The Irrigon band members motored to Corvallis Friday, playing in the state band contest Saturday at 10 o'clock and winning first place in their class.

Six bands were in this class and Irrigon feels justly proud of the accomplishment of the students of their school and their instructor, Mr. Dawald.

Robert Walpole of the trombone section also won first place in the trombone solo contest. The youngsters were right royally entertained by the homes of the Corvallis people and had the pleasure of being snapped for the movies a number of times.

The band broadcast the winning numbers over KOAC at 2 o'clock Saturday, which came in good at the homes of friends and parents here.

Only 23 out of the thirty-five were chosen for the trip. They were Rully Dexter, Donald Isom, Vallis Dexter, Eugene Lamoreaux, Otto Benefiel, Maxwell Jones, Vonna Jones, Virginia Lamoreaux, Laverne Lamoreaux, Ruth Markham, Billy Markham, Shirley Fredrickson, Belle Fredrickson, Josephine Fredrickson, Rose Corey, Buddy Markham, Ruth Leicht, Nellie Leicht, Florene Brace, Robert Walpole, Edward Houghton, Bessie Wilson, Wiley Benefiel, and Elwood Allen.

Those attending the contest from here besides the band were Fred Markham, Frank Leicht, Don Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Dawald and Robert Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawald, accompanied by Robert Walpole, motored direct to Spokane where Robert will again play in a contest of several pieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Jones and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dexter and family motored over into Washington Sunday for a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kendler Jr. moved to their new home in Umatilla Wednesday. Mr. Kendler is again employed at the gravel pit.

Mr. Woods from La Grande has purchased the Faxton place and moved his family this week.

hostess to the junior and senior classes of our school on Thursday evening of last week at Odd Fellows hall. This is an annual affair, and one that is looked forward to with happy anticipation by the students.

The school gymnasium was the scene of a jolly gathering Friday evening, April 3, when the high school held its annual carnival. An especially pleasing program was given as follows: "Thursday Evening," a one-act play by Christopher Morley—Gordon Johns, a young business man, Veda Eubanks; Laura, Mrs. Gordon Johns, Margaret Ely; Mrs. Sheffield, Laura's mother; Muriel Patterson; Mrs. Johns, Gordon's mother; Helen Smouse—scene, a small kitchen in the modest home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johns; directed by Miss Emmons, assisted by Gladys Brashers.

Ione high school quartette, selected, Ralph Gibson, Ordie Farrens, Joel Engelman and Norton Lundell. "Moonshine," a one-act play by Arthur Hopkins—Luke Hazy, a moonshiner, Ralph Thompson; a revenue officer, Francis Ely; directed by Mr. Riggs. Ione high school quartette, selected; cowboy songs, Donald Heliker and Robert Botts. Music furnished through the courtesy of the Ione school band; programs by the typing department. The room was artistically decorated in red and white, and the usual carnival booths were in evidence and refreshments were served.

MODEL CREAMERY VIEWED BY LIONS

needed to both the steam and water pipes, is another process that interested members of the Lions party. Here the cream for churning is heated to a temperature sufficient to kill all bacteria, then quickly cooled to 62 degrees, the churning temperature.

No guesswork is used by the company at any time in the making of its products. When the cream goes to the churn it is sweet, all the sour cream having been tested for acidity and neutralized, with exact calculations made as to the amount of the neutralizing agent required to overcome the acid in each churning. The greatest care must be taken in running tests of incoming cream to determine the butterfat content, for not only is the tester liable to the state for inaccuracies and subject to fine and revocation of his license, but his calculations provide the basis of computation for the entire butter-making end of the business.

As the finished butter sells, on a normal market, at the same price as is paid per pound for the raw butterfat, the profit from this part of the business comes from what is known as the overrun, or the salt and water added in churning the cream and the buttermilk. Here again the creamery is regulated as to the percentage of salt and water the completed butter may contain, and it is necessary to run a "moisture" test on each churning to protect the interests of the company and its customers as well.

Cutting and wrapping of the butter is done in a room where a temperature of 20 degrees above zero is maintained. Here again, great accuracy must be maintained, and to insure proper weights each "roll" of butter is scaled as it is wrapped in parchment and inserted in cartons for delivery to the company's customers.

Asked as to how he viewed the new cream and butter grading law, Mr. Cox said that he welcomed it gladly. He said he was glad for anything that tended to raise the grade of the cream the company must receive, as well as anything that puts a premium on high-score butter. He strives constantly to keep all products of the creamery at the highest possible standard, and believes his company will not
