

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERHEIM, Correspondent. W. O. King of Boardman and his three children had a narrow escape Monday morning while on their way to school. Their car turned over just west of Messner due to the icy pavement.

Mrs. Richard Dalley and twin sons are home from Hermiston. The twins weighed 4 and 4 1/2 pounds respectively, but are both well and strong.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadley were hosts at a lovely dinner New Years day. Guests were the Spagles, Packards, Strobls and Mrs. Strobl's mother, Mrs. Phoebe Shaw.

The ranch house of Mr. and Mrs. Howrad E. Bates was burned to the ground on New Years night. The fire started while Mr. and Mrs. Bates were milking and nothing was saved except a phonograph.

One of the many nice New Years dinner parties was that given by Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead and children, Mrs. Martha Titus and son and the hosts.

The young people have returned to their various schools after spending the holidays with their folks. Miss Mary Healey and Nellie Dillon left on Tuesday for Portland where both attend business school.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cooney were hosts at a lovely dinner on New Years day with V. H. Tyler and family as guests.

Mrs. Jess Deos and children were visitors Thursday at the Wilson ranch. P. M. Smith sold six head of Holsteins to the Eastern Oregon hospital at Pendleton.

One of the pleasantest of the many card parties that have been given this winter was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard on New Years eve.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson and children, Catherine and Earl, returned to their home in Spokane after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ves Attebury during the holidays.

Gorhams were dinner guests of the Hereims on New Years day.

The teachers all returned home from pleasant vacation trips.

Many of the younger set attended the dance at Irrigon on New Years eve.

Friends of the Finnells who were early pioneers of Boardman will be interested to hear that they are living in Spokane where Mrs. Finnell is managing an apartment house.

A close and exciting basketball game was played last Monday night between the high school team and the alumni.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

In Memory of Sister Naomi Rebecca Saling, who died December 31, 1930. Again that unwelcome yet relentless visitor, death, hath entered the portals of our lodge room and summoned a dear sister to the beautiful home beyond.

And Whereas, the all-wise Father hath called our beloved sister to the New Jerusalem, where "happily she hath heard the signal of her release on the bells of the Holy City, the chimes of eternal peace."

Resolved, that Mistletoe Rebekah Lodge No. 25, in testimony of her loss, and to express its Rebekah Love, drape its Charter in mourning for thirty days and that we tender to the family of our deceased sister our sincere condolence and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

Sister Bertha Lovgren, Sister Zoe Fisk, Sister Frances Leathers, Committee.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all who so kindly assisted during our recent loss by fire, and to the ladies of Hardman for their thoughtful gifts. MRS. LOTUS ROBISON.

As one fellow in Ione says, "New Year Resolutions are only made to be broken." So this year we didn't make any good resolutions except—We should like to see a lot of building and repairing of homes and buildings around town.

Just because the weather has been like it is advertised in California, doesn't mean that you should let the coal supply run low waiting for spring.

The Chinese have a rare custom on New Years of forgiving all of their debtors and in turn of being forgiven. So they start a New Year with a clean slate. It seems good to us, but several of our creditors didn't seem to like the idea of forgiving us.

What few turkeys are left can settle down to a life of security for the next ten months.

Whenever things get so bad it seems they can't be any worse—along comes a hurricane or the first of the month to make it seem awful.

"Sorry but we don't cash checks. Why I wouldn't even cash a check for my brother." "Well, of course you know your family better than I do."
