

Local Happenings

There was a pleasant meeting on Saturday afternoon at Masonic hall of the O. E. S. Social club, at which time Mesdames D. M. Ward and Roy Lieutellen of Ione were hostesses. For refreshments pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served. Six tables of bridge were in play and honors went to Mrs. C. W. Smith and Mrs. Gene Ferguson. Members present were Mesdames W. E. Pruyne, C. C. Patterson, Hanson Hughes, C. W. McNamer, A. A. McAttee, D. A. Wilson, Chas. Vaughn, Bert Mason, Gene Ferguson, Earl Gilliam, W. P. Mahoney, W. O. Dix, Charles Cox, G. M. Anderson, J. J. Wightman, F. W. Lucas, Earl Gordon, Chas. Smith, W. R. Poulson, Harry Tamblin, and the Misses Eerrita Fay Lamson and Mary Patterson.

While returning to her home near Lexington from Heppner on Saturday evening, Mrs. A. F. Majeske met with an accident in which her car was turned over by the side of the highway. Riding with her was her son and infant daughter, and that each escaped serious injury is miraculous, as the machine is reported to have turned over three times before coming to a stop. Mrs. Majeske and son each received some cuts and bruises and the baby escaped entirely uninjured. The injured were brought to Heppner for medical attention and their hurts given proper treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomson departed on Wednesday morning for Baker, expecting to spend a couple of days there looking after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blahm and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Brickner of Walla Walla spent the week end as visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Blahm near Heppner. They also enjoyed meeting many old time friends in Heppner while here. Mr. Blahm formerly owned the ranch where Adam Blahm now lives, but has had his home at Walla Walla for a number of years. He states that his part of the country received a good soaking rain recently, much to the delight of the farmers, and grain is coming along fine.

K. W. Farnsworth arrived back home last week from Portland where he was at a sanatorium for some weeks. He is much better but still must remain quietly at home for the present until he gains more strength, the states Enterprise Record-Chief. Mr. Farnsworth is water master for Wallawa county under the state engineer, and because of illness he was compelled to give up his work for a time but has hopes of being able to go to work again shortly.

J. D. French, cattleman of Gurdane, was looking after business in this city on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. French reports plenty of moisture in the Gurdane hills to bring along the fall range in good shape. Chas. Vaughn and Chas. Cox returned Monday evening from their deer hunt in the mountains about the head of Willow creek. The boys each got a buck deer, finding the hunting better now than when the season opened.

A party of Heppner men going to Pullman, Wash., Saturday to witness the gridiron classic between University of Southern California and Washington State college included W. R. Poulson, Paul Menegat, Jasper Crawford, Rev. B. Stanley Moore and John Wightman. The men report an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Willis McCarty and children were guests over the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Louie Campbell came over from Pendleton on Sunday for a visit with the home folks, and returning that evening were accompanied by Mrs. McCarty.

Mrs. Chas. Vaughn and Mrs. Earl Gilliam, who spent several days the past week in Portland, returned home on Friday evening.

Miss Margaret Woodson, former Heppner girl, now an attorney at Portland, was a visitor here the first of the week. Miss Woodson is one of the outstanding lady lawyers of the state, having been graduated with honors by the law school of the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Ida Dutton came up from her Portland home the end of the week and is a guest at the Alfalfa Lawn Dairy home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wightman. She was accompanied from Portland by Miss Anna Wightman who had been spending a short time in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Latourell departed for the mountains Saturday prepared to stay for several days, or at least until they had secured a buck deer apiece. Mrs. Latourell usually meets with success on these trips, as well as her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford of Heppner arrived in Joseph Saturday for a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Everett Hayes. Mr. Crawford is editor of the Heppner Gazette Times. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford returned to their home Tuesday.—Joseph Herald.

Emil Carlson of Gooseberry was a visitor at Heppner on Wednesday. The Carlson brothers have finished with their fall seeding and since their section received an abundant rain, the grain is coming along well.

W. W. Howard, for many years in the sheep business in this county and located on Butter creek near Pine City, was a visitor here on Saturday. He now makes his home at La Grande.

Erik Bergstrom was a visitor in the city Tuesday afternoon from his farm home in the Gooseberry section.

Ture Peterson of the Ione Meat market was looking after business in this city Wednesday forenoon.

Mrs. Ida M. Dutton of Portland is a guest at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wightman.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER. To the Electorate of Morrow County:

I desire to announce that I have filed my petition and have declared my intention of seeking the position of County Commissioner to fill out the term left vacant by the death of L. P. Davidson; otherwise designated as the short term; and I shall appreciate your support at the polls at the coming general election, November 4th 1930.

Hallowe'en program and party at Eight Mile Center schoolhouse Nov. 1, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Plenty of fun, plenty to eat. Everyone cordially invited.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eye-sight specialist at Pendleton, Oregon, will be at the Hotel Heppner on Monday, Oct. 20. 32-1t.

Lawrence Palmer, Lexington grain grower, was a business visitor in this city on Saturday.

A. C. and George Pettes, farmers of the Ione section, were in the city Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kincaid were Ione people in the city for a short while on Monday.

MAKES SANITARY SURVEY.
A detailed sanitary survey of the Willamette river has been completed by the engineering experiment station at Oregon State college and the report has just been published for free distribution. Conditions above Salem were found fairly satisfactory at present, though below Salem and Portland the water is seriously contaminated by industrial wastes from both state and private plants during low water. The survey is the first scientific study ever made of the Willamette waters and it forms a basis for any future action to protect the stream from pollution.

"Use Coal—Unless you have 'Money to Burn.'" There are 2000 reasons in every ton.

We deliver Tum-A-Lump promptly. Just say the word and our handy man will get the jump on Jack Frost, as nimble as he is these days.

And then there's that big ballot for Nov. 4 to be thinking about, too.

Lumber arrived this morning for the new creamery building, being erected by Johnson and Crump, contractors, for Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cox. This is form lumber as the building is to be of reinforced concrete, materials for which are already here.

Relativity according to Einstein, is defined as—"When you sit for two hours with a nice girl you think it is only a minute, but when you sit on a hot stove for a minute you think it's two hours. That's relativity."

Two minutes is more than ample time to call us about any repairs, alterations, or painting you wish done to your home.

And after we have finished the work, it will seem like eternity before it will be necessary to call again.

Our HANDI-MAN SERVICE is still working and includes all kinds of building or painting work you wish to have done. We are always glad to get you in touch with competent workmen.

A COLUMN OF FUN AND FACTS (Edited by Dean T. Goodman from his private sanctum down at the Heppner Garage.)

HOWDY FOLKS—We read that many storks were frozen in a blizzard in Holland. As far as that is concerned, the stork gets a chilly reception in this country, at times.

Carl Cason knows a woman who calls her husband "the light of her life" because he "goes out so much." He is probably with some "old flame."

We are giving away 50 airplanes that will really fly, to boys under fourteen. Help your boy to get one.

Central: "Number please." Inebriate: "Number, nothing. I put a nickel in this thing, and I want my gum."

"You seem to have a lot of intelligence for a man in your position," said the cross-examining lawyer, sneeringly. "Thank you," replied the witness, "I'm on oath, or I would return the compliment."

THEN THERE WAS THE PROFESSOR'S SON WHO FORGOT IT WAS SATURDAY AND PLAYED TRUANT.

It is said that sleep improves the complexion. On that basis, some of our friends must be training for a beauty contest.

A DEVOTIONAL SKUNK. A skunk and her four baby skunks were basking in the sun when a big hound dog made its appearance. "Children," said the mother skunk, "let us spray."

Those California boosters are at it again. Comes word from the south of a woman 26 who is a grandmother. Wonders of California climate.

What the dickens can Oregon think up to beat that?

Don't forget to tell your boys about the airplanes we are giving away. See our ad in another column of this issue.

Jo Mahoney says that even the times get dull there is always one thing she can count on. Her fingers.

AND ANOTHER THING YOU CAN COUNT ON IS A MIGHTY BIG VALUE IF YOU BUY GOOD-YEAR TIRES.

DIPPY DIALOGUE
A polite man stopped at Clark's grocery store the other day and asked Bill Ball, "Do you have fish in cans?"
"Yes."
"Ain't you afraid, brother, they will smother?"

SOCIETY NOTE
After eating onions, look at the bill for the wife's new dress. It will take your breath away.

RICKY'S RIOTOUS RHYME

We accept it without a demur;

Portland, October 28, 1921.

Mr. M. L. CASE, Heppner, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—This is to notify you of the arrival and service of the late Olive O. Beach who passed away near your city and whose remains you prepared and shipped to us.

The service was held in our chapel yesterday morning at 10:30, attended by members of the family and many of their old-time friends from this city. At the conclusion of the service the casket was opened and those present had the opportunity of taking their last leave of the old friend.

Allow me to offer my congratulations on the splendid manner in which you cared for the remains and the excellent condition in which they arrived.

Yours very truly,
