"ALL QUIET," STORY OF YOUTH IN WAR
A pageant of terrible splendor... a drama of deep human emotions... a terrific indictment of modern war... that is "All Quiet on the Western Front," Universal's superb super-production of Erich Maria Remarque's famous war book, which comes to the screen of the Star theater, Sunday-Monday-Tuesday.

"All Quiet on the Western Front" is a magnificent picturization of the fate of youth in war. Its hero, young Paul Baumer, is a German, but he stands for the youth of all nations subjected to the most terrible of all human experiences.

The picture portrays the effects of war upon young Baumer and his companions. It is the poignant story of youth that has been denied its chance at life... of youth hurled into a ceaseless hell of body and soul before it has begun to live.

There are many scenes which will remain permanently etched upon the memory of the beholder... scenes terrific in their tragedy... scenes sublime in their heroism... scenes touching in their simple pathos. And always in the background is the tremendous panorama of the world's greatest conflict.

Lewis Ayres, in the central role, Louis Wolheim and John Wray give performances that have never been surpassed on the motion-picture screen. Others in the large cast who stand prominently forth are Slim Summerville, Russell Gleason, William Bakewell, Scott Kolk, Walter Browne Rogers, Ben Alexander, Owen Davis Jr. and Zazu Pitts.

Lewis Milestone has done a magnificent work as director. The broad sweep of the war is never allowed to obscure the human beings whose fate is the foremost consideration in the picture.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
Rev. B. Stanley Moore, missionary-in-charge. Early Holy Communion, 8. Church school at 9:45. How often we hear mothers or fathers say, "O yes, we send our children to Sunday school but we cannot make it ourselves." A few years back the whole family used to go, and I have a feeling they were really more busy than we are today. It is the example we set for our children that really counts, not so much what we say. At least one of the parents ought to be sharing Sunday school or church experience with their children. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. At 7:30 p. m. the children of the church school will give a Christmas entertainment entitled, "Christmas in America." The general public is invited. Each child, and any others who so desire, is asked to bring a gift of food, clothing or toys, that may later be distributed to bring Christmas joy to others. Such an act as this ought certainly to make our Christmas more joyous, for it brings out the real spirit of Christmas. Over 1900 years ago, God gave his greatest gift to man, and the wise men and shepherds brought their gifts to Baby Christ. Let us bring our gifts in the spirit of these givers.

TO GIVE PAGEANT.
The Methodist Sunday school will give a pageant entitled "The Christmas Story" Tuesday, Dec. 23, at 7:30 p. m.
