

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

The Ladies Aid annual bazaar will be held in the schoolhouse Friday evening, Dec. 5. They will start serving dinner at 5:30 p. m. Prices for the dinner will be 35 and 25 cents. A splendid line of fancy work will be on sale. There will also be a popcorn and candy booth, a fish pond and many other attractions. Everybody is invited to come. Thanksgiving week and its annual dances, parties and dinners were much enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Randa were hosts to a lovely Thanksgiving dinner. Guests were the Falers, Warners, Klitzs, Paul Mead, Mrs. Hiatt and Buster Randa. Mrs. Hiatt, Mrs. Randa's mother, came from Freewater on Thursday and returned home Sunday. Mrs. Randa accompanied her and then went on to Walla Walla for a visit. Miss Nellie Dillon and Miss Mary Healey, who are attending business colleges in Portland, were home for Thanksgiving vacation. Gladys and Eldon Wilson and Buster Randa, students at Eastern Oregon normal, were home from La Grande. Mrs. Gillespie, teaching at Elkton this year, came home Wednesday. She brought one of her pupils, Agnes Haines, with her. Mr. Gillespie returned with her Saturday and will remain there through the winter. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat were dinner guests of Miss Ethel Beougher at Hermiston Thursday. Miss Beougher was a teacher here in the high school for three years. A lovely dinner was given by the Strobls. Guests included the Kings, Packards, Spagles, Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Pickering, and Mr. Markham from Portland. Mrs. Pickering is a sister of Mr. Strobel. The Hereim family spent Thanksgiving day at the J. R. Johnson home. Willbanks entertained the Myers, Skoubos, and Mike Cassidy at a bountiful dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Carol Kennedy enjoyed a turkey dinner at the Chaffee home. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Say and daughters Shirley and Marionel, came from Portland to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Say's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Porter. Arthur Porter returned to Portland with them. J. F. Gorham was a Pendleton visitor last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Lear and daughter Gloria from Pendleton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Waite on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sharpe and baby spent Thanksgiving at the E. T. Messenger home. Blaydens and Gorhams had their annual Thanksgiving dinner at the Gorham home. Miss Rhoda Shellenberger was a dinner guest at the D. W. Miller home on Thanksgiving. The Chaning family, who live on the F. L. Brown place had turkey dinner at the A. A. Agee home Thursday. E. T. Messenger went to The Dalles on Tuesday to receive medical attention. A large number of Boardman folks attended the masquerade dance at Irrigon Wednesday night. This was a benefit dance for the basketball boys. Mrs. Mead and daughters, Helen and Catherine, spent Thanksgiving at The Dalles. Mr. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt of Irrigon, and Joe Simon were guests of Miss Schultz and Carl Doring at a lovely dinner on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat entertained at a delicious turkey dinner on Friday. Guests were Miss Shellenberger and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hereim and sons A. T. and Orthon. The P. T. A. dance and box supper given at the school auditorium Thursday night was well attended. Cake and coffee were served to those who did not bring a box. Another lovely dinner on Thanksgiving day was that given at the J. F. Barlow home. Present were Guy Barlows, Claude Coats, Z. J. Gillespie, Agnes Haines, Ray Barlow and the hosts. The Ransiers spent Thanksgiving day at Echo at the home of Mr. Ransier's brother, Marvin Ransier stayed there over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Macomber entertained at a sumptuous dinner. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Macomber, Mrs. Billie Bailey, Eldon and Mary Matthews, Sybil Grace Macomber and the hosts. Howard Ellis and Elmer Tyler who have been working on the section at Messner, have been transferred to Rock creek where they expect to have work all winter. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coats were hosts at a delightful card party on Friday evening. There were four tables of "500." Guests were the Marschats, Guy Barlows, Kennedys, Hereims, Rachel Johnson and Ray Barlow. Honors went to Mrs. Marschat, F. A. Fortier, Mrs. A. T. Hereim, and Guy Barlow. Miss McMahon and Orla Brown left Wednesday evening after school for Portland, where they spent the vacation. Miss McMahon's home is in Portland. Mike Cassidy has been staying at Skoubos the past week and has planted a number of trees on his farm, which adjoins the I Skoubo farm. The people of Boardman were sorry to hear that F. A. Fortier, local Standard Oil man, is to be transferred to Union where he will take charge of the plant. The Standard Oil plant in Boardman will be closed during the winter months. The Fortiers will be greatly missed in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Fortier are active members of the P. T. A. and are members of the Grange. Mr. Fortier has been a member of the school board for the past year. They expect to leave the last of the week. Mrs. Fortier's daughter, Norma Gibbons, plans to stay in Boardman with her grandmother, Mrs. Cramer, until the end of the school year. Norma will graduate from high school this year and wishes to finish with her class. The Home Economics club entertained at a party Saturday evening at the D. W. Miller home. Seven tables of "500" were in play. Mrs. Faler and Mr. Dillabough received high honors, and Mrs. Kunze and Mr. George Wicklander low. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels and family were guests at the Strobel home Sunday. Daniels are now living at Meacham. A Thanksgiving dinner that was much enjoyed was that given at the Faul Smith home. The Ed Kunze family, R. Wasmer and Dave Johnson were the guests. An unusual incident occurred in Boardman last week when W. C. Evans forged three checks on W. V. Grider of Irrigon to a couple of business houses here. Evans had been working for Mr. Grider for a short time and formerly stayed at the Ludeman ranch. He got two checks amounting to $35 cashed at S. C. Russell's store. A day later he cashed another $35 check at the Barlow Service station, and bought two tires for his car, and then left town. It was not known that the checks had been forged until they were taken to the bank to be deposited. Guy L. Barlow, deputy sheriff, immediately telephoned Sheriff Bauman, so that he might notify officials in other towns to be on the lookout for the forger. So far Mr. Evans has not been located. Miss Norma Gibbons was hostess to an enjoyable party on Saturday evening. It was given at the Fortier house back of the bank building. About 30 young people were present. Dancing was the main diversion of the evening, followed by a lovely lunch. Charlie Andregg and Aaga Jensen went to Portland last Tuesday. Mr. Jensen returned on Friday and Mr. Andregg remained there to work for his sister. J. F. Slinger, 61, died at his home near Boardman Thursday evening, Nov. 27. Funeral services were held in the LaGrande undertaking parlors Sunday morning, and the body was then taken to Cove for burial. Mr. Slinger was born in Holland and came to the United States when a boy. He lived at Cove, Ore., before moving to Blaine where he lived for 19 years. He then came to Boardman last spring for his health. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Slinger; a son, Frederick, and two daughters, Helen and Elizabeth. The community extends sympathy to the family. Wm. Strobel is taking the bales to Willow creek where they have about 600 tons of hay to bale. He took a crew from here to work with him. Mrs. Nick Faler entertained the Helomala Bridge club on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Denson received high honors and Mrs. Coats, low. Mrs. Gorham substituted for Mrs. Bates, and Mrs. Dillabough for Mrs. Randa. A dainty lunch was served at the close of the game. The high school student body president has appointed a committee to find out how much the expense would be to install a shower in the girls' basement. A committee was also appointed to look into the matter of fixing up the gymnasium basement. They want to find out how much the expense would be to install showers and dressing rooms. This would make it more convenient for basketball players. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen and family from La Grande came down to visit at the Allen home. They returned to La Grande Thursday evening. Clayton, their son, remained here with his grandparents. A meeting was held last week for the purpose of discussing a Grange feed store in Boardman. A committee was appointed to go to Hermiston to talk this matter over with the bank there. Another open meeting will be held on Saturday evening, before grange, to make further plans. All the farmers interested in a feed store here are requested to be present at this meeting. ATTENTION ELKS. During the months of November and December meeting nights will be the first and third Thursdays. There will be entertainment at each meeting. 35-40 For Sale—15 head of Jersey cows and heifers, some fresh now, all fresh by next spring. Will sell one or all. IRRIGON Mrs. Hazel Norcross and children from Portland are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith. Tony Sonison of Hermiston was working for W. C. Isom Tuesday, plastering and finishing a cement cellar. Vernor Jones is quite ill with an attack of mumps. Thanksgiving day was celebrated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markham with the following guests present: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Markham, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Oliver and family, Laurence Markham and family and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Markham. A sumptuous dinner was served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bracé and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Chaney and little daughter were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Coryell, Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weir were with The Dalles Tuesday by a message stating that Mr. Weir's cousin, a young man of nineteen, had drowned in the Columbia river while trying to get a duck he had shot. Mrs. Dawald has taken Mr. Weir's place as eighth grade teacher during his absence. Mr. and Mrs. Dawald motored to Boise, Idaho, Wednesday to visit relatives over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Linley Grabell of Pendleton, Mrs. Mac Grabell and son of Umatilla, Mrs. Ruth McCoy from Imbler, Will Grabell and Earl Isom were dinner guests Thanksgiving day of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grabell. Mr. and Mrs. L. Nelson of Lone visited Thursday and Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Jones and family. Mrs. Nelson is a sister of Mrs. Jones. W. R. Walpole, who had returned from Lynn, Wash., a short time ago died suddenly Thursday night. Mr. Walpole had an attack of influenza a few weeks ago from which he had not fully recovered. The remains were taken to Case Funeral parlors in Heppner and will be shipped from there to Portland for interment in the family plot. The team Wednesday evening was well attended and enjoyed by all. The orchestra donated their music for the benefit of the team. Twenty-nine legal voters were present at the district road meeting held Saturday for the purpose of voting a five mill tax for road work for 1931, which carried by a large majority. W. C. Isom and son Earl, George Scarlet and son Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Rutledge and son Don were all business visitors in Hermiston Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dexter spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Vern Jones. Bill Grabell and Miss Snow McCoy came down from Imbler for a few days visit, returning Sunday. Will Malten returned from Washington Thursday and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Burkett for the present. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bracé and Mr. and Mrs. Don Brooks motored across to the Washington side of the river Friday evening, taking dinner with Mr. and Mrs. George Haskell who are now located on the Bud Crofton place. They all attended a dance at Cooledge, Wash., in the evening. Frank Bracé and O. Coryell were in Heppner on business Saturday. A Thanksgiving program was given by the grade pupils with music by the band, Wednesday afternoon. The majority of the parents were present and thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment. Some of the selections incited all to greater appreciation of the blessings of the present day. Remember Christian Endeavor Sunday evening.

EDITORIAL Pretty soon the farmers will yearn to escape from farm relief and get back to good old fashioned depressions. But with Congress going to meet again we can lay the blame onto them. ALBERT ADAMS, Manager, Editor. This would be a fine time to do that repair and remodel work around your home. It would give work to those that need work, make your home better, increase your peace of mind, and the prices are lower than at any other time in fifteen years. Cold? Burn Coal—It gives that satisfying heat in a hurry. Christmas Shoppers. Built-in fixtures make a wonderful gift. Cupboards, ironing boards, medicine cabinets, and many others can be delivered for Xmas if they are ordered now. Most of these can be attached to the wall by the Man of the House in three or four minutes. "Now," she asked, "is there any man in the audience who would let his wife be slandered and say nothing? If so, stand up." A meek little man rose to his feet. "The lecturer glared at him. "Do you mean to say you would let your wife be slandered and say nothing?" he cried. "Oh, I'm sorry," he apologized. "I thought you said slaughtered." "And now, gentlemen," cried the orator, "I want to tax your memories." "Oh, Lord," came a voice from the audience, "has it come to this?" J. C. Owens is hauling out shingles for the big sheep shed John Adams is building on Rock creek. It will take about 80,000 to cover it.

Worth Thinking About There are many ways to be thrifty besides merely saving the pennies, although we'll admit they are worth saving. Here are a few of them: Save the moments—they are worth something to you if used properly. Be careful of your health—it may save you money for doctor's bills. Store wisdom away in your mind—where it will be valuable to you. In fact, keep sound mentally and physically. We can safeguard your funds—the rest is up to you. First National Bank HEPPNER, OREGON
