

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haney and daughter Donna of Fairfield, Idaho, visited over the week-end with friends in Heppner, while Mr. Haney was interested in purchasing feeder lambs. The Haney family resided in Heppner and Mr. Haney was assistant cashier of the First National bank. He is now cashier of the bank at Fairfield.

Gene Ferguson, Louis Frederickson, "Tom" Thompson and Gerald Slocum composed a hunting party out on the ridge near the head of Skinner creek Sunday and were given a volley of shots at a big buck driven from the thickets below by Wm. Poulson and Russell Pratt. All the boys returned empty handed.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford returned Tuesday evening from a week-end trip to Joseph where they visited at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hayes. That the rain of Tuesday was general was evident as it rained on them all the way home.

J. B. Huddleston and sister, Miss Bess Huddleston, were in the city Wednesday from their home at Lone Rock. Passing through Arlington on their way to Heppner they said the people there were greatly elated over the heavy rain of Monday evening.

John Turner is taking a two weeks vacation from his duties as truck driver for the Union Oil company and expects to visit Portland and coast points. Buster Neel is back on the job with the company following his vacation.

O. E. Lindstrom, Morgan wheat-raiser, was transacting business in the city Monday. Rain has not been so prevalent there as in the south end of the county and Mr. Lindstrom would like to see more of it right now.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Adkins of Emmett, Idaho, spent Thursday last at the home of Mrs. Mattie Adkins, mother of Mr. Adkins, enroute home from a vacation at the coast and in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson of Portland were week-end guests of Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell.

Frank Howell south Hardman rancher, was transacting business in the city Tuesday.

Adrian Engelman was in the city Friday from his home near Ione. Mr. Engelman has been in poor health for some time, owing, he thinks to too much hard work and small pay; at least this is the way he expresses it.

Dr. H. H. Green, assistant state veterinarian of Salem, is in the county this week doing tuberculosis testing of dairy cattle. His work will be completed Saturday.

Andrew Olsen, automobile accessory salesman and former manager of the Union Oil company at this place, was visiting the trade Monday.

Mrs. Andrew Reaney and daughter, Mrs. Carl Miller, were transacting business in the city this morning from Lexington.

John O'Dell, from the Walla Walla office of the Tum-A-Lumber company, is in the city today.

There is a bargain in town—Lay Chow, at the Heppner Trading Co.

A. K. MacGregor, the piano tuner, coming Oct. 10. Phone 1112. 30.

STUDY CLUB MEETS.

The Women's Study club met Saturday afternoon with 17 members present. Mrs. Walter Moore presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Glenn Jones. The following topics were given: "Byrd and Wilkins Antarctic Explorations," Mrs. J. F. Lucas; "Women as Aviators," Mrs. Hollis Bull of Lexington; "Women's Activities in Promoting Peace, in Politics and in Congress," Mrs. Arthur McAtee. Mrs. Isabel Cleveland gave a very interesting talk. Miss Jeannette Turner entertained with piano solo, and Miss Esther Wood, a vocal solo.

FOOTBALL GAME FRIDAY.

Heppner high school footballists will initiate the season tomorrow afternoon when they journey to Lexington to engage the boys there. Coach Shuiman thinks his boys should make a good showing, though is not overly optimistic, due to considerable green material in the lineup.

McNAMER ON MEIER GROUP.

C. W. McNamer has accepted appointment as Morrow county commissioner of the Meier-for-governor campaign, according to word received from Meier headquarters.

HARDMAN.

About 60 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mahrt gathered at their home to give them a farewell party. It was a complete surprise to them. A very enjoyable time was had. Refreshments were served by the ladies, consisting of cake, jello and coffee. Mr. and Mrs. Mahrt will make their future home in Heppner where Mr. Mahrt will be engaged in electrical work. The best wishes of the entire community go with them.

Mrs. Percy Bleakman and son Norman were visiting Mrs. Bert Bleakman Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Kate Adams spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Ernest Cannon.

Fred Ashbaugh is seriously ill at his home in Rood canyon, his recovery being doubtful.

Harold and Lawrence Fuqua of Portland, nephews of Mrs. Bert Bleakman, and Mrs. Chas. McDaniell, made them a pleasant visit over the week end. They were accompanied by Tim Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniell Sr. have moved into town for the winter.

Mrs. Delsie Chapel, Mrs. Zoe Fisk and Miss Louise Torre attended institute in Heppner Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Carl Leathers and daughter Jean visited friends at Monument a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stillwell from Portland are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Johnson. Mrs. Stillwell is Mrs. Johnson's mother and it has been several years since she has been to eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Mary McDaniel and Mrs. Zoe Fisk were invited to a chicken dinner at the home of Mrs. Lewis Knight Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Corrigan were visiting Mrs. Corrigan's mother, Mrs. Geo. Samuels Saturday. This being the first time they had been here since their marriage several weeks ago, the young people took advantage of the opportunity and gave them a hilarious charivari. They were rewarded by ample treats consisting of candy peanuts and cigars.

Mrs. Ella Bleakman and daughter Nellie spent the week end visiting with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McDaniell at their Rhea creek home.

Edna Lovgren visited friends here Sunday.

Everett Hadley visited friends at Top the first of the week.

Mrs. Jim Burnside spent Sunday evening visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Farrans.

Mrs. Charles Vaughn and Mrs. Earl Gilliam departed for Portland the first of the week for a few days

Albert Peterson Dies

At Ukiah After Illness

Albert Peterson, prominent young stockman of Ukiah and well known in Heppner, having been prominent in staging the rodeo here in years past, died at his home yesterday following a lingering illness, according to word received in the city this morning.

Mr. Peterson was a Heppner visitor on many occasions, having married a former Heppner girl, nee Miss Ruth Huddleston. For several years he acted as a judge at the Heppner rodeo and was instrumental in bringing stock and performers from his section. He was president of the Ukiah Cowboy convention.

CONDON TO PLAY HERE.

Condon and Heppner town football teams will play at Rodeo field Sunday afternoon at 2:30. This will be the first appearance of the local team at home, and with the experience gained in the game at Lexington last Sunday they believe they will give the Condon boys a run for their money.

Ferguson Motor company this week delivered a new school bus to district No. 3 for transporting pupils to Heppner.

ANDERSON-SPARKS.

The marriage of Miss Olive Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson of Ione, to Lee C. Sparks, also of Ione, was an event of the first of the week. The young couple were joined in wedlock at the Methodist parsonage in this city at 11 a. m., Monday, Oct. 6. Rev. Glen P. White, pastor, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks departed immediately on their honeymoon, to be spent at Seattle and other Sound cities.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Rev. B. Stanley Moore, missionary-in-charge.

Church school at 9:45; celebration of the Lord's Supper and sermon at 11 o'clock; Young Peoples Fellowship at 6 p. m.

"Look not on the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal."—2 Cor. 4:18.

P. T. A. POSTPONED.

W. R. Poulson, president of the Parent-Teachers association announces that the October meeting has been postponed to the week of the 20th-24th, the exact time to be announced later. This is done because of the prospect offered of having Dr. Love, head of vocational education at O. S. C., present to address members of the association, who is available at that time.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

To the Electorate of Morrow County:

I desire to announce that I have filed my petition and have declared my intention of seeking the position of County Commissioner to fill out the term left vacant by the death of L. P. Davidson; otherwise designated as the short term; and I shall appreciate your support at the polls at the coming general election, November 4th 1930.

October 5 to 12 is to be celebrated all over the U. S. as PROSPERITY WEEK. Never in the last ten years have prices of staple commodities been so low. There never was a better time to buy what you will need. The so-called business depression is mostly in our minds. plan on doing your repairing and building this month. Get optimistic—Let's go!

ALBERT ADKINS,

W. C. Cox celebrates Prosperity Week by letting the contract for a new creamery building. It will be of concrete and will embody all the latest ideas making for convenience and sanitation. When he gets moved Mr. Cox will be able to make good better. Johnson & Crump are the contractors. Plans and materials from Tum-A-Lum of course.

One thing the Prophet Job never had to do was take a clinker out of a furnace with a straight poker.

According to one bright boy in our public schools, a volcano is a mountain with a hole in the top. If you look in the hole you can see the creator smoking.

A new roof or insulation of your home may be money spent but if you figure the money saved by increased comfort and the smaller fuel consumption you will find that the interest rate is above the legal limit.

She: "Do you know, Joe, I think you were just made for me."

He: "Well, dear, I'm sure you were made for me."

Whereupon they made for each other.
