilizes the industry, improves the quality of the milk and increases consumption. The dairyman becomes an up-to-date, sanitary, efficient operator, while the consumer is satisfied and grateful for the protection afforded.

Dwight Misner, in town Saturday from his Ione wheat ranch, reported that his grain is growing fine.
