FIND BUSINESS GOOD

Mr. and Mrs. P. Hanlon, transient photographers who arrive in the city some two months ago expecting to remain till Christmas, found it impossible to close shop as expected, as busy every day since as any time before Christmas. They say they have enjoyed their stay in Heppner very much, and it is with misgiving that they announce their leaving within a few weeks. With their fully-equipped pullman motor car they find life on the road enjoyable. On leaving Heppner they expect to visit relatives for a while, and journey on to Los Angeles for the winter.
