

Local Happenings

Harry Bennett, who rode the range in Morrow county 50 years ago as a youth, and who left here in '83, was in the city the end of the week from his home in Seattle. While here he completed a deal for the George Lund residence property in this city through the F. W. Turner realty office. For many years Mr. Bennett was a leading lumberman of the Okanogan country in Washington and made a financial success in the business. He and Mrs. Bennett recently returned from a visit in Texas.

C. G. Blayden and Jess Lower were in the city Friday from Boardman. Mr. Blayden is the demerit-lic nominee for county commissioner to fill out the unexpired term of the late L. P. Davidson. Mr. Lower, who was quite seriously injured a few months ago when he fell from a train at Messner, is now quite well recovered. The gentlemen came over the Ione-Boardman market road and report some fine looking wheat along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson and children, Kay and Mary Lou, returned Saturday evening from a week's vacation trip which took them to Klamath Falls, Crater lake, Salem and Newport. They found it very chilly at the coast.

Don't forget that we give a big discount for cash this month. Heppner Planing Mill & Lumber Yard.

D. Cox is reported to have made the first delivery of new wheat of the season at Farmers Warehouse in Lexington on Tuesday morning. On the same day Howard Lane began delivery of the George White wheat. The White wheat is reported to be making a yield of 23 bushels per acre. The harvest is beginning to get under way this week in the Lexington wheat belt and should be general throughout that section by the coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reavis returned last Thursday evening from their vacation trip which took them to points in Washington. On the return they were accompanied by Mrs. Reavis' sister, Miss Thelma Peabody, and Miss Margaret Becker, both of Sunnyside, Wash. Miss Becker returned home Monday, while Miss Peabody will make a longer visit at the home of her sister.

Paul Mortimore and wife of Gladstone for the past five years, where home of Mrs. Mortimore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tucker of Lexington. They were on their way home from a visit to La Grande. Mr. Mortimore has resided at Gladstone for the past ve years, where he is pastor of the Christian church. They find it very chilly at the coast.

Ross Langdon has the contract for falling logs for the Milton box company, which are being shipped by rail to the factory at Milton.

If you want a cigarette that is milder and of better taste..

Smoke Chesterfield

MILDER, YES—BUT SOMETHING MORE. Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor.

BETTER TASTE—that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure—the flavor and aroma of mellow tobaccos, exactly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!

They Satisfy
