Official Paper for Morrow County.

UNFAIR COMPETITION.

IN ADDRESSING the American Bankers' Association in Cleveland recently, President Hoover said: "I have never believed that our form of government could satisfactorily solve economic problems by direct action—could successfully conduct business institutions. The Government can and must cure abuses."

What a howl would go up from the business world if the Government of the United States, merely because it happens to have the necessary facilities in its navy yards, should go into the business of building merchant ships, in competition with the commercial ship builders. The United States Government owns an excellent airplane manufacturing plant in which it builds experimental planes for the navy. Suppose the Government should go into the airplane manufacturing business for the general public? It would be perfectly obvious to everybody that this was something which the Government has no business to do.

Printing of Government documents, maps, postage stamps and money is a proper function for the Government's printing establishments. But when the Government of the United States engages in the business of printing return envelopes for private citizens, it is unfairly competing with the job printers of the nation. It would be unfair competition even if fair commercial rates were charged for the work; it is worse than unfair when this work is done for less than cost.

THE BILLBOARD NUISANCE.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY, New York, has set an example which every county in the United States might well follow. Poster and billboard advertising is absolutely controlled by the county authorities and is prohibited except under certain specified conditions where outdoor advertising is not an offense to the eye and a blot upon the landscape.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School Lesson for November 23 THE RICH YOUNG RULER, REFUSING A LIFE OF SACRIFICIAL SERVICE

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D. Here is a character in history from whom valuable lessons can be learned and yet his name is unknown to all. Knowledge of this rich young ruler persists because one day he crossed the path of Jesus and was identified with Him for a few minutes.

With bumptious pride this young fellow who regarded himself as a model man, said "All these have I kept from my youth up." He claimed that he had never wronged anyone. There is no special credit in that kind of a life. It is just being ordinarily decent and each one should be able to pass that kind of an audit.

This self centered man did not reckon that he had any obligations to help his neighbor in distress. This great world of humanity was signally brought to his attention as Jesus told him to sell all that he had and distribute the proceeds among the worthy poor. Then he was to follow with Jesus in general ministries. He was not told to give up earning more money in honest occupations, for he had all of his former capacities for work.

the shock of their lives when their campaign posters, tacked up in the customary manner on fences, trees and telegraph poles along the roadside, were torn down by county officials of their own party. They blustered and protested, but to no avail. Some of them were wise enough to avoid antagonizing public sentiment and made no fuss about their inability to display their electioneering handbills.

Times have changed, indeed, when politicians cannot violate even a law like that with impunity. The history of politics in America is that the man in political office immediately regards himself, not as the servant of the people, but as their master. The worst of it is, he frequently gets away with it. But there are some things on which public sentiment is crystallizing so strongly that even the politicians do not dare to run counter to it. One of these things is offensive billboard advertising. Some day advertisers will also wake up to the fact that most people are offended rather than impressed by advertising matter forced upon their eyes when they are trying to enjoy the beauties of the out-of-doors.

EXCESS OF EATING.

"We Eat More and More," reads a recent headline. A writer and compiler of statistics quoted from the Literary Digest says, "One hundred and fifty pounds a year, or increase in food consumption during a generation." He adds that, "We consume fewer cereals and more sugar, fruits and milk products."

He says quite an earful; he speaks of a time when dinner arrived at noon, and was the big meal of the day. Supper was usually corn-mush-and-milk, with fried mush, butter and molasses for breakfast the next morning.

Those were the days when people got along with some 500 fewer diseases than we "enjoy" at the present time—and when a fellow died of old age. There is everything except wisdom in many of the dietary customs of this on-rushing age of early death and big inheritance taxes.

THANKS EXPRESSED.

I am taking this means of thanking the voters of Morrow county for electing me county commissioner for the fourth time. I consider my election to the office of commissioner a singular honor as both my opponents were men of the most sterling qualities. Any matters you may have about county affairs, come to the county court with them. We meet the first Wednesday in every month and we will be only too glad to talk them over with the voters.

When Farmer Wheatley saw an ad in the paper: "For $5 we will tell you how to cure your horse of slobbering," he sent in the money. A few days later he received the information: "Teach him to spit."
