M. R. Morgan and son Edison Morgan were visitors at Heppner Tuesday afternoon from their home at Ione. Mr. Morgan returned on Sunday from a visit to Yakima, where his eldest son, Ira Morgan, is now in a hospital, suffering from cancer of the stomach. An operation which he underwent just recently only revealed the extreme seriousness of his affliction, and it is not expected that he can survive long.

The county treasurers of the state of Oregon will hold their annual meeting this week end in Portland. Treasurer Leon W. Briggs departed Wednesday morning for the city to be present at this gathering, going down with W. L. McCaleb, county roadmaster, who is also interested in some of the meetings of county officials, especially those of the county judges and commissioners and the state highway commission.

Geo. N. Peck, county commissioner elect, was looking after business in this city on Monday. He states that the weather in the Lexington section has been ideal for the growing grain and the crops are doing well for the time of year. George is also one of the directors of the Eastern Oregon Wheat league.

Judge R. L. Bengt, accompanied by Mrs. Bengt, motored to Portland Wednesday, the judge going to the city for the annual convention of county judges and commissioners in session there this week end, and also to take in the monthly meeting of the state highway commission.

Albert Schunk, who works at the ranch of R. A. Thompson, was brought to Heppner hospital Saturday, where he was operated on for a ruptured appendix. Being in a serious condition when he arrived at the hospital, he is rallying slowly but making satisfactory progress.

W. T. Campbell, county judge elect, departed on Tuesday for Portland, expecting to remain in the city for a few days while attending the meeting of county judges, and also the regular monthly session of the state highway commission. He was accompanied by Mrs. Campbell.

Bert Johnson is in the city this week from his farm north of Ione, doing jury duty; also to take in the sessions of the Eastern Oregon wheat league, or just as much thereof as he may be permitted to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz motored to The Dalles in the Ferguson car Tuesday, spending a few hours in that city while Mrs. Schwarz consulted with a specialist.

Bert Palmateer, leading wheat farmer of the Morgan country, is doing jury duty in Heppner this week. Mr. Palmateer is rejoicing over the recently completed market road out his way from Morgan.

Stacy Roberts submitted to a very painful operation at Heppner hospital on Friday. He is reported by his physician to be getting along well.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet on Tuesday evening, Dec. 15, at Legion hall. A feature of the meeting will be a talk by Supt. W. R. Poulson on the constitution of the United States. Immediately following the business session will be the annual Christmas party. Each member will bring an inexpensive gift. The hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Helen Cohn and Mrs. Lena Cox.

Lost—About 65 head of fine wool ewe lambs; these sheep bear various marks and brands, some having overbit in left ear, only; brands—some with green circle, some with green dot, other with red letter S. Reward for information leading to recovery. O'CONNOR BROS., Heppner, Oregon. 291f

Commissioners Eliekman and Heliker plan on being in Portland for the week end to attend the annual convention of judges and commissioners and also take in the meeting of the state highway commission.

Harry Tamblin, county engineer, accompanied by Mrs. Tamblin, motored to Portland on Wednesday, Mr. Tamblin being interested in the gathering of county officials in the state metropolis this week end.

Dillard French was in the city on Saturday from the Butter creek ranch where he reports things moving along pretty well considering the long continued spell of foggy weather.

The Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church will hold their regular meeting in the church parlors on Tuesday afternoon, December 16, at the usual meeting hour.

James Murtha, Gilliam county stockman, was over from Condon Sunday to attend the memorial services of Heppner Lodge No. 358, B. P. O. E., of which he is a member.

BACON CAKES

Allow one slice of bacon per person. Fry till golden brown, then pour over the rashers a batter made of beating an egg with a little milk and adding enough flour to form a light batter. When the batter sets turn the cake over and fry the other side.

IRRIGON

Mrs. Tom Caldwell was operated on at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton Monday. According to latest reports she is showing some improvement although her condition is still quite serious.

L. Miller of Umatilla was canvassing this vicinity for the first time Tuesday with his stock of McCannon products. Mr. Miller states he has taken over the business of D. Huston of Pendleton who was appointed sales manager of Oregon, Idaho and Washington for the McCannon company.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Rand visited friends on Butter creek Sunday.

The regular meeting of the H. E. ladies was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Markham Thursday afternoon. The time was spent in working and exchanging ideas on presents for Christmas within our means. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. F. Markham were Hermiston visitors Friday. Mr. Markham was having some dental work done.

The town basketball team consisting of F. Markham, Roscoe Williams, Bob Smith, Henry Weir and Wesley Chaney motored to Heppner Thursday where they played a game the same evening with the Heppner team.

Mrs. Vern Jones and Mrs. W. C. Isom were in Hermiston on business Friday.

Three games of basketball were played in the Gym Friday night. Irrigon high school girls played the Hermiston high girls which closed with a score of 42 to 12 in favor of Hermiston. Irrigon boys played Hermiston boys with a score of 8 to 12 in favor of Hermiston, and the town team played Pendleton with a score of 14 to 16 in favor of Pendleton.

However, a good game was played by both boys' and girls' teams, it being their first games played by any team outside of practice, and we expect to win many games before the close of the season. A good crowd was present and good sportsmanship was shown by both local and visiting teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brace were Pendleton shoppers Saturday.

The Irrigon Grange No. 641 gave a card party Saturday night at which 8 tables of 500 were in progress all evening. About 50 were present. A delicious luncheon was served by the H. E. club ladies at the close of the evening.

Chas. Wilson, one of our high school boys, had the misfortune to break his right arm Saturday evening while cracking a Ford car. He was taken to Hermiston at once by Alfred Houghten where an x-ray picture revealed a clean break of one bone. The arm was set by Dr. Christopherson.
