

Local Happenings

C. W. Day, former agriculturist for Wasco county, accompanied by his family, was in Heppner Wednesday evening and enjoyed a visit at the home of C. W. Smith, county agent. Mr. Day, who is quite widely known among wheat and sheep men of Morrow county, is now located at Pocatello, Idaho, as county agent. He likes his work there, which is quite extensive as evidenced by his staff, including an assistant county agent, 4-H club leader and home demonstration agent.

Miss Lillian Nepper niece of Mrs. Alex Green of this city, who has been spending the summer season at Heppner, has decided not to return to her home in North Dakota, and will shortly leave for Monmouth to enter the state normal school. Miss Mildred Green will also leave at the same time to take up her teaching for the coming school year at a point in the valley between Woodburn and Salem.

The following outside people, many of whom were former residents of Heppner, were noted as visitors at the Rodeo on Saturday: Mr. and Mrs. Emery Gentry of Athena, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Llewellyn of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithley of Pendleton, Wm. O'Rourke of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mather of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott of Pendleton.

E. J. Ball, lone wheat raiser, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Ball reports having just completed combining, with delivery of the wheat made difficult owing to the congested condition of the warehouses in Ione. Farmers are now permitted to pile wheat on the ground, but are unable to obtain weights. Mr. Ball at present is driving a school bus into Ione.

Mrs. Esther Smith, aunt of Mrs. Eugene Noble, was a visitor in Heppner during the Rodeo, a guest at the Noble home. Mr. and Mrs. Noble drove to Walla Walla on Sunday, taking Mrs. Smith to her home. Mrs. Smith is 83 years of age, spry for one of her years, and greatly enjoyed the show and the short visit with her relatives here.

Fred Ashbaugh was in the city from his home near Hardman on Monday, spending a few hours in the city while attending to business. Mr. Ashbaugh, who has been ill since last February, is not greatly improved in health, being a sufferer from some ailment not understood by the physicians he has visited thus far.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Scott were Umatilla county people here for two days of the Rodeo. Mr. Scott, who is democratic nominee for joint representative of Morrow and Umatilla counties, was looking after his political fences, as well as enjoying a visit with numerous friends.

Rev. and Mrs. Glenn P. White and Mrs. Pete Curran were in Arlington on Tuesday where they attended a sub-district preachers' convention of the Methodist church as representatives of the church at Heppner.

W. F. Honey and son, John Honey, of Gresham, were visitors in Heppner on Monday, transacting business connected with their real estate holdings near Ione. Ben Buschke is farming the Honey land.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Heppner Hotel on Monday, Sept. 15.

Dr. Thomas Yarnes, district superintendent of the Methodist church will be in Heppner tonight for the quarterly conference. There will be a potluck supper and social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithley and Mrs. D. C. Wells were Pendleton people in the city on Friday and Saturday, returning home Saturday afternoon.

Joseph Eskelson was in the city on Monday attending to some business affairs. He is still at Lexington but will return soon to his home in Salem.

Nels Johnson was a west side ranchman in the city on Wednesday. Some indications of fall are present out his way but no rain to speak of.

Felix Johnson and family were over from their home at Range to take in the Rodeo, and enjoy a visit with relatives and friends at Heppner.

John Maidment, Lone Rock sheep man, was in the city on Monday, coming over with a bunch of lambs that he delivered here for shipment.

Full line of personal and business greeting cards. Priced reasonably. Please order now for early delivery. Mrs. Lillie Aiken, phone 712 city, 26.

FOR SALE—Bartlett and De Angelo pears, $1.50 per box, prepaid. Bartlett ready now. A. E. Anderson, R 2, The Dalles, Ore. 25-6.

Registered Hampshire Rams for Sale—Some ewe lambs also, at John Bubeck ranch 8 miles south Heppner Junction. 24-7p

For Sale—250 head aged fine wool ewes, and 250 cross bred yearling ewes. Immediate delivery. W. B. Barratt & Son. 11.

Have you got your copy of the Purina Poultryman? Yours for the asking at the Heppner Trading Co.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, Eye-Sight Specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Heppner Hotel on Monday, Sept. 15.

Herman Neilson, Rood canyon wheat raiser, was looking after business in this city on Tuesday.

For Sale—1 registered Holstein bull calf. Meadow Brook Farm, Lexington, Ore. 26-9.

Mr. and Mrs. Lotus Robison of Hardman spent a few hours here on Monday.

Guy Chapin Hardman ranchman, was a visitor in this city on Monday.

Weanling pigs for sale. $5 each. Walter Jepson, Ione. 26.

RALLY DAY AT METHODIST CHURCH.

9:45 a. m., Rally Day at Sunday School.

11:0 a. m., Rally Day program by Sunday School.

6:30 p. m., Epworth League Rally Day.

7:30, Gospel message, "Taking Risks for God."

Sept. 21st Miss Lillie Allinger will tell of her trip to the World's Christian Endeavor meet at Berlin, Ger., at the 11:00 a. m. worship hour. All are cordially invited to these services.

GLENN P. WHITE, Pastor.

Ontario—Possibility of developing canned cantaloupes as a new product is seen here in the contracting of the crop of melons grown by Peter Deboer, 4-H club boy, by a Caldwell, Ida., cannery which plans to can some trial batches of the "cants."

ALPINE

The community was quite surprised to hear of the marriage of Miss Margaret Melville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Melville of Alpine, to Glen Shearer of Heppner at Pendleton Wednesday. The young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Melville, Charles Melville and Miss Gertrude Tichenor are taking a trip to the coast and eventually to California.

Miss Margaret Ticer who has been spending the summer at Seaside and Dallas, came home Saturday in time to start school Monday. Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bennett were among some of the Alpine folks who motored to Heppner for the Rodeo.

Miss Rosella Doherty, Bernard J. Doherty and Betty Curran made a short visit in Lexington Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Schmidt and daughter Mildred and son Alfred and Walter Wigglesworth motored to Heppner Saturday to attend the show and dance.

The Misses Nora and Margaret McDaid motored to Lexington Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Melville were among some of those who took in the Rodeo Saturday.

Miss Mae Doherty, who came home from La Grande where she had been attending normal school, left for Rood canyon Friday where she will teach this term. She took in the Rodeo on her way up.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch and children Edna, Henry, May and Fay spent Saturday in Heppner.

Miss Doris Klingler made a short call at the McDaid home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hirl of Pendleton spent Thursday calling on friends in the Alpine district and Friday, visiting in the Juniper district on their way to Heppner where they attended the Rodeo.

Bernard Doherty and Edward Rice who have been in the mountains for the past week, returned home again Friday in time for the Rodeo. They were accompanied here by Martin Karnin who has been in the mountains all summer.

Mrs. B. P. Doherty, W. J. Johnnie, Lawrence and Rosella Doherty took in the dance at Heppner Saturday evening.

W. J. Nora and Margaret McDaid motored to Heppner Saturday evening to attend the dance.

Edmond Hirl of McDonald canyon came to the Doherty ranch Sunday evening where he will help stack straw.

Joe Gorgor of Ione was visiting friends in this vicinity Saturday on his way to Heppner.

Alex Lindsay started school again Monday evening.

Miss Reitha Ticer, Willard Hawley and Gene Senter were Friday evening callers at the Irl Clary home.

C. J. Walker and A. K. Wilson of Heppner spent Monday visiting in the Alpine and Pine City districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Klingler and children Doris and Kenneth spent Monday evening visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rauch.

The Misses Nora and Margaret McDaid motored to Hermiston on business Saturday.

Mrs. Dan Hirl of Pendleton and Miss Mae Doherty were callers at the Neil Doherty home at Well springs Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klingler of the Strawberry district left Saturday morning for the Willamette valley where they will visit with relatives who reside there. Dale Bundy is in charge of their place during their absence.

CARD OF THANKS.
Mrs. Ernest Cannon and family appreciate the very generous aid and assistance tendered them during their recent affliction in the death of husband and father, and they take this method of thanking all the neighbors and friends for their help and sympathy.

LEXINGTON NEWS

A carnival dance will be given Saturday, September 20, in Leach Memorial hall, for the benefit of the Rebekah lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Edwards have purchased the property of Ralph Leach in Lexington, and are moving into their new home.

Freeman Hill who has been working in Portland for the last few months is visiting friends in Lexington.

Otto Ruhl who has been ill in Heppner hospital for several weeks, has now returned home.

Mrs. Ola Ward entertained the ladies of the Three Link Social club Tuesday evening.

Laurel Beach is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Beach of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Earl Eskelson left Thursday morning. Mrs. Eskelson will go to Salem for a visit, while Mr. and Mrs. Hunt intend to take a vacation trip to Portland and Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lucas and daughter Patricia left Friday night. The depot will now be in charge of Charles Hackett who arrived two weeks ago to take the position.

Thursday night, Miss Kathleen Brierly who has been visiting at the home of H. E. Warner, returned to Portland.

After visiting a few days with the Eagans in Heppner, Miss Hazel Ritchie returned home Wednesday morning.

Miss Alice Palmer is teaching the school in Morgan this year. She lives at home and drives to and from school each day.

WITH FARMERS ABOUT THE STATE

Corvallis—Definite evidence from the state of Washington that old red raspberry canes are best not removed till spring has been received here by Dr. George M. Darrow, federal pomologist at the Oregon Experiment station who has passed the information on to the fruit growers.

Roseburg—Douglas county is expected to be an accredited free area in respect to bovine tuberculosis by December of this year, reports Dr. George Nicholas, county veterinarian. Close to 8000 cows have been tested for T.B. without a single reactor. Thirty-seven herds have been tested for contagious abortion with only four reactors.

STAR THEATER

Doors open 7:30 p. m.; Show starts 8 p. m. Theater Phone 472, Home 555. Admission: Children under 12, 20c; Adults, 40c—Unless otherwise advertised.

SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE

FRIDAY and SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12-13

EDMUND LOWE as "LOUIS BERETTI" in "BORN RECKLESS"

With Catherine Dale Owen, Lee Tracy and Margaret Churchill.

From the novel by Donald Henderson Clarke. Gangland's sacred code—his solemn pledge to a wartime buddy—one had to be broken, regardless of cost. Recklessly he made his choice, then fearlessly faced the music. A sensational stirring movietone drama of gangland.

Also GIRL CRAZY, two reel comedy. Adults 40c—Children 10c.

"BORN RECKLESS" has been substituted for "Men Without Women," formerly advertised for this date.

SUNDAY and MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14-15:

JANET GAYNOR and CHARLES FARRELL in

"HIGH SOCIETY BLUES"

The stars of "Sunny-Side-Up" in another big smash, pronounced by many as even better than that delightful picture. Adorable Janet as the daughter of a socially prominent family who wants their offspring to marry a titled nobleman, and charming Charles as heir to millions, and folks who have no false pretensions, will drive away any case of blues with their love making and singing.

Also Cartoon Comedy. Adults 50c—Children 10c

Thomson Bros.

EXTRA SPECIALS

SATURDAY AND MONDAY
September 13th and 15th

CAKE FLOUR
SWANSDOWN
A Handsome Emerald Green
Cake Plate FREE
With Two Packages Swansdown
Makes Dainty Cakes
Package 34c

COFFEE
AFFILIATED BUYERS
Highest Quality
With a Big Stick Pure Sugar
Candy Free
1-lb. Bag 35c

PEET'S
WASHING MACHINE SOAP
Large Size
Package 40c

RICE
Fancy Louisiana
3-lb. Bag 26c

ARGO STARCH
Free Shopping Bag With
Two Packages
Corn or Glass
Package 9c

BEST-EVER
MACARONI—SPAGHETTI
NOODLES
Sat.-Mon.
2 Packages for 15c

FREE
Saturday-Monday
Wear-Ever Aluminum Pint Size
SAUCE PAN
Regular Value 50c
With Two Large Packages

S. O. S.
Regular Value 50c
A Real Bargain
All for 44c

PRUNES
Large Size Orchard Run
Bright Clean Pack
SPECIAL
3 Pounds for 26c

GOLD BAR PEAS
Finest Tender Early Garden
2's
Can 19c

PICKLING SPICES
SCHILLING'S
Whole Cinnamon, Cloves, Mustard, Allspice, Pickling Spice, Bay Leaves, Dill, Turmeric
Your Choice
3 for 25c

SALMON
OTTER BRAND
1930 New Pack
Fancy Alaska Red
1's Tall
Can 37c

SOLAR PINEAPPLE
Thick tender slices Sun-Ripened in the Tropics Ready for Dessert or Salad
Sliced 2 1/2's
Can 22c

ROLLED OATS
CARNATION
Quick or Regular
Chinaware in Each Package
Large Package
Package 36c

IVORY SOAP
99 44-100 Per. Pure
It Floats
2 Bars for 15c

LOVELL CORN
Bantam Finest Quality
Golden Corn
2's
2 Cans 29c

CATSUP
SNIDER'S
Made from Rich, Ripe, Fresh
Tomatoes
Large Bottle
Bottle 23c

HONEYMAID
GRAHAM CRACKERS
"Snowflake Bakers"
2-lb. Caddie
Caddie 34c

TUM-A-LUM TICKLER

Published in the interests of the people of Heppner and vicinity by THE TUM-A-LUM LUMBER CO., Phone 912

Volume 30 Heppner, Oregon Sept. 11, 1930. Number 35

EDITORIAL
Our idea of agony is a Mexican Jumping bean with inflammatory rheumatism.

ALBERT ADAMS, Manager, Editor.

Question: Is a chicken two weeks old old enough to eat? (See answer at bottom.)

A New York policeman stopped a hold-up man by butting him in the stomach. One cop used his head.

Wanted—Wet Rain. Well, if a chicken two weeks old isn't old enough to eat how can it live?

WE RECOMMEND CELOTEX
INSULATING TAPE BOARD

Coal
Of American
Life
To keep your home warm burn COAL. The fuel economical.

Ole and Jens were novices at the fishing game, but had remarkable luck at their first attempt. "By yimminy, das bane fine fishing hole. Las mark das place ant comb back tomorrow," suggested Ole, as he pulled up the anchor.

Then as he heared the shore Ole asked, "Did you mark das place vare ve caught dose fish?"

"Ya bet," answered Jens. "Ay poot cross mark on da side da boat."

Ole snorted, "Val, Lunkhead, how ya know ve'll get das same boat tomorrow?"

ABOVE EVERYTHING
GET OUR E/T/T/T/D/E

A little taste of repairing and remodeling would probably put your home in fine shape for the rigors of winter.

The boy stood on the burning deck. The heat was coming from Tum-A-Lump coal.

REEROOF NOW
SEE US

The Gazette Times for Everything in Printing

Out-of-Doors Men!

We're ready now with big values in Warm Outer Apparel

Heather Sport Coats for Smart Service

Ribbed Stitch Knit

$2.98

Heavier than the usual sweater at this low price. Tightly knitted worsted plaited over cotton. V-neck, button-front, two pleated pockets; reinforced covered seams; assorted heather colors.

Men's Stag Jackets
$6.90

Horsehide Vests for Men
$7.90

Boys' Sizes—$6.90

Sturdy Wool Coat Sweater Shaker Knit
5.90

A favorite model with the outdoor man because of its firm, heavy quality, shawl collar and set-in pockets.

All-Wool Hunting Socks
49c pair

Comfortable, sturdy socks, stand plenty of hard wear. Red or gray tops.

J. C. Penney Co. Inc.

DEPARTMENT STORE

READY to Serve You

Modernly - Quickly - Efficiently

GEMMELL'S SERVICE STATION

P. M. GEMMELL, Prop.

The bright new RED, WHITE AND BLUE station on corner of MAIN and EAST CENTER STREETS—the dual plant with the latest equipment for dispensing STANDARD OIL PRODUCTS; greasing, oil changing and tire repairing. Convenient, clean rest rooms. FREE AIR.

Seiberling Tires

"Our service will please you; you patronage will please us"