HEPPNER GAZETTE TIMES, HEPPNER, OREGON, THURSDAY, AUG. 7, 1930.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys, Miss Evel-yn Humphreys and Miss Kee Buch-of Heppner schools, arrived home anan who has been a guest for a week at the Humphreys home in this city, motored to Pendleton on Sunday. From there the ladies and her daughter Virginia of Mol-went on to Portland Monday where they are spending the week. Upon at Heppner and then go on to Batheir return home, Mrs. Humphreys ker for a more extended visit with relatives residing there. Mrs. Pouland daughter will be accompanied son expects to arrive home from by Roland Humphreys who is re-turning home from summer school Eugene in about two weeks. From now on until school begins the first at Stanford university. Monday in September, W. R. will be busy in getting everything in an illness caused by tonsilitis.

Rock.

harvest, getting a good yield.

after business affairs.

Monday, Aug. 10 and 11.

here on Saturday.

George Howard and wife returned home on Thursday last from their shape at the school buildings. vacation trip to Yellowstone Nationpark, and Mr. Howard is back on the job at the J. C. Penney Co. store. He reports that the trip to the park was most enjoyable and of his family, suffering from the instructive. So far this year the mumps tourist travel to Yellowstone has been light, but it was expected to pick up a lot for the month of August, which is usually the best part of the season.

Frank Fraters and son were here on Saturday from their Eight Mile home. The recent burning of the Fraters farm residence left the family bankrupt as to household effects and clothing, as everything was burned. Mr. Fraters carried insurance to the amount of $2500, which is not sufficient to restore the dwelling. Despite the fire, however, harvesting has proceeded and the crop is turning out around 15 bushels to the acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gilliam and children, Miss Ona Gilliam, and Leonard Gilliam and sons spent Sunday at Hidaway springs. The elder Mr. Gilliam is one of the earliest pioneer residents of this community, yet this is his first visit to these springs. For many years Hidaway springs was a favorite summer camping ground for the people of Heppner and vicinity.

Mrs. Lucy E. Rodgers, county school superintendent, departed on Sunday for Salem where she is this week attending the convention of county school superintendents in session there. Mrs. Rodgers expects to have a trip to the seacoast at Bandon before returning home. She was accompanied as far as Portland by Miss Helen Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bartholomew of White Salmon, Wash., were visitors Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mr. Bartholomew's mo ther, Mrs. Mary Bartholomew. They had been on a visit to relatives at Baker and returning spent a day with the family of C. H. Bartholomew on Butter creek.

P. A. Anderson was a visitor here the first of the week from his home in Portland. He departed Wednesday for The Dalles, being accom-panied by Mrs. E. F. Campbell who will spend a short time there visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis McCarty, and with the Anderson family.

Peter Farley and family were Boardman visitors in Heppner on Saturday. Mr. Farley reports ev-erything pretty good this season on the Boardman project, but would be feeling better if sheep and wool prices would take the upward trend instead of going down the toboggan

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hendrickson arrived on Monday evening from San Leandro, Calif., for a short visit at the home of Mrs. Hendrickson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Jones. They came for their son, Alvin, who lar resort. has been spending the past month visiting with his grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson departed for their home on Wednesday, and will take time to make his mother and sister, residing at Mill City, Oregon, a short visit. Ellis has a position with the Matson steamship lines at San Francisco.

A. J. Chaffee was the successful bidder, Tuesday, on the Arthur Smith residence property in south-east Heppner. Mr. Chaffee bought that lot and the vacant lot adjoining on the north, his bid on the two totalling $1940. We understand all the other properties were disposed W. J. Beamer was back at his of except the Main street business property, just recently vacated by J. O. Peterson, jeweler. G. L. Benwork this week after having been laid up at home with other members nett was the auctioneer.

Mrs. Katie E. Krausech, formerly Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells have Mrs. Henry E. Burchell of Lexing ton, died Saturday morning in Port as their guests this week, Mrs. A. F. Knotts, sister of Mrs. Wells and land at an advanced age. She was buried at Portland on Monday. Mrs. her daughter, Miss Alfa of Pilot Krausech is survived by three sons, H. L. Burchell of Sheridan, Chas.

Everett Henry came over from Burchell of Corvallis and Ed Bur-Seattle on Saturday and is spending his vacation season with his mothchell of Lexington, and several grandchildren. er, Mrs. J. L. Callaway, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Celsus Keithley and D. C. Wells were Pendleton people La Verne Van Marter, manager of Peoples Hardware company is "on the job" at the store again after in the city on Tuesday. Messrs. Wells and Keithley are engaged in the real estate business at Pendleton and were in Heppner to attend Gus McMillan of Lexington was the auction sale of the Arthur a visitor at Heppner on Tuesday. He had just finished with his wheat Smith properties.

A. M. Zink, who has been a cripole for some time because of a brok-Emil Johnson, garage man of Hardman, was in Heppner a few en foot, now gets around fairly well with the aid of crutches. He was in hours on Saturday while looking Heppner enjoying a visit with old time friends Wednesday, from his home at Ione.

Nels M. Johnson, Gooseberry farmer, was looking after matters of Mrs. Stella Bailey of Portland business in this city on Saturday. spent a few days here and at the Jones ranch in the Lena section this Dr. Clarke, EYE SIGHT SPEweek, looking after the interests of CIALIST, in Heppner Sunday and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Jones. She departed for home Wednesday. 21-1t. E. J. Evans, Lexington wheat-O. J. Cox, residing at Lexington, raiser, was looking after business was a visitor at Heppner the first of the week. Earl Gordon returned home Tues-LOST-By postoffice, green founday from a business visit of several days in Portland. tain pen; reward for return to this 21p.

office.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox and amily spent Sunday at Hidaway prings, being part of the large number of Heppner residents en-oying the mountains at this popufamily spent Sunday at Hidaway day evening. Loyal Parker was giv-Springs, being part of the large number of Heppner residents en-joying the mountains at this popu-lar resort. at-arms. Appointive officers haven't 21-22 yet been chosen. Installation ceremonies will probably be held at the

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and aDusire spent Sunday at the pleas-some sentiment expressed in favor LaDusire spent Sunday at the pleasant mountain resort at Hidaway springs.

RANCH TO LEASE-1200 acres good wheat land, fully equipped. Personal property for sale. Will take $3000 to handle. Inquire this office 21-tf.

David H. Grabill of Ione was a Heppner visitor on Wednesday, Mr. Grabill seems to recover slowly from his recent long spell of illness of postponing it until cooler weath-er makes the Legion hall a little in suits for school. Two pairs of golf knickers, or one longic and one golf knicker. The fabrics are Cassimeres, Worsteds and Twists.

Guy L. Barlow, deputy sheriff at Boardman, was a visitor here Wednesday.

School Hose for Boys

Made for Looks and Durability

PAGE FIVE

Prepare for

slide

Mrs. M. L. Curran motored to Se attle on Sunday and from there took the steamer the first of the week for San Francisco for a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jared Aiken. Upon her return home she will be accom panied by Mrs. Aiken.

Dr. Clarke of the Clarke Optical Co., 326½ Washington St., Portland, Ore., EYESIGHT SPECIALISTS, be in Heppner TWO DAYS, SUNDAY and MONDAY, Aug. 10 and 11, at Hotel Heppner. SEE HIM ABOUT YOUR EYES. 21-1t

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barratt and daughter Margaret have been guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt on Hinton creek. Mr. Barratt is engaged in business here with his son.

Hanson Hughes, who departed for Portland the past week to be in at-tendance at the meeting of the democratic state central committee, temained over this week to take in the Annual Buyers' week.

Vawter Parker, now with the Shell Oil company at Arlington, was home for Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker. Jas-Crawford motored with him to Arlington Sunday evening.

W. W. Head of the Ione Independent and Victor Peterson, Ione Meat market, were business men here from the Egg City yesterday to attend the opening meeting of the business men's institute.

Jas. G. Thomson of Thomson Bros., accompanied by Mrs. Thomson, departed for Portland by Sunday's stage. Mr. Thomson was called to the city for the Annual Buyers' week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rowell of Eoardman made Heppner a visit on Monday, bringing a consignment of butter fat to Morrow County Creamery company.

Have your child's eyes looked after before school opens. Dr. Clarke, in Heppner Sunday and Monday, In Heppner Sunday and Aug. 10 and 11, at Hotel Heppner. Committation from 21-1t.

Reliable man wanted for McNess business in this county; make $8 to $15 daily. Write today, Furst & Thomas, Dept. F, 426 Third St. Oakland, Calif. 21p

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Judy of Port-land have been guests during the week at the home of Mrs. Judy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes, in this city.

you want a cigarette that is milder and of better tas néstertield

MILDER, YES-BUT SOMETHING MORE. Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor.

BETTER TASTE - that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure-the flavor and aroma of mellow tobaccos, exactly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!

© 1930, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

4 Q C Engaging tweeds and flat colors. as well as all-over effects, festure these superior hose of mercerized and cotton heather Coogan Caps A youthful edition of an older boy's cap cut from fine wood fabrics and styled to usear. 98c Boys' Longies in several sturdy fabrics 1.98 Cut on the popular English style that all boys like. Many fine fabrics, including cassimeres, worsteds and twists. J. C. Penney Company, Inc.