IONE

MRS. JENNIE E. McMURRAY, Correspondent

The results of the Ione city election are as follows: Mayor, John Louy 56, Bert Mason 53. Recorder, W. W. Head 91, Paul Balsiger 1, F. Robinson 2. Treasurer, Grace Linn 97, Alice Peterson 1, Della Corson 2. Marshal, George Frank 84, P. J. Linn 24. Councilman for four years, John Bryson 97, Lee Howell 88, E. R. Lundell 91, Henry Clark 2, Louis Balsiger 1, M. E. Cotter 2. Councilman for two years, Ture Peterson 65, Ted Troge 63, J. W. Howk 50, Ed Moore 18, Paul Balsiger 2.

Mrs. Eldon McFerrin and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Roy Her, in The Dalles. Frank Engelman was a business visitor in Portland over the week end. Mrs. Perry Bartelmy departed Sunday for her home in Mays. She was on her way home from a previous visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Morgan, when she was recalled to Ione by the illness of her mother, following an automobile accident.

Ed Keller of Pendleton was an election day visitor in Ione. The annual visitation meeting of pastors and laymen of the Congregational church will be held Monday evening, Nov. 10, in the Congregational church at this place. Every one is invited to attend this service. A pot luck supper will be served in the dining room at 6 o'clock. Wayland Ritchie is spending a few days in Portland.

Carl Troedson, Verner Troedson, Elmer Cochran and Richard Lundell were Ione boys who drove to Portland to witness the W. S. C. O. S. C. football game Saturday. Miss Linea Troedson of Echo was also in attendance at the game and on the return trip was a passenger in her brother's, Carl Troedson's, car. When Mrs. Oscar Cochran visited recently in La Crosse, Wash., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Warfield, she enjoyed a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fenwick, former residents of Ione. Mr. Fenwick is pastor of a Baptist church near La Crosse. The daughter, Rena Fenwick, is married and is also living in the same locality.

Election day was a busy one in Ione. The men serving on the election board during the day were M. R. Morgan, W. W. Head, Henry Smouse, Robert Rietmann and Floyd Fletcher. Those serving on the night board were Louis Balsiger, Paul Balsiger, Elmer Griffith, E. R. Lundell and P. J. Linn. Counting of votes began early and extended well into the night. A large and enthusiastic crowd assembled at the school gymnasium Friday evening for the Halloween program and carnival given by the grade school. The program was very good and both pupils and teachers merited and received a great deal of praise. The carnival was enjoyed by all. The friends were generous in their giving and the grade school realized a neat sum. The program follows: Junior Mason being official announcer; piano solo, Nancy Robertson; history of Halloween customs, Junior Mason; Halloween acoustic; Hoogie Man, in which Maxine McCurdy sang the solo and the dance was by grade pupils; Fairies ball; Witch's dance; Ghost reading by Betty Bergvin; Halloween party; the Cats dance; a scene in Dr. Dobbs office; singing by a group of girls; a short demonstration; Cats phantom; the Halloween garden a-blooming; jolly Halloween.

The pupils and teachers of the Ione grade school wish to thank the patrons for their hearty cooperation and help in giving the program and carnival last Friday evening. Mary Doherty, a pupil in the seventh grade, is quite ill. The Carnegie Hero Fund commission has ordered a bronze medal sent to Mr. and Mrs. Hallick Stange in recognition of the heroism of their daughter, Eva Stange. Miss Stange lost her life in a vain effort to save Glenn Robison from drowning in the Columbia river at Alderdale ferry in August, 1929. Mr. and Mrs. Stange reside at Longview, Wash. Last summer a representative of the Carnegie commission visited Ione and from Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Robison, parents of Glenn, learned the story of the tragedy. Week-end guests in the R. E. Harbison home at Morgan were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Gardner of Hillsboro, their grandson, Teddy, and Mr. Gardner Sr., father of V. W. Gardner.

Fred Buchanan made a trip to Toppenish, Wash., Saturday, taking over a load of furniture belonging to Mrs. Hannah Ahalt. The Ione hotel has been closed temporarily while some alterations and repair work is being done. Mr. and Mrs. Cole Smith who have been running the hostelry for some time past have moved into the Willard Blake house on Second street. Several of the regular boarders at the hotel will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Jack Campbell of Kelso, Wash., owner of the property, has been here looking after business affairs. He was accompanied by E. H. Stiles of Everett, Wash., who remained in Ione and will do the repair work on the building.

Walter Eubanks is representing a produce company again this year. Charley Dane of Ione and Frank Jones of the produce company have been doing some preliminary work under the direction of Mr. Eubanks. Mr. Jones has now gone to Redmond. The numbers on the hope chest given away by the O. E. S. social club were drawn Friday evening at the Halloween program at the school house. Mrs. C. W. Swanson was the winner. Friends here have received a letter from Jack Whitesides who left Ione about a month ago for the Boulder Dam district where he expected to get work. Mr. Whitesides wrote from Cottonwood, Ariz., and seems to be enjoying life to the fullest. He made the trip into the scenic Kaibab forest on a hunting expedition and had killed a buck. He wrote about visiting a Montezuma castle and seeing many Aztec Indian relics. He planned on visiting Phoenix and wrote that the dam work would not open up until after the first of the year.

The Elmer Griffith home was the scene of a jolly Halloween party Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6. The children who enjoyed the fun of the Halloween games and delicious refreshments of ice cream, wafers, salad and sandwiches were Margaret and Grace Lindeken, Mildred and Helen Lundell, Miriam Hale, Mary Kay and Helen Blake, Valjean Clark, Alan Howk, Maxine McCurdy, Sybil and Dorothy Howell, Virginia Katherine, George and June Griffith. In the house decoration and serving, Mrs. Griffith was assisted by Mrs. Earl Blake and Mrs. J. W. Howk. A committee composed of Mrs. John Wightman of Heppner, Mrs. Blackburn and Mrs. Art Wheelhouse of Arlington and Mrs. Willard Blake, Mrs. Bert Mason and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy of Ione, met Sunday afternoon at Masonic hall to make final arrangements for the district meeting of Order of Eastern Star to be held Thursday, Nov. 6, at Arlington.

Kenneth Akers who last week underwent a major operation in a Heppner hospital, is making a satisfactory recovery. He hopes to be able to return to his home in Ione by the last of this week. The ladies of the Congregational church had a hot tamale sale on election day. They sold tamales at the Paul Balsiger shop and at the church dining room, served tamales, coffee and pie. Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan of Salem are enjoying their vacation at this time and are spending a part of the time with Mrs. McMillan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Christoperson were week-end visitors with relatives near Vancouver, Wash. The three 4-H club girls of Miss

Hildegard Williams' sewing class who won prizes at the North Morrow County fair at Boardman, have received their prize money. Charlotte McCabe, winner of first prize, received $2.50. Mildred Lundell, winner of second, received $1.00. Margaret Lindeken, winner of third, received 75 cents. These three girls and Miriam Hale are entitled to achievement pins which will be presented soon by Mr. Smith, county agent, or Mrs. Rodgers, county school superintendent. L. E. Dick of Pomeroy, Wash., was a business visitor in Ione the middle of last week. Wait Smith of Portland was calling on old friends in town last week. French Burroughs returned October 29 from Hot Lake where he had been for treatment for rheumatism. The co-operative grain growers have shipped 6000 sacks of wheat from the local warehouses. This will make room inside for some of the grain which has been piled outside. Carl Bergstrom and Charley McElligott recently made a trip to Yakima, Wash., for a load of fruit. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Dempsey and children motored to Portland last week for a few days visit with relatives. Louis Balsiger has bought the property on Second street owned by the late Ernst Montandon. The house on this property is being occupied by Mrs. Inez Freeland. The district convention of the Rebekah lodges will convene November 21 at Lexington. The members of the Past Grand club held a special meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Harlan McCurdy home in the Harris building on Main street. Mrs. Henry Clark is again at home after a few weeks spent with her daughter, Mrs. Inez Sigbee, in Portland. The barn on the David Grabil property has been torn down and the lumber will be used to build a garage. The Legion auxiliary ladies have rented the room on Main street formerly occupied by the Grimes coffee shop, and have converted it into a pleasant work room. Floyd Fletcher has returned to Ione. Mr. Fletcher was working in the apple picking at Wenatchee. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sperry spent the week end in Portland.

LEXINGTON NEWS

The Lexington P. T. A. will hold a meeting on the evening of November 19. An especially interesting meeting is expected, a question box about school problems being the feature which will take up most of the evening. The meeting will be held at this time, because the Thanksgiving vacation makes it impossible to meet on the regular night. On Sunday, Nov. 9, Dr. D. V. Poling of Oregon State college will hold meetings in the Leach Memorial hall from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and again at 7 o'clock in the evening. The P. T. A. will serve a lunch at 25 cents a plate from 5 until 7. Mr. and Mrs. S. Strodtman and daughter Anabel were shopping in Pendleton Saturday. Mrs. Eva Lane has returned from Portland, where she has been attending the stock show. Mrs. Frankie Parker, Miss Dona Barnett, Mrs. Leach McMillan and James Leach were business visitors in Pendleton last Thursday. Mrs. Ola Ward has gone to Corvallis where she will visit her daughter Velle. Tuesday noon, Mrs. Leach McMillan, Opal Leach, and James Leach left for Tucson, Ariz., where they will spend the winter. Last Friday, L. H. S. football team and a good many of the Lexington football fans went to Arlington, where the boys were defeated by the A. H. S. team. Miss Alice Montgomery spent last week end in Portland. On Saturday Edwin Ingles motored to Portland, returning Sunday with Mrs. Ingles, who has spent the past week there. Mrs. Ed Burchell entertained the L. H. S. football team with a turkey dinner Wednesday evening of last week. The ladies of the Three Link Social club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Broadley. Sunday the Lexington town football team played The Dalles American Legion team at Lexington. An unusually close and exciting game resulted with the final score 7-0 in favor of Lexington. The ladies of the P. T. A. served a chicken dinner and supper in the Leach Memorial hall Sunday. On Monday evening Mrs. Harry Dinges entertained the members of the P. T. A. executive committee at her home. Fred Tash, Arlington business man, is in Heppner today. Modern house for rent. Inquire this office.

President of Big Canadian Firm Says He Never Saw Anything to Equal New Treatment.

"After taking five bottles of Sargon and two bottles of the Soft Mass Pills I want to say that in all my 70 years I've never seen anything to equal this remarkable treatment," recently said Jacob Gherman, Pres. of the Western Hardware Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Canada, who moved to Winnipeg from Rumania 30 years ago and who has acquired extensive real estate holdings in that city. "In fact, Sargon has been of such great help to me that I am sending a full treatment to two friends of mine back in my old home country. I wrote them what a wonderful medicine it is and how it restored my health after all other medicines and treatments failed. "I suffered torture with indigestion after meals and only those who have had this terrible affliction know what a blessed relief it means to get rid of it. I also suffered from chronic constipation almost as far back as I can remember. "After the first few doses of Sargon my stomach seemed to right itself, my nerves grew stronger and I began to sleep well and now I am in better health generally than I've been in 35 years. "I use to take a physic almost every day of my life, but since taking Sargon Pills my bowels are as regular as clockwork. Their easy natural action makes them especially suited to elderly people like myself. I only hope my statement will help other sufferers." This is only one of the thousands of cases where grateful men and women have received such wonderful benefits from Sargon that they have sent it to their relatives and friends in distant lands.
