

Lindbergh's Only Rivals

Dieudonne Coste (right) and his flying mate, Maurice Bellonte, first to fly without stop from Europe to New York. They flew then to Dallas, Texas, for a $25,000 prize, in their famous red plane "Question Mark."

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hiatt departed for Portland on Tuesday, where they will spend some time while Mr. Hiatt is taking medical treatment. They expected to pick up Mr. and Mrs. Roy Iler at The Dalles, who would accompany them to the city, where Mr. Iler will also consult with the physicians of the railroad company concerning the condition of his health. Mr. Hiatt expects to have a visit at the home of his father, W. E. Hiatt, at Vancouver, Wash., before returning home.

J. O. Turner is feeling good over passing the state bar examination, being notified of this fact the past week. Mr. Turner took the law course at Willamette university at Salem completing it in three years. He is not fully decided as to what he will do but may later on take up the practice of law. His immediate concern is looking after the farm at Swaggart's Buttes.

O. C. Wageman has returned to Heppner after an absence of several months spent mostly in the middle west where Mr. Wageman formerly resided. He did not find conditions flourishing there, and while the outlook for wheat is none too good here, he is taking his time about deciding whether he will again become a wheatraiser here.

S. E. Notson, county committee man, also member of the state central republican committee was in Portland over the week-end, where he consulted with other members of the state organization concerning the campaign and also attended the meeting of the committee endorsing Judge Kelley of Albany as nominee for the supreme court bench.

Louis Padberg was in Heppner on Saturday. He has recently been busy with harvest work and reports that job is now completed. The work of drilling at Wells Springs, where Mr. Padberg is interested in some natural gas development, will be resumed right after the first of the month.

Cornett Green and Nolan Turner departed Wednesday evening for Portland where they will enter business college for the winter. They were accompanied by Alex Green and daughter Ruth in the Green car. Mr. Green was taking Ruth to the Shrine hospital for an examination.

Orrin Blisbee departed the first of the week for Palo Alto, Cal., where he will resume his studies at Stanford university. He is majoring in foreign commerce, and last year won a fellowship through high scholastic attainment.

Wm. Kummerland spent a short time in the city Saturday from his farm west of Heppner. He had a good crop this season and if the price of wheat was just somewhere around the dollar mark he would be sitting pretty.

C. Z. Crandall of the firm of Fee & Crandall, lawyers of Pendleton, was a visitor in this city for a few hours on Wednesday while attending to matters of a legal nature.

Mrs. Dora Starkey was over from her Condon home spending Monday and Tuesday visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Merle Cummings, and other relatives in Heppner.

Pasture for Sheep—1100 acres of stubble pasture; 900 acres have straw dumps on. Phone 10F41, Ione, Oregon.

Earl D. Hallock, cashier of Farmers and Stockgrowers National bank, returned Sunday from a two-weeks vacation spent on the coast at Rockaway with his mother, Mrs. Delia Hallock, who has cottages for rent there during the summer season. He also visited with his brother, Sidney Hallock, in Portland.

Fred Mankin and wife of Ione returned Friday from a camping trip in the mountains. While taking this outing Fred put in some time deer hunting but failed to get his buck. He was compelled to return home in order to begin his seeding operations the first of the week.

Rodney Thomson departed Sunday for Corvallis in company with Clair Cox in the Cox car, where he will enter O. S. C. for his freshman year. Clair, a student at the college last year, will not resume his studies there this term.

Ben Attebury of Boardman was in Heppner on Tuesday making disposition of a portion of his honey crop. Mr. Attebury states that his bees did well this season, and we can testify that the honey is of a very excellent quality.

Homer Green and Tilman Hogue were Eight Mile farmers in the city on Monday. Mr. Green who has farmed the Wes Brannon place for a number of years, is contemplating making a change and locating elsewhere in the county.

Lotus Robison was in town from his farm near Hardman Tuesday. The change in the weather the first of the week was quite noticeable at his place, with an eighth of an inch of ice formed in a washtub there Tuesday morning.

E. C. Heliker, president of the Morrow County Grain growers and independent candidate for county commissioner for the short term, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Heliker is recovering satisfactorily from a recent illness.

Jack Pearce and Carl Helms of La Grande were visitors in this city on Tuesday in the interests of the Meier for governor campaign. They were passing out the Meier buttons, finding a number here willing to wear them.

Pete Prophet arrived in town on Saturday with another supply of huckleberries gathered from the slopes of Mt. Adams. He had no difficulty in disposing of them to Heppner housewives.

Mrs. Bruce Bothwell is over from her home at Maupin, Oregon, for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cowins, and other relatives in this city.

A license to wed was issued Monday by Clerk Gay M. Anderson to Orlando E. Comini of The Dalles and Loretta Bradford of Prairie City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engleman and daughter, Miss Vern Engleman, were visitors in this city on Saturday from their home at Ione.

Mrs. Carrie Kirk, Hardman resident, was transacting business in the city Tuesday, accompanied by her young daughter.

Merle Becket left Saturday evening for Eugene to enter the University of Oregon, taking up commercial work.

W. E. Prun, watermaster, was in Portland the first of the week on business.

HARDMAN.

Friday the H. U. H. S. freshmen were initiated at a party given for them by the upper classmen. Refreshments were served. Members of the freshman class are Owen and Delsie Bleakman and Muri Farrrens. Mrs. Chas. Hastings, who has been seriously ill at her home here for the last four weeks, has been removed to the Heppner hospital. Miss Zetta Bleakman departed by auto Sunday for La Grande. She will be a student at the Eastern Oregon Normal there.

Neva Bleakman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman, won second prize on her sewing exhibit at the North Morrow County fair held at Boardman. She took her sewing lessons under our 4H club leader, Mrs. Bert Bleakman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warren from Pomeroy, Wash., are here visiting his sisters, Mrs. Corda Saling and May Adams.

Jim Miller's residence property was totally destroyed by fire the first of last week. The fire was caused by a gasoline explosion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mahrt made a business trip to Grant county on Thursday.

Miss Golda Johnson spent part of the week visiting friends at Top. Miss Lydia Cox is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Stevens were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nels Johnson Sunday.

Charles Repass is building a wood shed for Mr. DeVore on the property recently purchased by him.

Ethel Bleakman is home after spending the summer at the Tupper ranger station.

Eston Stevens departed for Baker Monday. He will bring back a band of sheep for Fred Hoskins.

Chas. McDaniel spent Sunday with his family. He is employed on the forest reserve.

Dr. Gray was called Monday to attend Chas. Hastings. He is suffering a heart attack.

Neta Bleakman entered school Monday.

Mrs. Zoe Fisk spent Sunday at her home in Condon.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

To the Electorate of Morrow County:

I desire to announce that I have filed my petition and have declared my intention of seeking the position of County Commissioner to fill out the term left vacant by the death of L. P. Davidson; otherwise designated as the short term; and I shall appreciate your support at the polls at the coming general election, November 4th 1930.

ERNEST HELIKER Ione Ore.
—Adv. 28-33.

DROVE OUT EVERY PAIN AND TROUBLE

"Between indigestion and neuritis-like pains that were almost unbearable I was in perfectly wretched health for a solid year. The change that Sargon brought in my condition was simply marvelous. The neuritis-like pains and all my other ailments have disappeared; I sleep fine, get up mornings refreshed, alert and energetic, and am so much better I hardly know myself for the same person."

"Sargon Pills didn't nauseate or upset me in the least, but they cleared my system of poisons and gave me perfect regulation."—Mrs. Clara O. Bridges, 7716 74th St., Portland, Oregon.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to summon to her Eternal Rest our sister, Ella C. Fell, who was a faithful member of San Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33;

Therefore, be it resolved, that San Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33, in testimony of its loss and to express its love, drapes its charter for thirty days, and that we tender to our family of our departed sister our deepest sympathy, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread on our minutes, and a copy be sent to the family.

"Even death has a wonderful mission
Though it robs us of those we love;
It lifts our hearts from our surroundings,
To long for that meeting above.
No matter how heavy the burden,
No matter how great the despair,
Doesn't Heaven seem nearer and dearer,
To know that our loved ones are there?"

BESSIE CAMPBELL,
ELLA BENGE,
OLIVE FRYE,
Committee.

ELECTION EDITION

Everyone else was running for an office so we sort of got the urge and want to have an election of our own. Look over the swell planks in this platform and the fine candidates we offer.

Our Platform

(Examine the planks)
1. If elected we promise a City Beautiful. Remodel and repaint all of the old buildings and old homes that are being neglected.
2. Reduction in the price of everything but lumber and building material (it's too cheap already). This reduction includes gasoline, soda pop, fresh sardines, lip-stick, oil stock, bath tubs, and Tom Thumb golf.
3. We are strong for raising the price of wheat to about $2 per bushel.

4. And last but not least we want you to know that we have nothing else to do but help you with your building problems.

Our Candidates.

(Look 'em over.)
1. Al, editor of the best paper in this part of the country and a member of the Progressive party. His only mistake was made in 1930.
2. Bill, our yard foreman. He has been known to miss his Christmas dinner to accommodate some customer who wanted 4 lbs. of cement.
3. Ed, our delivery man is so fast at getting out orders he sometimes meets himself coming back.
Vote for
Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company
for building headquarters.
(Vote for only one)

ALBERT ADKINS,

Manager, Editor.

One reason we regret the passing of the village horse trough was that it left us without a parking place for the goldfish during the summer vacation.

Near Bend some hunter killed a deer, then on his way home ran over a cow. Only a pedestrian was needed to fill the bag limit.

Don't forget to vote.

Fur Trimmed Winter Coats
24.75

Never have coats been smarter . . . with slim, dress-like lines, all around belts or seaming that fits them to the figure. Furs, too, contribute to their smartness with cape-like sleeves, elbow cuffs and collars that have a flattering way of framing the face. The materials and the workmanship are such as you would expect to find only on coats at a higher price.
