

IONE.

Mrs. R. E. Harbison. Mrs. Mary Bell was a passenger to Portland last week. Vera Moen is spending this week with friends in Salem. Lee Howell went to Walla Walla last Friday and while there was in attendance at an all day session of the Northwestern Retail Lumber Dealers association.

T. E. Grubel, custodian of the school property, has begun work getting the building and grounds in readiness for the opening of school, September 8. Mr. and Mrs. Botts and family have moved into the Ross house in lower Ione for the school year. Mr. Porter and son will occupy the W. E. Ahalt house during the winter.

Will Ryan was calling on friends in Ione on Wednesday of last week. He was on his way home to Beech creek from a trip to Portland with several truck loads of cattle. Ted Troge and John Louy motored to Portland the middle of last week. Mrs. Harold Rankin made a trip to Brownsville recently to get her two sons who had been there for a visit with their grandmother.

Last week Darrel Padberg cut his hand quite badly while assisting his sister with the fruit canning. Darrel was taken at once to Heppner where a physician took several stitches to close the wound. On August 20, John Louy of Portland underwent a serious operation from which he is making satisfactory recovery. Mrs. Louy is at her home in Portland and is rapidly gaining strength following a recent major operation. Mr. and Mrs. Louy are former residents of Morrow county.

Mr. and Mrs. Kiekeley Blake who have been here for the harvest season, left last week for their home at Klamath Falls. The first of the week the Ed Keller family returned to Pendleton where Mr. and Mrs. Keller and son Frank will spend the school year, Frank being a senior in the Pendleton high school. About September first the two sons, James and Edward, will return to their studies at Still College of Osteopathy at Kirtlandville, Mo.

At the all day swim which Miss Elva Balsiger recently held for her pupils at the Heppner pool, Miss Mildred Lundell passed the final tests and was awarded the button given by the Red Cross. Mrs. Ed Dick and two sons, Edwin and Kemp, of Pomeroy, Wash., are guests in the home of Mrs. Bert Mason.

Mrs. Ed Dick and two sons were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cotter on Tuesday. In the afternoon the following ladies arrived and two tables of bridge were enjoyed: Mrs. Dell Ward, Mrs. Heitler, Mrs. Chas. Nash, Mrs. Roy Liennallen, Mrs. R. W. Brown and Mrs. Bert Mason.

Laxton McMurray has sold the tools and machinery for his shoe repair shop to E. G. Noble and on Wednesday the outfit was moved to Heppner. Frank Colvin and son Virgil, who have been harvesting here, have gone to the Rogue river country for the pear harvest.

A. A. Underhill, district man for the Shell Oil company, has been transferred to Condon. Miss Mildred Smith returned last Friday from a brief visit in Portland. She made the trip with Mr. and Mrs. David Level, who have been residents of Ione during the wheat hauling season.

Miss Elva Balsiger is leaving this week for Riverton to take up her work as high school instructor in the school at that place.

Harlan McCurdy has returned from Omaha where he went with a shipment of lambs. Mr. McCurdy is very well pleased with the price he received.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin and small daughter, and Mrs. Dwight Misner motored to Portland Monday for a sojourn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gabbert. Walter Bartlett of Newberg was a week-end visitor in Ione. When he returned to his home he was accompanied by Mrs. Bartlett and the two children who had been guests in the Louis Balsiger home for some time.

See Star Theater ad for Rodeo Programs. They're fine.

Volume 30 Heppner, Oregon August 28, 1930. Number 23.

EDITORIAL Judging from the way some of our "self-made" men boast about beginning life as a barefoot boy, they seem to think the rest of us were born with shoes on.

It is probably a "100 to 1" shot that your house needs some repairing before the cold weather starts. Roofs have been known to leak, glass to get broken, and lots of other things to go wrong. Weatherstrip cuts out a lot of the cold air that creeps in around the doors and windows.

Handi-man will help you fix up the homestead.

F. H. Wehmeyer and Mr. Moncreith were in town for a load of material to repair the stations of the U. S. Forest service.

Earl Gordon is having his show window remodeled this week.

Henry Crump is doing some repair work for Mrs. Wm. Instone on her residence near the school house.

ALBERT ADKINS, Manager, Editor.

It was necessary to decide whether a border farm lay on Canadian or U. S. territory. Surveyors finally announced to the old lady who had purchased it that it just came within the American side. The old lady smiled with relief.

"I'm so glad to hear that," she said. "I've heard that winters in Canada are terribly severe.

WE RECOMMEND CELOTEX INSULATING CEMENT BOARD. Tum-A-Lumber is the best. For service call 912 and you get a smile with it.

A COLUMN OF FUN AND FACTS (Edited by Dean T. Goodman from his private sanctum down at the Heppner Garage.)

August 28, 1930. HOWDY FOLKS—Next week the children's vacation ends and mother's begins.

"And you know nothing of religion?" asked the missionary of the cannibal.

"Well we get a little taste of it once in awhile."

Courtship is that period during which a girl decides whether or not she can do any better.

And of course you all know that it is impossible to do better when it comes to tires than to buy GOOD-YEARS. They never fail.

Some of the greatest thinkers say they do their best work during those weeks when their wives are not speaking to them.

It takes an entire year's output of latex from eight rubber trees to make a set of tires for an average sized automobile. "The Human Body" school kid's essay: The human body is divided into three parts. The head, the chest and the stummick. The head contains the eyes, ears, nose, mouth, tongue and branes, if any. The chest contains the lungs, heart and liver. The stummick contains the bowels, of which there are five—a, e, i, o, u and sometimes w and y.

A lot of husbands would be happy if their wives would smile at them the way they smile at traffic cops.

"That's a hot number," said the steer as the branding iron was put on his back.

STATISTICIANS TELL US THAT LIVING DECREASED TWO PER CENT LAST YEAR.

At that rate we'll be sitting pretty in about fifty years.

But users of GOODYEAR TIRES are sitting pretty right now because they are getting the greatest value for their money.

Gasoline sales in Oregon this year will exceed 175,000,000 gallons, against 159,000,000 gallons in 1929. June gasoline sales in Oregon were 865,000 gallons more than sales during June of last year.

Who says that people are not using their automobiles as much this year?

"Every time I kiss you, it makes me a better man."

"Well, you don't have to try to get to heaven in one night."

Pete Peterson was showing a newlywed some of his new alarm clocks. "I don't need one of them," said the recent martyr—"I get up when I hear the wife scraping the toast."

I LOOKED UP HER RECORD TO SEE IF SHE HAD ANY PAR-ENTS. SHE HAD NONE. I LEARNED THAT SHE HAD NO GUARDIAN. I EVEN FOUND THAT SHE HAD NO SUPPORT-ERS.

Earl Hallock says, "One thing the matter with this country is that too many people put too much 'stall' in installment payments."

There goes the dinner bell.
