

BOARDMAN

Once more we are reminded of the old poem:

"The leaves are fading and falling, the winds are rough and wild, the birds have ceased their calling, etc., etc."

The poplars have lost their summer coats of green and autumn is here again. How rapidly the years pass; after twenty, at least.

Boardman people again brought home the travelling attendance banner from Pomona which was held Saturday at Rhea Creek. This is the third time that the Greenfield Grange has won the banner so it becomes the permanent property of the local grange. There were 42 local Grangers made the long trip. The talk by H. T. Bone of Tacoma was especially well received. He spoke on the proposed Grange power bill. Mr. Bone is the legal advisor for the Port of Tacoma. A fine dinner was served to a large crowd.

All the silos on the project are now filled. Cooney's was filled last week, which is the last. Silage provides a fine succulent feed for dairy cows and I. Skoubo who has both cows and sheep says that it makes an equally good feed for sheep.

Boardman school kids enjoyed a vacation on Monday and Tuesday of this week while the teachers attended institute at Heppner. The meeting was inspirational and proved interesting to all who attended. Mrs. Martha M. Titus and Orla Brown gave a musical number.

Glenn Hadley has been making his annual trip up Hardman way with honey. He takes a load up every year and always manages to dispose of all of his honey crop.

The October Silver Tea was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marschat. 32 ladies were present and enjoyed the social hour at the close of the business meeting. Serving were Mesdames Fleckinger, Ellis, Hango, Marschat and A. Skoubo. Carol Kennedy was called to his home near Weston this week by the illness of his stepfather who had a stroke. He left him much improved.

The annual bombardment started at daybreak on Wednesday of last week and once more the natives go about their usual labors with fear and trembling lest they have their fatal beauty marred by the chance shot of some Nimrod who probably had not had a gun in his hands for the past year and who knows nothing of gauging the distance, and oftentimes shoots when he sees something move, only to find he has killed a farmer's turkey or chicken. Some of the hunters are courteous enough to ask permission to hunt the majority give no need to property rights.

Mr. and Mrs. Marschat, Mrs. Nate Macomber and Mrs. A. T. Herheim were Pendleton visitors on Friday. Mr. Marschat who is a member of the State High School committee, attended a meeting of the committee that day.

Eino Forsti, Herman Groop and Matthew Jakala were recent visitors at the Hango home. The men were on their way to Hood River from Frederick, South Dakota, and were old friends of the Hango's.

December 5 is the date set for the annual bazaar of the Ladies Aid. Mrs. Macomber is chairman of the work committee and has an especially fine assortment of fancy work for the bazaar this year. Mrs. W. O. King is in charge of the dinner which is always given at the bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Arnold of Lexington are new residents on the project. They are living on the Cal Ervin place.

Mrs. R. C. Mitchell was a visitor in Portland last week.

Messrs. A. Thompson, R. Ferguson and Dr. L. Murphy, all of Hood River, were guests at the Rands home during the first days of the hunting season.

Miss Shellenberger, Miss McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Miss Katherine Brown, Orla Brown and the Marschats formed a merry picnic group on Sunday that enjoyed a trip across the river with George Mitchell as pilot. They hunted for arrow heads, had a fine dinner, a long hike, and returned tired and weary that evening.

Ada Wilbanks who is attending the state school for the blind at Salem is getting along nicely and likes her new surroundings very much. She is learning to sew and many other things hitherto thought to be impossible.

The Meads, Dillaboughs, Rands and the Merritts of Irrigon had a picnic supper on the beach at Dillaboughs Sunday evening.

R. H. Campbell, Dave Drager and Bert King of Salem were hunting here and were guests at the King home. They come up each year. Bert is a brother of W. O. King.

The Densons have gone to La Grande again as Walter Denson had a relapse and was forced to have another operation. He has had several operations since his illness, which started with an infection following the removal of some teeth. Mastoid trouble started and he has been seriously ill at Hot Lake for many weeks.

Plans are on foot for the erection of a feed store. This has been discussed for some time and this week Mr. Machan has been calling on the various ranchers collecting the three dollars which is to be used as a nucleus for a building fund. It is hoped that this may be a successful venture. It would seem more advisable to rent a building until the success of the project was assured as the town has too many empty buildings already without the possibility of adding another. The plan of handling feed here seems very feasible for it doubtless would bring much of the Willow creek trade here and the local ranchers buy hundreds of dollars worth of feed each month, not to mention all the money that goes to Hermiston merchants which belongs here, and if anyone can buy anything cheaper in Hermiston than in Boardman we have never heard about it. Mr. Dillon has worked up a good business trucking feed from Hermiston and it is indeed an advantage to have the feed brought right to the ranch and placed just where it is wanted. It would seem as though Mr. Dillon would be a good man for the place of managing the feed store. The success or failure of the store will hinge largely on getting the right man to manage the business.

Hon. Henry Allen Cooper, 80, of Wisconsin, who has served 38 years in Congress and has just been re-nominated.

Albert Kuhl and Mr. Peterson of Portland were visitors at the Nick Falter home recently.

The Home Economics club met Wednesday with Mrs. Gien Machan. Everyone had a pleasant time and enjoyed the fine spread and the social hour.

ALPINE.

The monthly meeting of the Alpine Farm Bureau was held Saturday, October 4, at the Alpine school. Bill Doherty took the chairman's seat in the absence of the regular chairman, G. L. Bennett. After the business meeting a large audience enjoyed the program. Some of the selections were: Instrumental music by Mildred Howard and Bert Michel on the violin and guitar; recitation, "Benny's Pain" by Kenneth Klipinger; playlet, "Brave Boys" by Alpine primary grades; vocal solo, "I'm Dancing With Tears in My Eyes" by Miss Mildred Howard; recitation by Claud Finley; Health Train by the Strawberry school; "The Dutch Orator" by Alex Lindsay; "When My Caravan Has Rested" and "Three for Jack" by Laurel Beach, accompanied by Miss Ward. The selections by Mr. Beach were particularly enjoyed. Supper of sandwiches, cake and coffee was served in the basement immediately after the program. The evening was rounded out by games in which all took part. The crowd dispersed about 12 o'clock after everyone had spent a very enjoyable evening.

Miss Bernice Heft, formerly of Echo, drove down from La Grande Saturday where she is attending normal school and where her parents now reside. She was accompanied by Miss Gertrude Tichenor and Miss Ruth Brashears.

Miss Naomi Moore, a graduate of Pine City high school in 1930, is now attending the Dekker business college in Portland.

Laurel Beach, who attended a music conservatory in Chicago last year and who did chautauqua work this summer, and who will do lyceum work this winter, was among Lexington people present at the Farm Bureau meeting Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bennett spent Saturday afternoon and evening in Hermiston taking in the Hog and Dairy show.

Among the Lexington visitors at the Farm Bureau meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Beach, Miss Jessie McCabe, Miss LaVerne White, Harold Henderson, Laurel Beach and Scott Dean.

Miss Wood, the music instructor of Heppner high school, was present at the Farm Bureau meeting Saturday evening.

The Pine City high school, the eighth grade, Miss Maxine Stanfield and Ralph Jones spent Tuesday forenoon in Pendleton in visiting the court and the afternoon in visiting the Pendleton Woolen mills and the Eastern Oregon State hospital.

Mrs. James Omohundro is on her way home from Chicago where she has been visiting with friends and relatives for about a month.

J. G. Doherty and daughter Tina of Blackberry were visiting with relatives in this community last week. Tina returned to Portland

Monday, where she will continue nursing.

Miss Mae Doherty drove down from Hardman Saturday where she teaches school, to attend Farm Bureau. She was accompanied by Miss Margaret Doherty who teaches at the Willow school.

A carnival will be given at Pine City by the school on Thursday, Oct. 30. A good program and a good time is planned.

Special services at Pine City closed Sunday with an afternoon service. A China pheasant dinner preceded the services. Abe Bennett, who has been holding the meetings, returned to Eugene. There will be services every Sunday at Pine City. Mr. Jones of Stanfield will be the speaker.

Mrs. Irl Clary and Miss Rosella Doherty, teachers of the Alpine school, and Miss Nora McDaid, teacher of the Strawberry school, motored to Heppner Monday morning to attend the teachers institute. They returned Tuesday evening.

Visits from Longview. James Hart arrived in the city Saturday from Longview, Wash., where he is identified with the Monticello hotel as manager of the dining room. He was accompanied by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary P. Blake of Portland, and together they went on to Condon Monday morning for a visit at the old family homestead of the Blakes on Rock creek. Mr. Hart enjoyed a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Melissa Marshall and Mrs. Ellen Buseick, while here. He was formerly employed with the Imperial hotel in Portland and hopes for the success of its manager, Phil Metschan, in the present gubernatorial campaign.

RHEA CREEK GRANGE NEWS. The Rhea Creek Home Economics club will meet at the ranch home of Mrs. Frank E. Parker on Saturday, Oct. 11, instead of October 25. The social evening will be the 25th, and the evening will be spent in playing cards. All grange members are in-

A COLUMN OF FUN AND FACTS (Edited by Dean T. Goodman from his private sanctum down at the Heppner Garage.)

HOWDY FOLKS—Johnny Hiatt says that if a doctor's son can be sick for nothing, it stands to reason that a minister's son can be good for nothing.

AND THEN A FRIEND OF OURS TELLS US THAT IF YOU FIND A MAN AND WIFE OF THE SAME FRAME OF MIND, IT ISN'T HARD TO TELL WHOSE MIND IT IS. (To which ye Editor adds "Amen.")

A Gale street boy asked his girl if she liked Kipling and the sweet one said, "I don't know. How do you kipple?"

How to kipple IS quite a question, but what brand of tires to use, is settled by one word, "GOODYEAR."

It is easy to pick out the careful driver now-a-days. All the dents are in his rear fenders.

And if both his hands are on the steering wheel, you may presume he is married.

Incidentally, while it is hard to get the drift of some things, you can always tell what the motorist is driving at, if you happen to be a pedestrian.

Another bunch of aviators are getting ready for a non-start flight across the Atlantic.

Do you remember the young couple that had the air wedding here, not so long ago? You will be interested to know that they are still living happily together.

The only satisfactory cure for dandruff was discovered in France just before he revolution. They called it the guillotine.

A well known author admits that his first story of five thousand words only brought him twenty-five cents. That's the same rate we've been paying our barber.

If it is true that the bravest are the tenderest, then the steer that furnished our dinner last night was nothing but a miserable coward.

It's a remarkable fact that the endurance fliers remained unshaven throughout the duration of their flight, despite the splendid facilities for disposing of used blades.

AND NOW THAT THE HUNTING SEASON HAS OPENED WE HAVE A LITTLE ADVICE FOR HUNTERS:

If it stands on its hind legs, but has a pipe in its mouth, it is not a squirrel.

And then in one of our idle moments we decided that no good news ever comes in one of those envelopes that has a little sun parlor in front.

But good news comes in large packages for those who patronize our excellent greasing and washing department.

Hattie Pathfinder sez, "Face powder may attract 'em, but it takes bakin' powder to hold 'em."

No, a delayed buck is not the dollar your friend borrowed six months ago.

A LADY IN THE LIBRARY THE OTHER DAY SAID SHE HADN'T READ MANY OF SIR WALTER SCOTT'S BOOKS, BUT SHE THOUGHT HIS "EMULSION" WAS JUST TOO INTERESTING FOR ANYTHING.

In conclusion, we frankly confess that the most we ever bagged on a hunting trip was our trousers.
