BUY NOW FOR CHRISTMAS.

The slogan "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early" has a genuine importance this year. Usually it is merely a reminder that if you delay too long in selecting the things you intend to give at Christmas you run the risk of finding the things you want are "out of stock."

Money passes from one person to another in exchange for commodities. Everybody, of course, must decide for himself what sort of commodities he is willing to take in exchange for his money.

The first suggestion that has come from President Hoover's Commission of Unemployment is proposed by Col. Arthur Woods, at his head; that a great national campaign of repairing and painting be begun.

There are few houses or other buildings that are not in need of either repairs or painting. The money spent on such things is money well invested.

"Buy Now" is not an invitation to reckless spending, but we believe it is sound advice to all who can spend anything at all.

BUNK. RUMOR is being circulated all over the country, to the effect that President Hoover is shortly to give his approval to the manufacture of beer containing 2.75 percent of alcohol.

It is interesting, but it is all bunk. Nothing of the sort will be done. It would not be worth paying any attention to, were it not for the fact that it is not only being passed by word of mouth to business men, bankers and others who are in doubt whether to believe it or not.

DOING THINGS DIFFERENTLY. SOMETIMES a difficult situation can be altered by the simple process of doing things differently from the way in which they have been done.

Chairman Legge of the Federal Farm Board said the other day that the feeding of wheat has become so general that it may absorb enough of the surplus wheat to affect prices in favor of the farmer.

Members of the John Day Irrigation district who understood the measure did not vote for the "Peoples District Power" bill. They are not yet through with one sad experience involving the right of people to form districts and levy taxes, as evidence the statement of John H. Lewis in this issue.

One little ray of hope through the opaque gloom hovering over prices for farm products, comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission, which has flatly denied the rehearsing asked by transportation interests and announced that the cut in grain freight rates will become effective January 1.

Members of the John Day Irrigation district who understood the measure did not vote for the "Peoples District Power" bill. They are not yet through with one sad experience involving the right of people to form districts and levy taxes, as evidence the statement of John H. Lewis in this issue.

Leaders in the Oregon potato growing industry believe in the proper enforcement of the state potato grading law and in further economic work to help stabilize acreage, according to sentiments expressed at the annual meeting of the Oregon Potato Growers association in Portland recently.

Having had its say during the evening of this paper is ready to accede to the will of the majority, and to wish Julius L. Meier success as the governor of Oregon.

He is a wise man indeed who is able to give a true estimate of values. All kinds of ideas were in the minds of people while Jesus was in the midst of His ministry.

HUMORETTES

"Look at the lovely radio set I got today, dear, and only $5 a month."

"For how many months?" "Oh, I forgot to ask."

"Going my way?" "Yeh."

"Kin I ride with you to my home?" "How far away is your home?"

"Eight blocks." "I'm parked farther than that."

Paul—Are you going to kiss me good night? Eve—Mercy, no! That's the last thing I'll do.

Paul—All right, then, what'll we do first? Autist (to pedestrian he's just run over)—Here's a ten spot. I'll give you more later.

Victim—What's the idea? I do not choose to be run over on the installment plan!

Dr. Slicem—How is young Mr. Schmidt doing since his tonsil operation? Nice Nurse—As affectionately as can be expected.

Lyon—What! That little insignificant cur a police dog? Eac—Why, yes. He doesn't look like it, but that's because he's in the secret service.

Counsel (in divorce case)—I ask that a recess be taken at this point, Your Honor. Judge—On what grounds?

Counsel—My client wishes to change her gown. She hasn't displayed half her costumes yet. Guest—I asked you for a quiet room and you said that this room was so quiet after eight o'clock you could hear a pin drop.

Now I find it's over a bowling alley. Hotel Clerk—Well, can't you hear 'em drop? For Sale—130 head large, fine, heavy wooled, big boned Rambouillet rams. Price $10 a head.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D. ALWAYS GOOD

In these hurry-skurry days, when Mr. Everyman keeps his eye on the clock while he is bolting his skimpy breakfast, so as not to be a second late at his next performance—it is not strange that, the same "hit-and-run" expert clean overlooks the cause of disease, as well as the best means of its prevention and cure.

Beyond any question of doubt, the factor of REST is the physician's most dependable asset in correcting the human ills. Many ailments of very severe character are really cured by enforced rest, while poor unscientific, undependable drugging takes the credit! I can ascribe a hidden virtue to my dose of pills, if they make my patient so infernally sick that he has to go to bed and get well! For, your sick man generally does the thing last that he should have done first.

To cure a fractured bone, we place the fragments in proper position and keep them there till REST
