

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

Pomona Grange will be held at Boardman January 3rd. The following program will be given in the afternoon, which is to be an open meeting when all are invited to come. Instrumental music, Mrs. Leslie Packard and Mrs. Lowell Spagie; song, Too Many Green Apples, by Mary Smith and Helen Mead; reading by Beda Heilker; pianologue by Mrs. Martha Titus; solo by Dan Lindsay of Alpine; reading by Miss Helen Wells of Lexington; song by Boardman male quartet; address by E. B. Aldrich of Pendleton on the subject of developing the Columbia River Rapids; comic song sketch by Don Heilker and Ralph Gibson of the Willows grange.

Mrs. Ray Brown was hostess to the Helomala club last Monday. Honors went to Mrs. A. W. Sundsten and Mrs. Royal Rands. Mrs. J. F. Gotham substituted for Mrs. Rainille and Mr. Ray Brown for Mrs. Denson.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Claud Chute last Wednesday. Miss Mildred Messenger had charge of the missionary work. A dainty lunch was served at the close of the meeting. The next Silver Tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Nick Falter January 7th.

George Blayden is tearing down the old Dodd building which he purchased some time ago. He plans to use the old lumber for buildings on his land north of the railroad track.

Dr. R. L. Magoon who was found murdered with his wife in their home in Umtali, Union of South Africa, is a brother of Ernest Magoon. Dr. R. L. Magoon was a big game hunter and practiced dentistry in Africa. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Magoon have charge of the Boardman hotel.

Doyle Hubbel and family have rented the old Cummins house. Miss Norma Gibbons left Saturday morning for Union where she will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents.

A special school election was held Friday afternoon to elect a director for the school board to fill the vacancy left by F. A. Fortier. A total of 38 votes were cast, and Carroll Kennedy was elected. Mr. Kennedy received 15 votes, Nate Macomber 12, Chas. Dillon 9, and Mr. Myers 2.

Bert Richardson passed away at his home in Boardman Wednesday afternoon, December 17. He had been ill for over three years. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock, Rev. W. O. Miller delivering the funeral address. Appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. Ada Goodwin, Mrs. Surface, Mrs. Coats and J. F. Barlow. Mr. Richardson was born in Ontario, Canada, and at the time of his death was 53 years, 3 months and 27 days old. He has been a farmer on the west side of the Boardman project for 11 years. He formerly lived at Hay Creek, Oregon. Mr. Richardson was a member of the Grange. He is survived by his widow and three daughters, Bertie, Edith and Freda.

Frances Titus left Saturday morning for Union where he will spend his Christmas vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie came home Saturday for the holidays. They drove through in their car. W. O. King received the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs. P. O. King of Eugene, who passed away Wednesday morning. The news came as quite a shock as Mrs. King had been in good health. Mr. King left for Eugene Wednesday evening. Mrs. P. O. King was 82 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Knight are visiting at the Nickerson home this week. A meeting was held Friday evening to discuss the plans for the feed store in Boardman. Sidney Barnard, manager of the Farm Bureau at Hermiston, and C. W. Smith, county agent, were present. Br. Barnard reported that the Hermiston Farm Bureau is going to erect a three story building and install new and modern machinery for the mixing, grinding, etc., of the different feeds. By running their store on a large scale they expect to be able to sell feed at a much lower cost than their competitors. It was decided then that it would be better if Boardman would open a branch of the Hermiston Farm Bureau here at Boardman and ship the feed down from Hermiston rather than to maintain and operate a separate store here. The branch Farm Bureau will be in the Harry Murchie building across from the post office and the first feed will be shipped in January 1.

Robert Harwood came from Colfax Sunday and spent the day at the Robert Wilson home. On Monday he motored to Aberdeen where he will spend Christmas with his sister. He has been working for T. E. Broyles since he left here.

Deibert Johnson spent the week end at home. The Western Union telegraph crew is now working at Umatilla.

Eldon Wilson and Buster Rands came home from La Grande Saturday and plan to spend their vacation here.

A Christmas program was given Sunday morning at the Boardman Community church. Those taking part in the program were the Sunday school children. The Christmas tree and the stage were prettily decorated. A treat of candy and nuts was presented to each one present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat were Pendleton visitors Monday.

Miss Nellie Dillon came home from Portland for the holidays.

Mrs. Elva Perry of Hood River is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Guy Barlow.

At the grange meeting Saturday evening the following were elected to office: George Wicklander, master; Paul Smith, overseer; Mrs. Shane, lecturer; Mrs. Minnie Wicklander, chaplain; Royal Rands, steward; Mr. Ransier, assistant steward; Guy Barlow, gate keeper; Lee Mead, secretary; Leo Root, treasurer; Mrs. Root, Pomona; Mrs. Rands, Ceres; Mrs. I. Skoubo, Flora; Mrs. Dillabough, ladies assistant.

After the grange meeting the ladies held a meeting of the Home Economics club and elected the following: Mrs. Emma Dillabough, president; Mrs. Nick Falter, vice-president; Mrs. I. Skoubo, secretary, and Mrs. Tyler, treasurer.

The Home Economics club will entertain at a card party Saturday evening, December 27, at the I. Skoubo home.

Al Price and Billie, and Mrs. Lottie Attebury will spend Christmas in Portland. Mrs. Attebury and Billie will remain there until school begins.

Miss Linda Hango is home for the Christmas vacation. Miss Hango is attending the university at Eugene this year.

Mrs. C. S. Johnson and children, Katherine and Earl, of Spokane, are spending the holidays at the Ves. Attebury home.

E. T. Messenger and daughters Mildred and Lois were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Merwin and Erva Ransier from Echo were week-end visitors at the Dan Ransier home.

Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Daley on December 17.

Miss McMahon and Miss Shellenberger left Friday evening for their homes in Portland to stay during the holidays. Orla Brown went to his home at Grants Pass.

Mrs. A. T. Hereim who has been in Portland for several weeks returned home Sunday.

score of 32 to 12 in favor of Arlington. Mrs. William Stevers left for Portland Wednesday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brownell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brace and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Jones and family and W. C. Isom and family were shopping in Pendleton Saturday.

Mrs. Jess Oliver entertained the H. E. club ladies at her home on Thursday afternoon. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Mrs. W. C. Isom, president; Mrs. F. Markham, vice president; Mrs. Houghton, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Isom left on Monday for Monument, Ore., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dave Musgrave during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Coryell motored to Hermiston to see the show Saturday night.

ALPINE.

Friends were glad to welcome Mrs. G. L. Bennett back to Alpine Sunday. Mrs. Bennett has been in the hospital for several weeks due to an operation, but is much better now and we hope that she will be able to be up and around again soon.

Grover Sibley, accompanied by some friends, came up from Portland Saturday to spend the Christmas vacation with friends in this community.

Art Schmidt, Ed Hounshell and Alfred Schmidt drove to Echo Friday evening where they attended the dance.

Alex Lindsay made a business trip to Pendleton Friday. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Dan Lindsay.

Miss Gertrude Tichenor, niece of Chas. Melville and a student of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, came down Friday from La Grande to spend her Christmas vacation with people in Alpine.

Miss Naomi Moore, who has been attending the Behnke-Walker business college for the past winter, came home Sunday to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Moore.

Mrs. Peddicord of Dallas, Oregon, came up Monday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Michel.

Some of the Alpine people attended the Strawberry school Christmas program Monday, Dec. 22. The program was found very enjoyable, the most effective number being a Christmas hoop drill in costume by the entire school. After the program, stunts were put on by the grown-ups. The fun ended with the raid on a well loaded Christmas tree.

Rudolph Klinger and daughter Doris motored to Pendleton Saturday for a final consultation in regard to Doris' ankle which she wrenched a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Morehead and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay Sunday evening.

C. W. Smith, county agent, was in the Strawberry and Alpine communities Thursday calling upon club members.

Mrs. Glen Shearer and Gertrude Tichenor were Sunday evening callers at the Clary home last week.

W. J. Doherty and Rosella and Dorothy Doherty motored to Pendleton on business Saturday and were accompanied home by William Ruddy.

Mrs. Nora and Margaret McDavid drove to Pendleton Saturday where they visited with friends.

William Ruddy came out Saturday from Pendleton to the B. P. Doherty ranch to spend Christmas.

C. Melville drove to Echo on business Friday. He was accompanied home by Gertrude Tichenor.

Mrs. Glen Shearer motored to Echo on Friday of last week where she visited friends.

John Doherty, a student at the university at Eugene, returned home Monday to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Doherty.

A number of the people of the community gathered at the Alpine school house Sunday where they had a play rehearsal and then sacked candy.

Dan Lindsay and son Alex were transacting business in Hermiston and Echo Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Michel made a trip by car to Hermiston Tuesday.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen — Large blue mare with white spots; weight about 1200; branded bar over H on right shoulder. Suitable reward, N. M. Johnson, Ince, Ore. 40-41p.

TUM-A-LUM TICKLER

Published in the interests of the people of Heppner and vicinity by THE TUM-A-LUM LUMBER CO., Phone 912

Volume 30 Heppner, Oregon December 25, 1930. No. 47

HI HO, EVERYBODY, HI HO!

We know of one woman who is going to be mighty happy on Xmas morning for her husband was in and arranged for a lot of repairs for her home to be done soon.

Just in case it should rain deer be sure your roof does not leak. Or if Santa should get stuck in the chimney, the Tum-A-Lum Handyman is willing to help you get him out or better still to remodel the chimney.

Yours for turkeys with four or five drum sticks.

While the weather so far has not been extremely cold, you can never be sure it will remain that way. Better look over your fuel supply NOW.

We want to wish you a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS May Santa leave you a full stocking and the Xmas dinner leave you without a tummy-ache. It has been a bad year (so they say) and yet we are mighty thankful to be here. While there is life there is hope—so here's hoping.

Heppner Gazette Times for Everything in Printing

Advertisement for Heppner Garage Vaughn & Goodman. Includes illustration of a car and a person. Text: 'HEPPNER GARAGE Vaughn & Goodman'.

Advertisement for Gonty's Shoe Store. Includes illustration of a shoe. Text: 'GONTY'S Shoe Store'.

Advertisement for Thomson Bros. Includes illustration of a building. Text: 'A Merry Christmas to One and All THOMSON BROS.'.

Advertisement for First National Bank. Includes illustration of a building. Text: 'First National Bank HEPPNER, OREGON'.

Advertisement for Heppner Trading Co. Text: 'When you don't get eggs, don't blame the hens— Do Your Part Give them a chance to make good. Come in and we will tell you a few of the things it takes to make them produce. Call us for prices on ROLLED FEEDS and ALFALFA HAY HEPPNER TRADING CO. INC. Phone 1482 Free Delivery in City Limits'.

Advertisement for Star Theater. Text: 'STAR THEATER Show starts at 7:30—Doors open half hour earlier. Theater Phone 472; Home, 535. Admission: Sunday and Monday, 10c and 50c; Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 10c and 25c; Friday and Saturday, 10c and 40c, unless otherwise advertised. SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY, DEC. 24-25: GARY COOPER and JUNE COLLYER in "THE MAN FROM WYOMING" A different kind of outdoor picture. Tender romance mid the thrills of ghting. No-Man's Land and night life on the Riviera. Good comedy and short subject. Bargain Night, 10c and 25c. FRIDAY-SATURDAY, DEC. 26-27: JACK OAKIE in "THE SAP FROM SYRACUSE" With Ginger Rogers. Onkie as Littleton Looney, wise cracking bumpkin wit hthe Napoleon complex. Takes countesses for the count! Gets in Dutch with duchesses! He's the Crown Prince of Grinomania and Hilarityland. You'll get an eyeful and an earful and laugh until you pop your buttons. Good comedy and short subject. 10c and 40c. SUNDAY-MONDAY, DEC. 28-29: GRACE MOORE in "A LADY'S MORALS" With Reginald Denny and Wallace Beery, and based on the life of Jenny Lind. The Unforgotten Kiss! Swiftly taken, shyly given, remembered always! A magnificent 10c drama introducing to the screen gorgeous Grace Moore, Broadway and Metropolitan star. The love-life of a famous beauty brought now to the talking screen. One of the year's outstanding pictures. Good comedy and short subject. 10c and 50c. TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY, DEC. 30-31: CLIVE BROOKS and EVELYN BRENT in "SLIGHTLY SCARLET" The story of an international jewel theft and of the forces which brought about the redemption of the conspirators. Good comedy and short subject. Bargain Nights, 10c and 25c. We Wish Our Friends and Patrons a Very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year'

Advertisement for Virgin Diamonds. Text: 'With every VIRGIN DIAMOND a Certificate of Title Because of their freedom from any taint of past associations, because of their guaranteed quality and standard price, genuine Virgin Diamonds—backed by a registered Certificate of Title—appeal to the discriminating purchaser. Obtainable only thru your AUTHORIZED VIRGIN DIAMOND DEALER PETERSON'S JEWELRY STORE In Distinctive Mountings and at standard prices from $25 to $2500. VIRGIN DIAMONDS'.

Advertisement for Latourell Auto Co. Text: 'Happy New Year! Now a true year, And a year of work well done; Wreaths of holly, All friends jolly, Joy for nineteen-thirty-one! LATOURELL AUTO CO. Majestic R. C. A. Radios'.