Ten bottles have strengthened and invigorated me so that I'm up and going, every pain in my body is gone and I feel as good as I did years ago. It has been four months since I've taken Sargon and there has been no recurrence of any of my troubles. Free Air. A COLUMN OF FUN AND FACTS. Edited by Dean T. Goodman from his private sanctum down at the Heppner Garage. JUNE 26, 1930. HOWDY FOLKS—This is the season of the year when cousins from Kansas and Iowa drive out to pay you a two day visit and stay all summer. It is "back to nature" as summer styles in bathing suits appear. While it is always the style to use GOODYEAR TIRES. Speaking of bathing suits, it makes a lot of difference in their eyesomeness whether they are hanging on a line or on a limb. And we have just learned of the young fellow who worked himself into such a fever on Commencement Day that he was graduated with a hundred and two degrees. It takes only a small jack to lift an automobile but it takes a lot of jack to keep it up. Have you seen our ad in another column of this edition on 29x4.40 and 29x4.50 GOODYEAR All-Weather Tread tires? Never before have the people of Heppner been offered such a bargain. From things we see we are led to believe that all the wooden headed drivers are not on the golf courses. Nothing makes a wife madder than to find her husband testing his favorite fishing rod in the parlor by casting flies at the gold fish. AND WE ARE ALWAYS CASTING AND FISHING FOR YOUR BUSINESS, BECAUSE WE HAVE THE GOODS AND ALSO THE SERVICE TO BACK THE MERCHANDISE. Professor: "Name six wild animals of Africa." Pupils: "Four lions and a couple of elephants." H—1 for golfers, will be a land where they make a hole in one every day and have nobody to tell it to. RICKEY'S RIOTOUS RHYME. A sultan at odds with his harem. Thought of a good way to scare 'em. He caught him a mouse Which he freed in the house. Thus comes the first harem-scarem. This is the time of year when June bridegrooms commence to get awfully tired of living on an exclusive diet of lettuce salad and chocolate fudge. THAT SHOULD DO FOR THIS TIME.
