

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent. A farewell party was given for Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Fortier last Tuesday evening at the school auditorium by the people of the community.

Miss Ellen Henry and Alvin McCarty were visitors at the Nate Macomber home on Sunday, Nov. 30. Miss Henry is teaching in the Estacada school this year.

George Agee was a Boardman visitor for a few days last week. The date of the community Christmas tree program has been changed to December 23. This gives the people who generally leave Boardman on Christmas eve a chance to attend the program.

F. A. Fortier was a business visitor in The Dalles last Wednesday. Mrs. Frank Stevens is visiting with her son and daughters in Pendleton this week.

Mr. Markham from Irrigon and Royal Rands were Heppner visitors last week.

The Ladies Aid silver tea met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Sundsten at Coyote last Wednesday. A report of the talents given at this meeting. The talents represented a small sum of money that was given to each member who wished to participate and this money was to be invested in various ways to try to increase its value.

Misses Ethel and Alice Beougher of Hermiston were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat on Friday and Saturday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Denson have purchased the J. C. Ballenger home in town. Harry Murchie, who has been living there, will move into his own house, and the Ballengers are moving their furniture out to the ranch, formerly the Knaull place.

The Ladies Aid annual bazaar was held in the schoolhouse Friday evening. A lovely dinner was served under the supervision of Mrs. W. O. King. Mrs. Nate Macomber and Mrs. Nick Falter were in charge of the fancy work, a lovely assortment being sold at reasonable prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sharpe and baby and Miss Marie Messenger came Saturday evening for a visit at the E. T. Messenger home. Sharpe's returned to Roosevelt Sunday evening and Miss Messenger returned home to The Dalles Tuesday. Mr. Horace Williams was also a guest at Messenger's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates returned home last Tuesday from a week's visit in Portland and Longview.

Elmer Tyler and Howard Ellis came home Saturday evening and returned to Rock creek Sunday.

The high school gave a surprise party for Miss Mary McMahon, English teacher, in honor of her birthday on Friday evening in the school auditorium.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening. Mrs. Martha Titus, Mrs. Orla Brown and Nate Macomber furnished the music. The faculty and alumni were also present. A dainty lunch was served at midnight.

Paul Hatch has purchased the old Signs place east of the Smith ranch.

Mrs. Slanger and daughters Helen and Elizabeth returned home Friday from La Grande.

Paul and Harold Hatch were Boardman visitors Sunday. Paul drove a truck up, bringing about 1900 gallons of distillate.

Mrs. Tom Hendricks and Mrs. Dan Ransier were Hermiston and Pendleton visitors on Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Denson were called to La Grande Sunday because of the serious illness of Mrs. Denson's daughter. The daughter was taken to Hot Lake and operated on Monday for appendicitis. Mrs. Denson will stay there for several days. Mr. Denson returned home Monday.

There has been a great deal of sickness in the community during the past week. The majority of those ill were the small babies and school children, although some of the adults were not exempt.

Birds on Uncle Sam's Pension Roll

Thomas Ross, pigeon expert of the U. S. Army, with two of the homing pigeons that served in the World War, carrying messages for the Signal Corps. "Mocker," on the left, had an eye shot out by "Spike," at the right, carried messages across hostile territory.

Mrs. Hereim, who has been suffering from rheumatism for some time, remained in Portland for medical treatment. Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Klitz took care of the ranch during Hereim's absence.

A number of farmers picked turkeys the first of the week for the Christmas market and took them to Hermiston on Tuesday to sell to the association. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow were Heppner visitors Tuesday. Mrs. Ransier gave a birthday surprise party for her husband Monday evening.

Five tables of "500" were in play. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo, Mr. and Mrs. Coats, Mr. and Mrs. Rands, Mr. and Mrs. Falter, Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Dillabough, Mr. and Mrs. Mead, Mr. Spagle, Mrs. Ray Brown, Orla Brown and R. Wasmer. High honors went to Mrs. Hendricks and Mr. Coats; low to Mrs. Coats and Mr. Dillabough.

Ruth King entertained a few of her friends at her birthday party Sunday afternoon. Present were Echo Coats, Alice Wicklander, Janet and Mabel Gorham, Catherine and Helen Mead, Clara May Dillon and Elizabeth Kristensson. A dainty lunch was served late in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Fortier left Tuesday morning for their new home at Union.

ALPINE.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Beach were among the Lexington people who took in the pie social at Alpine Saturday evening.

Joe Pinnell spent Sunday evening with friends at Pine City.

Joe Pinnell was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary Tuesday.

Mrs. Bert Michel, Willard Hawley and Irl Clary drove to Hermiston Friday on business.

Willard Hawley who motored to Grass Valley last Monday, returned home Friday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay and daughter Annie Ree motored to Pendleton Tuesday on business.

Willard Hawley and Joe Pinnell were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay Monday.

The Farm Bureau meeting, program and pie social held at Alpine last Saturday night proved to be a great success. There was a packed house with representatives from many distant points in Morrow county. The program was enjoyed by everyone.

Nearly everyone in the immediate community took part and much unsuspected home talent was brought to light. On the program were readings, musical selections, solos, step-dancing and playlets. Among the playlets were "Sam and Jim," "The Heather Chimes," and "Visiting Day at the Hoelgans." After the program G. L. Bennett acted as auctioneer for the pie. Coffee was served and a social hour was enjoyed by all. The proceeds taken in from the sale of the pies will be used in paying for the community Christmas tree and treat. We were pleased with the large attendance from outside points and will be pleased to welcome them back on Tuesday, Dec. 23, when another enjoyable program will be staged.

Mrs. G. L. Bennett who about a month ago underwent an operation at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton is much improved now and is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Nirschl.

Willard Hawley was a business visitor in Lexington Saturday afternoon.

Pat Carty of Juniper was visiting with friends in this community Monday of last week.

Misses Helen and Ruth Bennett came down Saturday evening from Heppner in time for the pie social and from there went to their home in Alpine where they spent the rest of the week end.

Please Mr. Santa Claus, visit the Tum-A-Lum. This year you can take Mother home a nice new ironing board cabinet—or a medicine cabinet for the bath room—or a new phone cabinet—a shelf or a mirror for the door. Then father can set it up in a few minutes and mother will take lots of delight painting in nice colors. Maybe you might want a can of our fine paint and a brush for her. Of course we want you to come right away or we might have to deliver it after Christmas. ALBERT ADKINS, Manager, Editor.
