Mrs. Everett Hayes and children, who have been guests for three weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford in this city, returned to her home at Joseph on Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford took them over, returning Sunday. The party motored as far as Pendleton on Friday evening, where Mr. Crawford, with other Heppner Masons, attended a meeting of the Royal Arch chapter of that city. Mrs. W. P. Mahoney was a member of the party going to Pendleton and returned with Mr. and Mrs. Crawford. Mrs. Sarah Parker, who was visiting at La Grande, also returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Montgomery have established their residence in the Case apartment at 106 1/2 west Center street. Mr. Montgomery has one of the chairs in the Dick Wells barber shop and has been in the city for some time. Mrs. Montgomery just recently arrived here from Portland to join her husband. She is a beauty expert and has opened a parlor for this work at their residence.

Harlan McCurdy reports that he has finished with the lambing of his band of ewes, and is well pleased with results. In fact the season was one of the best he has ever experienced, and the percentage of increase was high, owing to fine weather conditions. Mr. McCurdy was a visitor at Heppner for a few hours on Monday, while looking after business affairs.

The Broadway Revue, nine people, Star theater, tonight (Thursday.)

Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Benton departed on Monday for Drain, Ore., where they were called to officiate at a meeting of the Christian church there in the reception of a number of members on Tuesday night. They were expected to return to Heppner today. Mr. Benton was formerly a pastor at Drain.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys and daughter, Miss Evelyn Humphreys, accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Benge, departed on Friday for Portland, the ladies spending a few days in the city. Returning home Wednesday, they were accompanied by Terrell Benge, who is home from O. S. C. for the Easter vacation season.

Reuben Anderson, who early last week suffered a broken jaw when his plow team took a notion to run away at the home on Eight Mile, is getting along pretty well while being looked after by his physician in Heppner, and thinks he will be able to return home within a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burchell were Lexington folks in the city for a short time Monday afternoon. Mr. Burchell is improving some in health, but not yet able to do much. Spring plowing is progressing on the Burchell farm, in charge of their son, Edward.

Jim Burnside was down from his farm home near Hardman on Monday. A heavy rain prevailed out that way Sunday and fields and range have been greatly benefited. He is now in the midst of lambing and having good success.

O. J. Cox was in the city on Saturday from Lexington. The people of that community are rejoicing because of the many fine showers of rain the past week or so, furnishing ample moisture to assure a fine yield of grain.

J. H. Scott, head of the state market road department was a visitor at Heppner on Tuesday, being here in the interest of some market road work in the south end of the county and along the route of the Heppner-Hardman road.

Clarence Bauman, Robert Wightman, Frank Gilliam, Gay M. Anderson, Harry Tamblin and Harry Duncan were Heppner Masons who attended a meeting of the Royal Arch chapter at Pendleton on Friday night.

Among outside ministers drawn to the Epworth League convention here last week end were Rev. Jos. Knotts of The Dalles and Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Briggs of Dufur. They were registered at Hotel Heppner.

The Broadway Revue, nine people, Star theater, tonight (Thursday.)

Relatives at Heppner are in receipt of word from Mr. and Mrs. Ray Young of La Grande, announcing the birth of a 10-pound son, born to them on March 5.

J. A. Williams and Adrian Engelman were farmers in the city Saturday from the Ione section, where recent good rains have been a boost to the growing grain.

F. B. Swayze, prominent citizen of Hermiston and cashier of the First National bank of that city, was a business visitor in this city on Monday.

Creston Maddock, field agent for leading insurance companies, was visiting in the "old home town" Tuesday. His headquarters are in Portland.

W. B. Barratt is up from his Portland home this week, a guest at the ranch of his son, J. G. Barratt and family, just east of Heppner.

T. M. Peters, Union Pacific tax agent, was in the city for a while on Monday in connection with duties of his office.

Cecil Lutkins, resident of the Eight Mile community, was transacting business in the city Tuesday.

H. J. Trebelhorn, maintenance worker with the Shell Oil company, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Hayward and son, Thomas M., of Kimberly were registered at Hotel Heppner Saturday.

T. H. Nichols, farmer, was among other Lexington people in the city on Saturday.
