

Local Happenings

Harry Benton, faculty member and publisher of Christian Evangel at Eugene, accompanied by Lettis Ellett, soloist, Mabel Moffet, reader, Lola Thomson, pianist and Lucile Schutt, crayon artist, all from Eugene Bible college, where they are students, appeared in entertainment Tuesday evening at the Christian church. They presented an attractive program, giving evidence of the splendid work being done at the bible college. Mr. Benton appeared on the program to present the work of the school. This company is making the "free will" journey on behalf of the school at Eugene during the Easter vacation time, while a similar group is covering the southern Oregon territory.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Poulson returned home Sunday from a business and pleasure trip to Eugene and Salem. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Russell Pratt, Gay M. Anderson and Vawter Parker. Mrs. Pratt returned from a two weeks' visit at the home of her parents in Salem, where she was called by the illness of her mother. Mr. Anderson was returning from Vancouver, Wash., where he visited his mother who is critically ill. Mr. Parker came up from Eugene for a visit with home folks during spring vacation at the university where he is a student in the law school.

SUNDAY ONLY at Star Theater, Marion Davis in THE BACHELOR FATHER.

Bert Bowker, now farming in the Alpine country, thinks his section has been especially well favored as to moisture this spring, and reports that his fields are wet down to a depth of some 22 inches. He also states that the spring seeding has just about caught up with the grain sown in the fall, and the prospects for good yields are bright. Mr. Bowker was looking after business affairs in this city on Monday.

On the night of April 13, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, will address the public at Ione, appearing under the auspices of Morrow County Public Health association. Mrs. Dunbar is a very entertaining speaker and will have much of interest to say to the people of Ione, said Mrs. Edith Stallard, county nurse. Other announcements will appear later.

A number of Heppner young folks motored over to Pendleton Saturday evening and took in the concert of O. S. C. band. Among them were the Misses Bernita Lamson, Grace Dixon, Beth Bleakman, Evelyn Humphreys, Anna Wrightman, Miriam McDonald and Messrs. Clarence Hayes, Merle Becket and Claude Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wood and children arrived at Heppner Sunday from their home at Eugene. While Mr. Wood was looking after business matters at Condon Monday, Mrs. Wood and the children visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rea. They returned to Eugene Tuesday.

D. B. Stalter, president of Heppner Mining company, returned the first of the week from a visit at Tillamook and Salem. He reports prospects bright for successful operation of the company's mine near Austin in Baker county, and the start will be made just as soon as the weather permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner and daughters Jeanette and Anabel and the Misses Helen Wells and Helen Falconer of Lexington motored to Walla Walla Saturday afternoon, returning Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Turner visited with their son Robert, Whitman student, while in Walla Walla.

Spencer Akers of Portland drove up Saturday, being accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Alma Gilliam. They returned to the city on Sunday afternoon. While in Heppner they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barlow.

Dee Neill, ranchman of Butter creek, residing at Pine City, was looking after business here on Friday. He reports vegetation coming along well down his way, recent rains having been of much benefit to alfalfa fields and range.

Otto Lindstrom, pioneer wheat-raiser of the Morgan section, was attending to business in this city on Saturday. He reports excellent crop prospects in his part of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Gentry and small daughter of Weston visited at the home of Mr. Gentry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gentry, the end of the week. Mr. Gentry is in the garage business in the Umatilla town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pointer are visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Pointer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis in Lexington. They arrived Tuesday from their home at Oakland, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rice of Artestian Well farm, were visitors in the city on Saturday. Very excellent climatic conditions prevail out their way, and the grain is looking fine.

Miss Patricia Mahoney is enjoying the Easter vacation visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney. Miss Mahoney is a student at the University of Oregon.

Miss Marjorie Clark is home for the Easter holiday from the university at Eugene, enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm D. Clark.

Tom Craig was a north of Ione farmer in the city on Saturday for a short time.

Jason Biddle represented his part of the Rhea creek farming section in this city on Saturday, and has nothing but bright prospects in view for the grain crops out his way.

Miss Louise Thomson, teacher in the Yakima schools, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson, the end of the week.

Merle Becket, U. of O. student and a member of the school's big band, is home for a short time during the spring vacation season.

Roderick Thomson and Terrel Bengo, O. S. C. students who were home on a visit the end of the week, returned to Corvallis Monday.

At Star Theater SUNDAY ONLY—Marion Davis in THE BACHELOR FATHER.

the invitation again. We urge and invite you to have your share and part in the best things of life here and hereafter, by your attendance on, and participating in, every activity of this church, if you have not now a church home.

No better beginning of the Lord's Day can be made than by starting the day in our Bible school. There is a place for you in this school and you will be very welcome.

Then in the service of morning worship you will be made to feel at home, and it is our hope and desire that you will be helped by the spirit and influence of Divine worship.

At six-thirty in the evening you will have an opportunity to foregather with the young folk of the Christian Endeavor in an hour of real spiritual uplift and inspiration.

The evening worship begins at 7:30 o'clock, and we hope you will find it possible to be with us in this particularly evangelistic service. Make this your new church, and forward the best interests of your home community by forwarding the interests of your home church! Come to church, we invite you!

The coming Lord's Day will be given over to a consideration of the great missionary program of the Church of Christ as comprehended in the commission given by the Christ when He said: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." Mark 16-15.

SIGNS OF SPRING.

A bed of brave violets opening their fragrant petals to the light, a robin building his nest in the weeping willow tree, soft pussy willows silently purring on thrilled willow tree, the call of the meadow lark as the early sun peeps over the hill, all are signs of welcome spring. Besides these beauties of nature, we find many friends of the garden to use again—fresh vegetables and the first fruits of the season with rhubarb in all its popularity leading the way. There are few to whom the shell pink of the rhubarb together with its tart, appetizing flavor does not appeal.

The following are some of the especially delicious ways of preparing rhubarb:

1. RHUBARB FOAL: 2c rhubarb, 1-4t orange peel, grated; 1-4c sugar; 1-4c water; 2 egg whites, 1-2c whipped cream, 1T sugar. Cut unpeeled rhubarb in small pieces and cook until tender in the water, adding the grated orange peel first and the sugar when the rhubarb is done. Cook and add to the stiffly beaten egg whites and the whipped cream. Chill thoroughly and serve in dessert glasses, topping each with a red cherry.

2. BAKED RHUBARB, I.
Arrange 4 cups of inch pieces of rhubarb in layers in a casserole with water to cover the bottom; sprinkle each layer with one-fourth cup of sugar and place two or three thin slices of lemon on top; cover and bake slowly, 320 degrees F.

3. BAKED RHUBARB, II.
Rhubarb 3c, sugar 1-2c, butter 1T. Cut washed, unpeeled rhubarb into one-inch pieces. Combine with sugar and butter in baking dish. Bake in slow oven, 320 degrees F, 2 hours. Serves 6.

4. RHUBARB SHORTCAKE.
3c rhubarb, 1 1-4c sugar, 2T cornstarch, 2 eggs. Shortcake dough. Cook rhubarb with small amount of water. Add sugar when done. Mix cornstarch with a little cold water and add to well beaten egg yolks and add to rhubarb. Have baked one layer of shortcake dough. Spread this with the rhubarb custard. Make a meringue of the egg whites and one-fourth cup of sugar, spread on top and brown. This recipe will serve six.

5. RHUBARB PUNCH.
Cook rhubarb and strain off the juice. Mix equal quantities of black tea and rhubarb juice together. To each cup of liquid add one teaspoon lemon juice. Sweeten to taste with sugar sirup made by boiling equal quantities of sugar and water together five minutes. Chill and serve with ice. Garnish with lemon and sprigs of mint.

6. RHUBARB CUSTARD PIE.
2 1-2c rhubarb, 1c sugar, 1T melted butter, 2T flour, 2 egg yolks, plain pastry.
Wash rhubarb and cut it into inch pieces. Beat the egg yolks, gradually add the sugar and the flour mixed, the melted butter, and the rhubarb. Fill into an uncooked pastry shell and bake ten minutes in a hot oven—450 degrees—and about thirty minutes at 350 degrees.

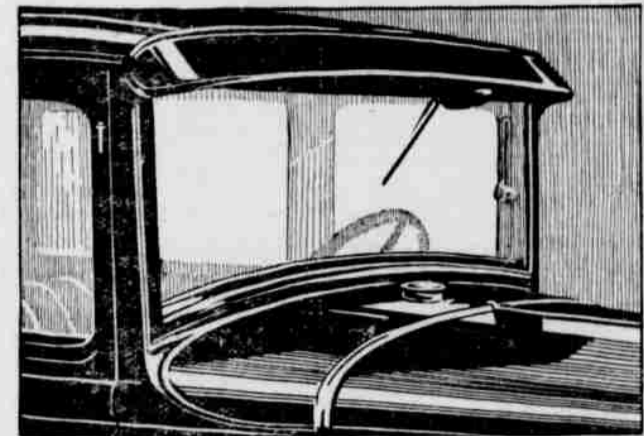

7. RHUBARB APPLE SAUCE.
1c sugar, 1c water, 2 apples, 1c rhubarb.
Pare and slice apples. Cut rhubarb in one-inch lengths. Add water and cook until tender. Add sugar and cook five minutes.

COME FROM HEPPNER.
Enterprise Record-Chiefstain.
Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford came from Heppner Saturday, bringing home Mr. Crawford's sister, Mrs. Everett Hayes, and her small son, who had been visiting Mrs. Hayes' father, Vawter Crawford. At the January newspaper conference at the University of Oregon, the Heppner Gazette Times won the honor of being voted the best weekly paper in the state. Vawter and Spencer Crawford, father and son, are publishers, and they gained their standing in the field by years of devoted work.

FORD SAFETY

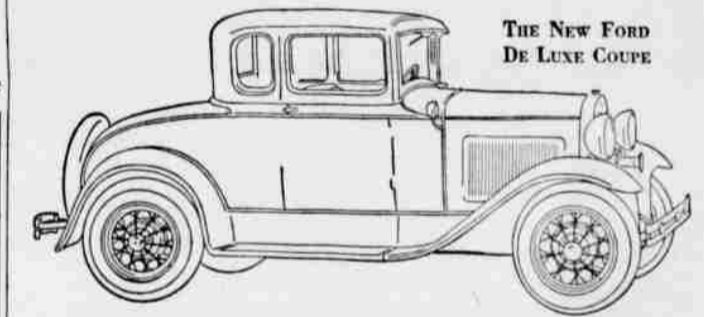

Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield has saved many lives in collisions

EVERY new Ford is equipped with a Triplex shatter-proof windshield. This is made so that the glass will not fly or splinter under the hardest impact. It has saved many lives and prevented injuries in many automobile collisions.

This shatter-proof glass windshield is just one of many features that make the new Ford a value far above the price. Others are the silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, sturdy steel body construction, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, more than twenty ball and roller bearings, extensive use of fine steel forgings, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, torque-tube drive, three-quarter floating rear axle, Rustless Steel, and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

In addition, you save many dollars because of low first cost of the new Ford, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.
