

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.
 The P. T. A. met Friday night with a goodly attendance. This was the close of the membership contest and since Mr. Farley, captain of the West End, made a diligent canvass of his district the East Enders, losers, served the lunch. Jack Gorham and Meslames Duggan and Rainville were on the refreshment committee. The program preceding the lunch consisted of a Washington playlet by the seventh and eighth grade boys, piano selection by Mrs. Spagle, reading by Helen Mead, playlet by third and fourth grades, song by Mrs. Rands, sketch by Clara Mae Dillon and Edith Nickerson, violin solo by Mr. Brown. A review of "The Need of Responsibility in the Home" from the book by Germane was given by Mrs. Hereim. An interesting article was read by Lee Mead. A short business meeting followed. The East End challenged the West End to another contest for next year when it is hoped the results will be reversed.

Friends were very sorry to learn that Rev. W. O. Miller was taken to the hospital in Pendleton last Tuesday, suffering with pneumonia. He, with his wife and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander and Mrs. D. W. Miller of Boardman had gone to Pendleton to attend a meeting of the Every Member Convass committee and while there Rev. Mr. Miller who had been having a severe cold, became worse. He will return to his home at Umatilla the middle of the week if he continues to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold who have been living on the Cal Ervin place have moved to the house across from the Jenkins place. This place has not been occupied for a number of years. The Keilars of Portland, who own the Ervin place, are expected soon. They also own part of the Crawford place.

Mrs. H. E. Waite spent the week end in Portland with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Gilbert, Chas. and Wallace Matthews were guests Sunday at the Nate Macomber home. The visitors were all from Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Uram Messenger and small son motored up from Portland for the week end, visiting at the Messenger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Graves were visitors at the Ward Graves home Sunday. Doris, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blyden had the car removed from her arm Saturday by Dr. Christopherson at Hermiston.

The International program to be given by the P. T. A. has had to be postponed until March 6 because of the basketball tournament at Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Goodwin were Pendleton visitors Saturday. Other Boardman shoppers were Mrs. Roy Rands, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howell, the Dillaboughs, Mrs. Nick Falter and Mrs. Tom Hendricks.

Mrs. Claude Coats and daughter Echo were in Pendleton Friday, having Echo's glasses changed. Miss Bertha Merring spent a week in Kennewick with her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berger are here and are making their home on the Berger ranch. Clarence Berger who is working as watchman at Oneonta was a visitor on the project last week.

The Joe Baumgartner family of Stanfield were here Sunday and were guests at the Falter home. The I. Skoubo family should soon be through the run of ill luck that seems to have pursued them of late. On Thursday, while burning weeds there, the wind blew sparks to a straw stack and caused no little excitement for the sheep shed and other buildings were threatened.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coats extended their hospitality Thursday evening to a number of friends, having four tables of "100." Attending were the Ransiers, Packards, Spagles, Rainvilles, Roots, Kennedys, Guy Barlows. Honors went to Mrs. Barlow and Mr. Rainville and to Mrs. Rainville and Mr. Packard.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Skoubo left Sunday for La Grande to assist Andy Andregg in moving. He is moving to Joseph.

The Spagles were Sunday guests at the Wm. Strobel home. Ralph Skoubo returned to school on Monday, after a two weeks absence. He will be obliged to wear the cast on his leg for a few weeks more, but he is so active and is getting along so well that it was thought needless for him to miss school any longer.

Strobel and his crew baled hay for Jess Allen on Monday and Tuesday. This is the first hay that has been baled for months. There has been no demand for alfalfa because of the mild winter.

The church was well filled Sunday to hear Rev. Geo. Clark. He is with the evangelistic staff who have been conducting services at Irrigon and Umatilla. He was a forceful speaker and gave an interesting talk.

Ray Barlow gave a party to another group of friends Saturday night at the Guy Barlow home, having those who do not care for cards. Bug was the diversion of the evening and always proves exciting. When the "bugs" were counted it was found that Norma Gibbons and Buster Rands had the most and Mrs. Robert Berger and Jack Sayers the least. Attending were Nellie Dillon, Mildred Allen, Josephine Healy, Norma Gibbons, Rachel Johnson, Mary Chaffee, Jack Sayers, Vernon Root, Noel Klitz, George Wicklander, John Chaffee, Buster Rands, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berger and the Guy Barlows and host.

An effort is being made to give the local ranchers an opportunity to work on the road to pay their water taxes this spring. This will be a tremendous boost to the farmers, for with the very low prices of farm produce it will be a difficult matter to find the amounts necessary for the overhead and maintenance charges which must be paid before water can be obtained. The road work was not to be started until after the tax money came in, but if plans materialize the men will work out the necessary amount and the county will turn the money over to the irrigation district. Farmers are receiving 12 cents a dozen for eggs and a five gallon can of cream brings about $3.50. It would take a good many cans of cream to pay even the O. and M. charges.

Doyle Hubbel and family have moved to the F. L. Brown place which they have rented.

February 20 was the Annual World's Prayer day and the usual missionary meeting was postponed from Wednesday until Friday when the day was observed at a special meeting at the Messenger home. About 30 ladies attended the meeting, led by Mrs. D. W. Miller. Mrs. Ben Attebury was present and assisted, as did Rev. Bruce who has been conducting a series of revival meetings at Irrigon and Umatilla. Miss Edwards, her assistant, was also present as was Mrs. W. O. Miller of Umatilla. Witnessing for Christ was the subject for the day. After the meeting the hostess served a delicious lunch of noodles and chicken and coffee.

Mrs. Mike Healy received word Monday of the death of her brother, Thomas A. Hughes, at The Dalles.

Mrs. Charley Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Root and Melvina Root were in The Dalles Monday.

BOARDMAN SUN DIAL
 Meadowlark, 1-2: Last Friday we went to the assembly to see the program by the third and fourth grades.

We planted flower seeds in our flower boxes. This week we are all going to make a "Keep Clean" poster.

Orthon Hereim has been chosen to keep care of our bat and ball on the playground.—Anna Ludemann.

Mount Hood, 3-4: We are glad to have Ralph Skoubo back to school with us.

The third and fourth grades gave their entertainment Friday afternoon. There was Ruth King, Janet Gorham, Billie Price, Catherine Mead, Cecil Ellis, Alice Wicklander, Kenneth Russell, Edith Nickerson and Clara Mae Dillon.

This is our week to keep the lawn clean.—Clara Mae Dillon.

Columbia, 5-6: Mrs. Rodgers, county superintendent, and C. W. Smith, county agent, visited school last week and gave out club achievement pins and one hundred percent club certificates. The pupils from our room to win pins for their work were: John Partlow, 4-year pin; Edward Skoubo, Francine King, Kenneth Ransier, Maxine Machan, Wanda Shane, Lucile Tyler, A. T. Hereim Jr., Stanley Partlow, Peter Farley and Norine Olson, 2-year pins; Charlie Smith, Lawrence Smith, Maxine Strobel, LaVern Baker, Ellabell Wicklander, Edgar Machan, Theodore Wilson, Lorraine Dillabough, John McEntire and Jack Richardson, 1-year pins. One hundred percent clubs this year were the Home Making with Mrs. Dillabough leader, Sewing I with Mrs. W. O. King leader, Calf with Leo Cooney leader. Mr. King deserves special mention. While not finishing one hundred percent with his sheep club he was able to bring 19 completed reports out of 21.—Maxene Machan, editor.

Plymouth: Those from our room who received club pins were: Mitchell Ellis, Jean Ludemann, Elizabeth Slinger, Mary Smith, Freda Richardson, 1-year pins; Paul Mead, Alan Chaffee, Hazel Tyler, Josephine McEntire, Wilma Myers, 2-year pins; Helen Mead, Elsie Wilson, Delbert Machan, James Farley, 2-year pins. These awards were presented by Mrs. Rodgers and Mr. Smith.

We have a citizenship chart in our room. Each pupil's name is on the chart with a starting point of 100 percent citizenship. We elected committees to draw up rules and provide penalties. This committee consists of Imogene Wilson, Delbert Machan and Helen Mead. The judges elected for this week are Paul Mead, Norval Shannon and Pat Shane.—Imogene Wilson.

The Boardman boys basketball team, after driving to Ione Friday night, was defeated by a score of 24-12.

It is the intention of the team to enter the sub-tournament to be held at Arlington this year.

Several high school students received club pins last week. Clayton Shane, 1-year; George Graves, 2-year; George Wicklander, 3-year; Marvin Ransier and Lois Messenger, 4-year pins, and Margaret Smith, 3-year.

A delightful time was had by all who attended the Snappy Snappers sewing club meeting held at the home of Edna Rauch on February 20. A report on "Pattern" was given by Dorothy Doherty and a demonstration by Mildred and Reitha Howard, and were much enjoyed. After the meeting the evening was completed by dancing and pinocchio, Sandwiches, salad, cake and coffee were served at midnight. The members have been invited to hold their next meeting at the home of the Howard girls.

Saturday, Feb. 28, will be the teachers meeting date, the meeting to be held at Alpine schoolhouse. Everyone is quite anxious for Saturday to come.

Mrs. Pearl Lambirth and children Doris and Lester were calling on a number of friends in Alpine Saturday from their home in Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Finley and son Claud were transacting business in Pendleton Saturday.

Misses Nora and Margaret McDaid motored to Pendleton Saturday and returned home Sunday evening.

The Alpine grade and high school celebrated Washington's birthday by having a program. A number of recitations were given along with sketches of his life. A number of his letters were read. Willard Hawley was a Monday caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary this week.

W. J. Doherty and Rosella Doherty were in Echo on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bowker of Alpine motored to Heppner Sunday where they visited with friends.

Alex Lindsay was transacting business in Hermiston Saturday.

Grover Sibley and Merle Bennett motored up from Portland to the Bennett home Thursday. Grover expects to complete his barbering course on Feb. 28.

EDITORIAL
 The two most popular subjects for discussion are Prohibition and Hard Times. The politicians will handle the first but everybody can tackle the second.

 Hours will still contain 60 minutes; Spring will be just as welcome; lawyers' briefs will be just as long; some Homes still need repainting and repairing; now that Hard Times are over.

Once upon a time a Scotchman stayed away from a banquet because he didn't know what the word "gratis" meant on the invitation. The next morning he was found dead by an open dictionary.

In the good old days the man that saved money was a miser. Now he is a wonder.

In the hurry of Spring cleaning don't forget to build that new home for the chickens. Paint it with Chicago Paint, the paint with an unconditional guarantee of satisfaction.

We seem to run to Scotch jokes. Must be because we sell so many remodel jobs to Scotchmen. They know how to save money—by keeping their home in good repair.

Eat More Lamb--Use More Wool

The nation-wide campaign under way during the month of February to increase the consumption of lamb and wool products throughout the country is one of vital concern to Morrow County. It will be of extreme benefit to one of the county's largest basic industries. This bank heartily endorses the campaign and urges Morrow County people to stand loyally behind the movement.
