THEY DARED AND WON.

THE only feat in aviation which compares with Col. Lindbergh's solo flight from New York to Paris is the return of the French airmen, Dieudome Coste and his flying mate Maurice Bellonte, who flew from Paris to New York. It is not detracting from their glory to point out that there were two of them, to relieve one another at the controls, while Lindbergh flew alone. Their feat was more hazardous, since the storm danger was greater and the wind was not in their favor.

Everyone who admires courage will indorse President Hoover's words in greeting the French flyers at the White House. Their achieve ment, he said, "demonstrates again the high courage of mankind. We un-derstood well enough the revolutions whereby the nations of South America liberated themselves from the kings of Spain and Portugal Our own national history is based ipon just that sort of a revolution.

What is difficult for us to understand is the sort of revolution they are having in South America now The former President of Peru is in prison, with revolutionists in power The man who ruled Argentina for many years has been deposed by revolutionists. There are rumblings of revolution in southern Brazil.

Why a revolution in a republic All of these nations are self-govern ing countries; why don't the people change their government at the polls, if they are dissatisfied, as we do?

The answer is that they can't. There is no such thing as universal suffrage in these neighbor republics. Only a privileged few vote, and the party or group in power has the unpleasant habit of intrenching itself behind the army and holding on by The only effective way of getting it out is by the use of su-perior force. The politicians attend to that and the common people have nothing to say about it.
