RESISTS GALE IN SANTO DOMINGO DISASTER

Above, wreckage surrounds ancient cathedral, holding reputed tomb of America's discoverer, but it stands unscathed. Below, Red Cross girl aids in inoculating the injured.

"HISPANIOLA," the island which Christopher Columbus "loved above all other lands" and known in those modern days as the Dominican Republic, was the scene of a terrific disaster in early September, which called all of the forces of relief, including the American Red Cross, into action.

With two thousand dead and almost ten thousand wounded, the beautiful island's capital city of Santo Domingo, was almost totally wrecked. The American Red Cross gave $50,000 from its treasury toward the relief work and generous aid came to the republic from other nations. Navy and Marine aviators of the United States carried in Red Cross medical supplies and established communication. The Red Cross sent an expert relief director to aid the American committee, organized by Governor Theodore Roosevelt of Porto Rico, adjoining island.

President Trujillo of the republic performed a magnificent task in organizing the nation's forces to doctor the injured, and protect the health of survivors.

The Dominican Republic was the first seat in the Western World of European civilization, as it was upon that island that Christopher Columbus planted his first colony in the magnificent Cathedral in Santo Domingo—a very ancient structure—is a monument containing a bronze casket in which are the reputed bones of the discoverer of America.

The Cathedral was untouched by the fierce gales, which laid waste more than ninety per cent of the dwellings in the city.

This was the first disaster in the new fiscal year of the Red Cross, which had just closed its books showing relief, given by the national organization and chapters in 108 disasters, with expenditures of $1-

208,151 for relief, in preceding year. The Red Cross gave relief in twelve foreign countries last year, in addition to standing by to relieve all distress at home caused by catastrophes.

Demands upon the society for this help are increasing each year. The funds necessary for instant action, for maintaining expert personnel and providing a surplus from which appropriations can be made immediately, are raised through the annual roll call which the Red Cross holds each year in the period from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. Each person joining as a member becomes a supporter of this work.

HUMORETTES

"So Flora's divorced her parlor magician? Couldn't he pull enough rabbits out of his hat to keep the pantry filled?"
"Yes, but he couldn't pull enough hats out of his pocket to keep her wardrobe filled."
"Don't you patronize the hotel barber any more?"
"No. He's too absent-minded."

Last time I went in for a shave he pinned a newspaper around my neck and handed me a towel to read."

Angus—Those neighbors of yours must be getting some station with their radio that I can't get. I never heard a program in which the people quarreled so realistically.
Sandy—That ain't a radio program. It's the neighbors themselves. They've all just come home from their vacations.

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

The election of one director to succeed Leslie Packard of Boardman and Mr. Glasgow of Irrigon to serve on the board of the West Extension Irrigation district was held Tuesday with some queer results. Voters at both places voted for one director and as a result the vote here stood 22 to 22 for Packard and Sanders, but the Irrigon vote elected Mr. Packard, who has served since the organization of the district. The same thing occurred at Irrigon with the Boardman people electing Mr. Frederickson. J. R. Johnson, Y. P. Rutherford and Claude Myers served on the election board.

The Fortiers motored to Condon Saturday and visited over Sunday at the Campbell home.

Miss Rachel Johnson was hostess at a delightful party Saturday night, having three tables of "500." It was a merry crowd that played for the fun of the game. At the close it was found that Mrs. Guy Barlow and Mr. Coats held the high honors and Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy low. Guests were the Kennedys, Marchants, G. Barlows, Coats, Deibert Johnson, Z. J. Gillespie and Ray Barlow.

The Boardman turkey growers were quite perturbed to receive word Saturday that the association was to ship on Monday, and there was a mad scramble to get turkey pickers and get things ready to pick on Sunday. It was generally understood that growers would be given a few days notice. The association price was 30 cents this year, so there was a big scramble for various growers to join at the last moment as there was last year for many of them to get out and sell to the concern that paid the highest price.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Porter entertained at a lovely dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Howard Bates entertained the Bridge club Monday. Honors went to Mrs. Shannon for high and Mrs. Rands, consolation.

The Sunday school will give a short Thanksgiving program on Sunday at 10:30 to which everyone is invited. The grange has been invited to attend church services on that day and Rev. Miller will give a special talk.

Mr. Slang continues to be seriously ill at his home. Mrs. Slang's sister is here from La Grande. Mrs. H. E. Waite returned home Sunday evening from a delightful visit of four weeks with friends and relatives in California. She visited her brother in Santa Cruz, her son in Los Angeles and at various other places. While there she encountered a hot wave said to be the worst for a great many years. Mrs. Waite, who has been suffering with rheumatism, is much improved.

The November meeting of the P. T. A. was held Friday night at school with about 75 in attendance. The program consisted of recitations by Alice Wicklander, Stanton Hadley, Catherine Mead, and two selections by George Mitchell, and a pianologue by Mrs. Titus. Short talks on various subjects were given by Mrs. Mead, Miss Shellenberger, Mrs. Rands, Mrs. King, Mr. Porter, Miss Brown and Orla Brown. Pertaining to Education week the children who attended played volleyball in the gym under the supervision of Mr. King. Mrs. Ward Graves was chairman of the re-
