

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREIM, Correspondent.

Alfred Skoubo surprised friends when he came to work Monday, bringing a bride with him. He married Miss Eda Furrer of Stanfield on February 2 at Walla Walla, the ceremony being performed by a justice of the peace at the court house. They were accompanied by Ida May Iensee and Chas. Andregg of Hermiston and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baumgartner of Stanfield. The newlyweds were given a charivari on Monday night at the I. Skoubo home where they will remain for a time. The groom is a brother of A. and I. Skoubo and has been here at various times since coming to America from his home in Denmark several years ago.

There was a large attendance at the February Silver Tea on Wednesday at the church when the Mesdames Kristensen, Hadley, Howell, Graves, King, Strobel and Tyler were hostesses. Mrs. Hadley was unable to attend because of illness. Some routine business was transacted and when a discussion of placing a back door in the church was had Mrs. Blayden said that Mr. Blayden had a door which he would not only contribute but would also put in place; then Mrs. Weston said they had steps they would contribute; so the question of a sink arose and Mrs. King appointed a committee to investigate the cost. The hostesses served a delicious lunch.

The next meeting will be held Friday, Feb. 20, instead of the usual Wednesday, as this is the World's Day of Prayer. A most interesting meeting is being arranged by Mrs. Miller. The meeting will be at the Messenger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Adams of Weiser, Idaho, were overnight guests at the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon who live on the east end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Utley who have been visiting relatives here for several weeks returned to Yakima where the former will have charge of his father's fruit ranch this year.

Boardman friends of Dorothy Isom were interested to hear of her recent marriage to George Kendler of Umatilla. Dorothy has been of much help in the North Morrow County fair for the past few years and also has a wide acquaintance through her work in 4-H clubs.

The Home Economics club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. V. Tyler with a good attendance. This club, an auxiliary of the grange, meets every two weeks and the members partake of a no-host luncheon which always brings the prevalent talk of hard times. The luncheon Wednesday was no exception.

Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Miller were visiting various parishioners on the project Friday. Rev. Mr. Miller has served as pastor in the local church for the past three years and has been one of the best liked in the history of the church. Both he and Mrs. Miller are liked by the church people as well as the non-church goers.

Margaret Myers whose birthday is the 11th and Orthon Hereim's whose is the 7th, had a party together at the Hereim home Saturday, with the pupils of the primary room as guests. Outdoor games were followed by lunch at a gaily decorated table with red and white used for the individual candle holders. The Valentine place cards, miniature wheelbarrows and the candle-light cake as a centerpiece lent much color. Mesdames Johnson, Channing, Sunstand, Dillabough and Rachel Johnson assisted Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Hereim.

L. C. Cooney was called to Condon Saturday because of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Cooney, who has been very ill with heart trouble for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Kroon of La Grande, Mr. Kortge, Mrs. Fleck and Miss Mamie Fleck of The Dalles were visitors Sunday at the Lee Mead home. Mrs. Kroon and Miss Fleck are sisters, and Mrs. Fleck the mother of Mrs. Mead.

The Hereims were guests Sunday at the H. E. Waite home. A most enjoyable day was had with a most unusual climax, for Orthon, who experienced "the thrill that comes once in a lifetime," found a bill of large denomination while playing by the highway. This made the lad's small bank account grow very suddenly.

Nate Macomber had all his teeth extracted on Thursday at Hermiston. They had become loosened as a result of a touch of gas white overseas.

Boardman has been well represented at the hospital at Hermiston recently. Mrs. Lee Mead, Mrs. Glen Hadley and Ralph Skoubo all came home this week after stays of varying lengths there.

The Ingaard Skoubo family seem to be having a series of disasters of late. The head of the house was ill with influenza but man-like insisted on getting up to see about affairs on the farm. Going out to show the man about the disc, Mr. Skoubo accidentally stepped into the disc, wrenching his foot. On Saturday afternoon, Ralph, the youngest boy, was endeavoring to mount a horse while standing on a drill when the horse moved and the lad fell, breaking his leg. He was taken to Hermiston at once where Dr. Christopherson set the fracture.

Much interest is being shown in church services this winter and each Sunday brings a large audience. At the meeting February 8 ten persons affiliated with the church, transferring their memberships from their former residences. They were Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George Wicklander and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Falter, Mr. and Mrs. Surface and Mr. Hurst.

Old-timers of Boardman will regret to learn of the death of E. W. Mack, who erected some of the first buildings in Boardman. He had been conducting a pharmacy in New Meadows, Ida., but his death occurred in Weiser.

The race between the East and West ends for membership has been all to the advantage of the East with prospect of the other side furnishing the feed, but Mr. Farley, the West captain, by diligent soliciting has run up the score in his favor; so it is up to the East end to "rally round" or be forced to treat. Please give your dues to Mrs. Hereim, captain, or Mrs. Coats, treasurer, before the next meeting of P. T. A., February 20.

Mrs. Glen Machan gave a pleasant dinner Sunday for her sister, Miss Emma Beaverness, whose birthday anniversary it was. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Skoubo, David Johnson and Claude Myers and family.

Mrs. B. B. Lewis left last week for a visit with relatives in Berkeley, Calif.

Boardman people are pleased to learn that Miss Edith M. Stallard has been retained by the county court for another year as county nurse.

One of the cleverest entertainments given here for some time was that given Saturday night by members of the juvenile grange at the

HOW DO YOU DO, FOLKS.

Some folks pay their bills when due; others, when overdue; some never do. How do you do, folks, how do you do?

Jap: "How is it Nick has two caddies and you none?" Cal: "One's mine—he keeps track of Nick's score for me."

The altar is a place where a bachelor loses control of himself.

"I put a friend of mine on his feet three times in the last five years."

"That's nothing! I put a friend of mine on his feet five times last night."

Spring will soon be here. Don't forget to bring the car around and have it thoroughly greased and the oil changed. Spring house cleaning and spring car overhauling go hand in hand. Incidentally we can steam clean the motor and wash and polish the car. Come in and let us tell you the reasonable price at which this can be done.

Abe Lincoln's birthday this week. Another time when we wish our mother had brought us up to be a banker so's this would be a holiday.

When Charlie Smith was in Pendleton he saw a sign in a photographer's window offering to enlarge photographs to life size. Charlie says he's going to dig up a picture of the Grand Canyon and send it in.

How about getting some of that fluid for the guy who knocks his home town?

In spite of the quiet winter the trend to GOODYEAR TIRES has not ceased. GOODYEAR builds nearly one-fourth of all the tires used in the United States. There is only one reason—highest quality at lowest prices.

Charlie Vaughn, our staff poet, got this one in just before we went to press:

The codfish lays a million eggs. And the helpful hen lays one; But the codfish doesn't cackle About the work she's done. And we scorn the codfish And the helpful hen we prize, Which indicates to you and me That it pays to advertise.

That being the one and only reason we pay editor Crawford for this space each week. To advertise those GOODYEAR TIRES.

Do you know that we have a mighty good fender repair man in our establishment? If you have bent or dented fenders on your car bring it in and see how cheaply we can straighten them out for you.

Speaking of these gangsters, we have never ceased to admire the strategy of the Chicago boy who fooled the police by continuing to fire, after he had run out of ammunition.

On the same subject, you know, of course, that an infernal machine is one that ambles along the middle of the road in front of you at about ten miles an hour.

At this juncture, apropos of nothing at all, did the significant fact ever strike you that the stork is a bird with an exceptionally long bill?

We conclude with one of ancient vintage that is, however, really worth reviving: A certain family man, striving to shake an indolent alarm clock into action, dislodged from its interior a defunct cockroach, whereupon his infant prodigy piped up: "No wonder it wouldn't go, dad. The engineer is dead."

As the chick said when the egg began to crack, "That let's me out."

school. A large crowd attended and more than $40 was cleared. The various members of the Oregonian comic section put in an appearance and all were greeted with shouts of laughter. The marriage of Uncle Jim and the Widow Zander was solemnized with Miss Sheltenberger taking the bride's part and Marvin Ransler that of the bridegroom, and Delbert Machan as the minister. The Rinky Dinks were there in all their glory. Rachel, Skeezix, Uncle Walt, Perry, all were present in person and brought an evening of pleasure to the crowd. Boardman audiences are quite appreciative of home talent and this was no exception.

Delbert Johnson and his friend, Sam Stirrup, were here Sunday. They are employed by the Western Union and are moving from Cold Springs to Wallula this week.

Mrs. Glen Hadley suffered a relapse of the flu and was forced to spend several days at the Hermiston hospital last week.

BOARDMAN SUN-DIAL.

Debate Tourney in May; Chain Stores is Subject

University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 11.—High school debaters of Heppner and of schools all over Oregon have been invited to take part in the forensic contests which are held every year under the direction of the High School Debating League, and which culminates in the debate sometime in May for the state championship. This contest which has been held annually since 1908 will take place at the University of Oregon on the question, "Resolved, that chain stores are detrimental to the best interests of the American people."

Austin Landreth, Pendleton, is the director of the Umatilla district which is made up of Morrow, Umatilla, Wheeler and Gilliam counties. The state has been divided into 11 districts, and local debates now in progress in them will continue until the winner in eastern and in western Oregon is decided. An innovation which is expected to add interest this year is the fact that the same question will be used in every debate. McLaughlin Union high school at Milton-Freewater is the present holder of the DeCou cup, given each year by Professor and Mrs. E. E. DeCou of the University of Oregon, while Medford high school was runner-up last year. These two schools also hold the Burt Brown Barker cups, given by the vice-president of the university, to the winners each year in the Eastern and Western divisions.

Eat More Lamb--Use More Wool. The nation-wide campaign under way during the month of February to increase the consumption of lamb and wool products throughout the country is one of vital concern to Morrow County. It will be of extreme benefit to one of the county's largest basic industries. This bank heartily endorses the campaign and urges Morrow County people to stand loyally behind the movement.
