Official Paper for Morrow County.

Coincident with the lowest quotations on wheat since 1914 comes the report that the tariff measure has passed both houses of congress and awaits only the president's signature, already promised, to make it effective. Just one year, five months and seven days a political football, the tariff was passed by wise congressmen who, though not approving of much of the content, thought it better that the measure be passed than that American industry be further punished through delay. Now if what market dopesters have blamed on the tariff be true, proportions of the farm dollar should become more acceptable.

While not being able to attend the convention, being at the time in California, the editor of this newspaper was honored by election to a vice presidency in the Oregon State Editorial association. At least he cannot be accused of hand-shaking his way into office.

William Kinder, formerly active in 4-H club work in Oregon, but now employed by a chemical company at Boise, Idaho, was a business visitor in Heppner Monday.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School Lesson for June 29
REVIEW - THE LIFE OF CHRIST.
Matthew 16-28.
Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

For six months the lessons have followed through the record of the life of Jesus as given by Matthew. During the past three months the period has been about nine months in length and marked a new method of teaching. Previously public address had been before crowds and many miracles had been wrought as seals upon His teachings. A new method followed the appeal of the crowd, after the feeding of the 5,000, that He became the bread-making King. Thence He began to train the Twelve for the ministry they must undertake after His departure.

A natural beginning in this review lesson is to read the portions in Matthew that are covered. They are chapters 16-28. The quarter opened with the quiz class near Mount Hermon when Jesus asked what people thought about Him. In reply to the direct question about the opinion of the disciples Peter gave the declaration in the Golden Text for today: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." It will be helpful if you will commit to memory the Golden Text for each of the thirteen lessons. They will also be very suggestive in reminding yourself of the central teachings in each of the lessons.

The territory covered is from Caesarea-Philippi back to Capernaum and then on the further side of Jordan, through Pera, to the fords of the Jordan opposite Jericho and thence the climb to Bethany and the Holy City. Either follow each place on a map as you read, or better still, draw an outline map of Palestine and fill in the details as you read. Draw lines to indicate the journey that was traversed.

Frequent use is made of parables

In making the meaning of His profound teachings clear. There must have been many pauses by the wayside for special instruction during the three months spent in Pera. For additional incidents turn to Luke 13-19. A Harmony of the Gospel is invaluable in all such study. That by Dr. A. T. Robertson is recommended.

One of the outstanding principles enunciated by this Master Teacher was an indication of the place that a little child should have in the estimation of the people. Wreckage is found in adults but tremendous possibilities are latent in the average youth. He made a child the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven, and the world has not caught up to that idea even now. Wonderful progress has been made, since Robert Raikes started the school in Gloucester, England, 150 years ago which has developed into the modern Sunday School with a membership throughout the world of over 33,000,000.

Then came the Last Week, centering around Jerusalem, which has become an anniversary season throughout the earth. Bethany was the headquarters for a number of days. From there the Triumphal Entry was made into Jerusalem. Teachings of abiding value were given at every opportunity. Even the most bitter enemy was not excluded from the instructions that were given in Temple area and on the Mount of Olives. The Jewish Passover was ceremoniously observed and then the Lord's Supper was instituted in the same upper room.

Following, the prayer season in the Garden of Gethsemane, Judas came with his dirty kiss, which all too soon brought the Saviour to His work of atonement on the cross at Calvary. But that was not the end as the disciples learned to their renewed joy on the day of resurrection. All these truths are for our good that we may live the Jesus way.
