L. C. Cooney received word Saturday of the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Cooney at her home in Condon. Mrs. Cooney was past 72 years of age and death came as a blessed release from pain. Death had been expected for many weeks but a paralytic stroke Tuesday was followed by a comatose condition until Saturday. Six children survive: Mrs. Jack Kennedy of Umatilla, Will and Sib Cooney and Mrs. Eaton of Condon, Emmett of Umatilla and Leo of Boardman. Mrs. Cooney has visited here at various times and friends regret to hear of her death. Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Catholic church at Condon.

The railroad cut down the section crews, extending the sections of each foreman. This made a number of moves. The Bottlemillers who have been living at Coyote since the first of January, moved to Castle.

P. T. A. was held Thursday evening with a good attendance. The following program was given: reading, Mardell Gorham; rhythm orchestra, third and fourth grades; reading, Billie Price; clarinet duet, Helen Mead and Warren Dillon; reading, Mary Chaffee. George Wicklander spoke on the effects of physical conditions upon habit and Lee Mead gave a discussion of the free text book situation. Luncheon was served as usual following the meeting.

Robert Smith and Ruth Kunze had a lovely birthday party Sunday afternoon at the Smith home. Ruth's birthday is on Sunday and Robert's on Tuesday. Both are seven. The children played games and had a lovely lunch arranged by Mrs. Kunze and Mrs. Smith. The following were present: Albin and Junior Sundstand, Ralph and Frances Skoubo, Geraldine Healey, Asta and Elnora Skoubo, Dorothy and Donnelly Channing, Alan Dillabough and the hosts.

An interesting ball game was played Sunday at the local diamond with Irrigon. The results were disastrous to Boardman, who made only two points while Irrigon made nine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ware left Friday for Yakima after visiting at the Strobel home on Wednesday. The Wares and Strobel drove to Pendleton where Mrs. Strobel had four teeth extracted. These had been ulcerated for some time and had caused her much trouble.

remain home during spring vacation. The others returned Sunday evening to La Grande and Union.

The annual senior frolic was held Saturday night and was a delightful dance. The decorations were suggestive of the season and with good music, good floor and a congenial crowd, everyone counted it an especially fine time. The proceeds are used by the seniors to purchase a class gift for the school.

Howard Packard is home from Corvallis where he had been since the fall term. He will not return for the spring term.

Mr. Merring and Nick Ludemann went to Astoria and other points on business this week. Mr. Merring who is the local agent for the Raleigh products has been transferred and will move his family as soon as he gets a house. He will probably have the town of Astoria for his territory.

S. H. Boardman was a visitor on the project last week. Mr. Boardman is with the parks department of the state highway and makes his headquarters at Salem.

Mrs. Wilkins has been at Hillsboro for several days. She was much interested in the Bowles case which is being tried in Hillsboro, her former home.

O. O. Merritt is relief operator. He was agent at Irrigon last summer but has been at Centralia for some time.

Road work started on Monday with many teams hauling. This work will be a great boon to many framers who were wondering how they could raise the wherewithal to pay water charges this spring, for with ten-cent eggs and 30-cent butterfat it is pretty hard to get ahead of the game.

The missionary meeting was held Wednesday at the church. After a short meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. George Wicklander who has taken an active part in aid and church work was given a number of gifts. This was in the nature of a housewarming for her as she recently moved into their new home on the Charlie Barnes place.

ter Rands, Glen Rutherford, Orla Brown, Lloyd Mallory and Carrol Kennedy. High honors went to Rachel Johnson and Carrol Kennedy, and consolation to Orla Brown and Mrs. Mead. Miss Schultz is the charming niece of Carl Doering and has been here this winter and has made many friends. Her home is in Boston.

Maxine Machan had a number of friends at her home on Sunday to celebrate her birthday. All the youngsters had a merry time and after an afternoon of games partook of the birthday cake and its accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mefford and Evelyn were week-end visitors from Corvallis at the Root home. The Meffords moved to the college town about a year ago. They purchased a large stock ranch near there and like their new home very much.

Since the new calendar containing 13 months instead of the usual 12 has been so much under discussion it might be of interest to Boardman people to learn that Freidburg Embarger, a local man, had a calendar of this type copyrighted in the year 1903 at Lindsay, Tex. He has hopes that he may yet be successful in obtaining some material benefit from his plan.

According to Mr. Embarger's calendar, the months are the same as at present with the exception of the seventh which he calls Septimus, the Latin for seventh, and each month has 28 days, starting with Sunday each time. New Years day is not in the dated month but is a day for itself. In Leap Year there is New Year first day and New Year is extended the second day. Mr. Embarger has a number of copies of his calendar in printed form which anyone who is interested may have.

ALPINE.

The divisional declamation contest dates of north Morrow county have been changed once again. The high school contestants will speak at Alpine on Friday, March 27, and the grades will speak at Boardman on Saturday, March 28. A large crowd is expected to be present at these contests.

The pupils of Alpine were glad to have a three-day vacation instead of two over the week end when they got off Friday on account of the teachers' institute at Lexington.

Quite a number of the Alpine young folks attended the 17th dance at Heppner and reported having a very good time.

The Misses Mildred and Reitha Howard spent Friday visiting at the home of Dorothy Doherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Irl Clary and children, Mildred and Irl, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mead Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Finley and Clyde Finley made a short call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Klinger Saturday from their home in the Valley.

Home Honey Sales More But Exports Decline

An apparent increase in the domestic consumption of honey is reported in a statement just issued by L. R. Breithaupt, extension economist at Oregon State college. This increase, he believes, is due to the fact that many beekeepers packed their 1930 crop honey in small tin and glass containers and marketed it to nearby dealers and consumers.

Further development of such methods seems advisable, according to the report because exports of honey have declined sharply. Formerly around one-sixth of the honey produced in this country was marketed in foreign countries, but only 3.7 million pounds were shipped out last year compared to 10.8 million pounds in 1928. The exports were mostly from Pacific coast ports. Germany, the principal importing nation, has increased the import duties for honey and other restrictions have been imposed.

Customer: Ah, Mr. Wopser, it's the old story—the woman always pays.

Shopkeeper: Well, if you 'ad a look thru my books, you'd find that some of 'em don't.

And then there was the disappointed sportsman who took his suit for the recovery of a stolen stuffed fish to a higher court on the grounds that the lower court did not grant him his hearing.

A sign is displayed by a garage in Seattle, "Cars washed 50c. Austins degunked, 50c."

Nevada may have legalized gambling but in Oregon many people take a chance by buying poor quality goods.

Tum-A-Lum paint carries a guarantee and the price of paint for the outside of your home is only $3.49 per gallon. And that gallon will go a long way, and will last for five years or more.
