A JOB WELL DONE.

SENSE of satisfaction invaria-A SENSE of satisfaction as done something especially well, whether or not the reward be great. Those who put across the Fourth of July celebration and well dedication feel, and justly so, that they did a pretty good job, and are content with the of satisfaction as their reward.

It was a bully good job, and is a good example of what can be done when everyone puts his shoulder to wheel determined to make it roll. Within reason there is nothing impossible when such a united spirit gnins momentum.

So well did the celebration "take" that already plans are being talked for a similar event next year. People liked the atmosphere of the cel-ebration of "the good old days," and it is to be hoped that with the planting of trees and otherwise making the grounds more inviting, Heppner will have assured the permanency of an event to be looked forward to each year.
