School Play Slated.

You see, Sally Ann's father, Captain Ross, has left Sally with his brother's family while he sails off in quest of a lost treasure. For a while things go well with Sally. She goes about with her friends, Huck-leberry and Crazy Jake,...

The play will be given December 12, 8 o'clock, in the high school auditorium. Tickets will be on sale December 8. Music will be furnished during the play by Ione high school band.

The cast of characters: Sally Ann, (Martha's niece) Elizabeth Head; Martha Ross (mistress of the house) Helen Smouse; Duellie (a poor relative) Veda Eubanks; Adeline and Hyacinth (of the sewing circle) Gladys Brashers and Geneva Pettyjohn; Ruth (Martha's daughter) Margaret Crawford; Timothy Ross (Martha's husband) Dorr Mason; Al Piper (known as Huckleberry) Grant Conway; Crazy Jake (a poor unfortunate) Norton Lundell; Hector Larkins (a friend of Timothy) Barton Clark; Dr. Miles Vance (the new doctor) Norman Swanson; Captain Caleb Ross (Sally Ann's father) Francis Ely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mankin entertained the Woman's Topic club Friday evening, Nov. 21, at bridge. There were nineteen men and women present. High honors went to Mrs. Victor Peterson and Henry Gogger. Club guests were Mr. and Mrs. Werner Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and Carl Troedson. The next study hour will be at Mrs. Omar Rietmann's December 6. American Artists will be the topic for discussion.

At the close of the regular meeting of Locust chapter No. 119, O. E. S. held Tuesday evening, Nov. 25, an especially pleasant social hour was enjoyed. First on the program was a short playlet by Mr. and Mrs. John Krebs and Mrs. Elmer Griffith. This was followed by old time dances, Charles Botts and son Robert furnishing the music. Refreshments were served. The decorations were in keeping with the Thanksgiving season.

Mrs. Bert Mason, Blain Blackwell, Walter Eubanks and Laxton McMurray were Ione citizens serving on the grand jury at the county seat last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Ward were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Troge and daughter Marguerite, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allstott and two children, motored to Estacada to spend Thanksgiving vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lovell.

Harold Kincaid, a student at Oregon Institute of Technology, Portland, was a week-end guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kincaid. He was accompanied by Robert Ross, a student of the same school.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Juday of Portland motored to Heppner to spend Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Juday's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes. They were accompanied as far as Ione by Mrs. Charles Nord who visited at the home of her son, Ray Barnett, and by Jesse Daly who visited Mrs. M. Jordan. The two gentlemen returned to Portland Friday, while the ladies remained for a more extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Blakely and two children of Lexington were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Tucker.

Mrs. James Botts and four children spent part of last week at the Charley Botts home in Ione while James Botts and Mr. Zenter made a trip to Mabton for vegetables and fruit.

Charley Shaver was greeting old friends in Ione last week.

Grant Conway, the 17 year old brother of Mrs. Ted Smith, was lost in the hills south of town for a few hours Saturday. Mr. Conway had taken his saddle horse and gone to look after some traps. The fog was dense, and when the horse returned riderless about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Smith became alarmed and search was started for the boy. However, late in the evening the young man returned, little the worse for his experience. The horse had broken away from him, and although for a while he was confused as to directions, he did not become frightened and kept moving to keep warm.

Mrs. Etta Shippey, who some time ago was injured in an automobile accident, is regaining her strength and hopes to be able to leave the Heppner hospital this week and return to her home in Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cochran were hosts at a delightful dinner on Thanksgiving day at their home on Second street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warfield and son from La Crosse, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cochran from Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sperry and daughters, Mrs. Harold Ahalt, George and Elmer Cochran.

Miss Linea Troedson who teaches in the Echo high school, spent Thanksgiving with home folks.

Miss Hazel Frank, a student in the Adventist school at Hermiston, spent the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frank. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd King ate turkey last Thursday with Mrs. King's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gibbs at their home in Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson entertained the Frank Engelmann family and the J. E. Swanson family on Thanksgiving day.

Earl Murry drove over from Walla Walla the first of the week. Mr. Murry was looking after his farming interests in this locality.

Lewis Ball has rented the Louis Balsiger farm on Willow creek. The disagreeable weather has stopped the work on the Frank Fraters residence and the building will not be completed until spring. Roy Stender, who was assisting with the carpenter work, has joined his family at Salem.

The Elmer Griffith home was the scene of a happy family gathering on Thanksgiving day. Those who gathered around the festive board are Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn, Clarence Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Charley O'Conner and son Charley, Miss Elmira O'Conner, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk and son Alan, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith, Virginia, Katherine, George and June Janet.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bristow motored to Baker to eat Thanksgiving turkey with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Bristow. They were accompanied by their son Walter, and by Mrs. Bristow's brother, Roland Wade, whose home is in Walla Walla. When the party returned to Ione, Miss Lucile Bristow had been staying in Baker at the home of her brother for some time.

Cole Smith drove to Portland Sunday, returning the same day. Going with him was his daughter Mildred, who was returning to her school work at Behrke-Walker Business college, and Mrs. Fred Ritchie who was going to the city for medical attention.

Please remember the date of the Baptist bazaar and food sale December 13, at the Bristow and Johnson store.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bergevin and two children were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Bergevin's mother, Mrs. King, at Baker.

Rev. W. W. Head delivered an interesting Thanksgiving sermon Thursday morning at the Congregational church.

Thanksgiving dinner guests at the William Padberg home in Clark's canyon were Mrs. S. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eubanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merritt from near Madras spent the holiday with Mrs. Merritt's mother, Mrs. Inez Freeland. Mr. Merritt has returned to his home but Mrs. Merritt has taken rooms at the Louy apartment and will remain in Ione during the winter. The Merritts have two children attending school in Ione. They have been making their home with

Business Man Makes Strong Statement

ROBT. A. STRATE

Robt. A. Strate, prominent business man, owner and general manager of the Bakery Equipment Co., Oklahoma City, makes the following statement regarding the recent recovery of his health:

"I suffered ten years with as bad a case of stomach trouble as any man ever had. It was impossible for me to enjoy a meal without suffering. I was terribly rundown. Five bottles of Sargol made me feel like a new man. I have gained sixteen pounds and have as much strength and vitality as I had twenty years ago. I have never found anything to equal Sargol Soft Mass Pills. They regulated me perfectly." Patterson & Son, druggists, local agents.—(Adv.)

AN IDEAL GIFT FOR THE BOY

What glorious adventures boys between the ages of ten and twenty have reading THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION! As if by magic, this well-known magazine carries boys to distant parts of the world, introduces them to strange people, lets them experience queer customs and revel in the adventures of foreign lands. In a single issue, a boy will battle the frozen Northland with sled and dog team, cross Indian-haunted plains in a prairie schooner, zoom over war-torn lands in an army plane or on dangerous routes with a U. S. mail pilot, hunt wild animals in Africa atop the swaying back of an elephant, go cruising in a battleship, fight Arab raiders with the Foreign Legion and participate in many other thrilling experiences as only readers of THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION.
