BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

Frank Cramer and family have wed to the ranch. Mr. Cramer will run the Fortier and Earl Cramer places this summer.

Lee Mead and family also moved the past week and are nicley settled in their ranch home.

Great interest was shown in the sectional declamatory contest held here Saturday night with talent from Irrigon, Strawberry, Pine City and Alpine competing with Board-man. As usual Alpine walked away with the lion's share of the honors and all were justly earned for the children all showed splendid training. Places were awarded as fol-lows: Div. III, non-humorous, Irl Clary, Alpine, 1st, Reith Bowman, Pine City, 2nd and Clara Mae Dilon 3rd, Humorous: Catherine Mead 1st. Boardman; Bruce Lindsay, Alpine, 2nd; Cecelia Healy, Pine City, 3rd. Div. II, non-humorous: Peggy Kilkenny, Alpine, 1st; Laverne Baker, Boardman, 2nd; Doris Klinger, 3rd. Humorous: Reitha Howard, Alpine, 1st; Floyd Oliver, Irrigon 2nd: Allan Chaffee, Boardman, 3rd. The winners of first and second places go to Heppner to the county contest April 11. Boardman people served lunch to the visitors after the program. Judges were Mrs. Zellar and Mrs. Cochran of Arlington and Miss Dyer of Stanfield. Mr. Lindsay of Alpine kindly sang two Lindsay of Alpine kindly sang two Mrs. P. J. Pomona met Saturday at Irrigon. Because of the conflict of dates with sectional declamatory contest the attendance was not as large as usual, but those who attended felt well repaid. A wonderful dinner and supper were served. In the evening twelve candidates were given the Pomona degree. Two resolutions of importance were passed at the meeting, one opposing the pro-posed change to be made by the Mid-Columbia Bankers association, when a charge of 3 cents per check is to be added to the 50-cent service charge on all accounts which do not have a balance of $50. A balance of $75 entitles one to write ten checks before paying the 3-cent charge and The Grange felt that the banks had gone to no extra expense recently to care for the clearing of the checks, but they had been handled by the regular office force of the bank and it was thought unfair to make this extra charge now when the farmers' accounts are of necessity low because of the complete demoralization of prices of all farm commodities. Another resolution was regarding the organization of a tax league before the county assessor completes his work. The counties that have formed tax leagues are better able to meet the members of the county court concerning tax ques-

Home Grown Supply

Oregon's acreage of corn grown or grain could be increased 100 per ent or more without overproducng for the present state demand, according to the 1931 corn outlook eport just issued by the Oregon State college extension service. Corn shipments into the state total several times the amount of home

Sales of corn for cash from Oreon farms have not exceeded 200 arloads a year, according to the pest available information at the college. Although information on he total amount shipped into the tate is incomplete, nearly 1400 caroads have been received at Portland alone in each of the past two

Evidence of the shortage of homown supplies of corn is also found n price statistics. The farm price received by corn growers in this state has been from 20 cents to 30 cents a bushel more than the average for the whole country.
