

IONE.

JENNIE E. McMURRAY.

Another six weeks work has been completed in the schools with the following students making the honor roll: high school, first honor roll, seniors: Norman Swanson; juniors, Ralph Thompson; sophomores, Ruth Keene and Elwynne Lucallen. Second honor roll, seniors: Helen Smouse and Gladys Brashers. Seventh grade, Miriam Hale, Ross Belle Perry and Harlan McCurdy. Sixth grade, Margaret Lindeken and Junior Mason. Fifth grade, Betty Bergevin, Ruth Crawford, Bertha Akers and Maxine McCurdy. Fourth grade, Joan Sipes and Helen Lundell. Second grade, Mary K. Blake, Grace Lindeken and Mary Merritt. First grade, Eleanor Ball, Van Rietmann, Paul Rietmann and Jimmie Ledbetter.

The Women's club of Heppner was hosted Monday afternoon at a woman's club from Pendleton and the Women's Topic club of Ione. The meeting was held in the Episcopal parish house and was a very enjoyable affair. Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar addressed the meeting. Delicious refreshments were served. Ladies from here who attended were Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mrs. Inez Freeland, Mrs. Edward Rietmann, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Victor Rietmann and Mrs. Walter Corley.

The annual meeting of the Morrow County Health association was held at the schoolhouse Monday evening. During the business session, the constitution was adopted. Rev. W. W. Head was elected president of the association to take the place of George McDuffee who is moving out of Morrow county, and Mrs. Edwin Ingles of Lexington was elected secretary to fill the office left vacant by the resignation of Mrs. W. W. Blakely. Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, executive secretary of the state tuberculosis association, was the principal speaker. Members of the association from Pendleton were present and gave short, interesting talks.

In the Morrow county declamatory contest held Saturday at Heppner, Donald Heliker won first in the oratorical class, division one. He will represent Ione at the inter-county contest April 18, at Arlington. In the spelling contest held in Heppner on the same date, Miriam Hale of the seventh grade won second place. Thus the Ione grade school becomes the proud possessor of two pennants, last year having won third place.

Paul Smouse and Francis Troedson are Ione students who entered the typing contest at Pendleton Saturday. They were accompanied by their instructor, Miss Florence Emmons.

E. H. Turner has purchased a 40-acre tract of land near Boardman, where he will make his home.

Mrs. Ada Jolley, president of the Oregon State W. C. T. U., held an interesting meeting at the Congregational church, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk went to Portland on Thursday of last week, and on Monday Mrs. Howk underwent a major operation in St. Vincent hospital. Mr. Howk returned home Tuesday.

The baseball game last Friday between the Ione high school team and Lexington was a one-sided affair, Ione being the winner.

The Sunday game between the Ione team and the Cayuse Indians was also all in our favor, the score being 10-0. Next Sunday Ione will play at Heppner.

The latest news from the "oil fields" is to the effect that the test hole is now down to a depth of 330 feet. There is a much stronger flow of water and more gas.

All the teachers in the Ione school have signed contracts for the year 1931-32. There has been no cut in salaries.

Mrs. Charles Battersby returned recently from Portland where she had been spending two weeks caring for her mother, Mrs. Anderson, who was ill. Mr. Battersby drove to Portland to bring Mrs. Battersby home.

A. M. Zink is at Mrs. M. Jordan's home receiving treatment for blood poisoning.

Mayor John Louy is at home again, much improved in health. He returned from Walla Walla Sunday making the trip in company with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson.

Gordon Monroe was a week-end visitor at the home of his parents in Madras.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Newton, their son, George, and daughter, Mrs. Thelma Hill, all of South Bend, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. James Cossman of Eugene, arrived in Ione Monday, called here by the critical illness of Mrs. Katie Petseys, mother of Mrs. Newton and Mr. Cossman.

A. E. Reed of The Dalles is a guest in the home of his sisters, Mrs. Della Corson and Mrs. Etta Shippey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Troge motored to Salem Sunday to attend funeral services for Mr. Kuhl, who was an intimate friend of the family.

A. T. McNay who has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louis Balsiger, returned to his home at Newberg. He made the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Troge.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leathers and Mrs. Owen Leathers of Hardman were Sunday guests at the John Grimes home.

Dental inspection was held at the schoolhouse Tuesday for children of preschool age, as well as those of school age.

Thomas Griffith, assistant keeper of the airways, is now located at Arlington. Mr. Griffith is a son of Mrs. P. J. Linn.

W. L. Honey of Gresham and John Honey of Portland were weekend business visitors in Ione.

O. O. Merritt of Centralia, Wash., was relief man at the depot during the time that Agent Howk was off duty.

An O. W. R. & N. work train is stationed in town. The workmen are building a new tower for the railroad windmill.

The O. E. S. Social club will meet Friday, April 17, at Masonic hall.

All members of the order are invited to attend. Edmond Bristow, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bristow, has been promoted to the position of manager of Trotter's Self Service store in Baker. Mr. Bristow has been in the employ of Mr. Trotter for some time. We are glad to learn of the young man's advancement. S. L. Beck and son John of Canby were guests one day last week in the Loren Hale home. Mr. Beck is still in the well drilling business, and made the trip here to see about the purchase of another drill. He was formerly an Ione resident.

I. H. S. Alumni Notes.

Earle A. Brown was principal of Ione school for three years. Under his leadership eight finished the course in 1928. Russel Miller and Hazel Akers, both members of this class, are married and are making their home in Ione. They are the parents of a daughter, Mildred Lucile. Nedra Agee is now Mrs. W. H. Sammis, and resides at 3547 Glenhurst Ave., Los Angeles, Cal. Louise Miller married Robert McCabe of the class of '29. Mrs. McCabe is spending this summer with her parents on the ranch below town while Mr. McCabe is employed in road building in the interior, where there are no camping accommodations. Richard Lundell is working for his father in the Ione garage. Alfred Balsiger is a student in Adcox Aviation and Automotive school, Portland. Prior to his work here, he spent a year and a half in the University of Washington where he took business administration. Robert Grabill is also a student at Adcox, Portland. Janet Carlson is taking a commercial course at Oregon State college. The class of 1929 numbered seven. Fern Engelman is at home with her parents in Ione. Edith Ely took normal training at Monmouth. This year she is teaching in the Rhea creek school. Rose Fletcher is making her home with her mother here. Leona Ritchie is with her parents in Portland. Garland Swanson is at present in Ione. Last year he was a student in an aviation school at Salem. Harry Peterson is assisting his father on the Rhea creek farm. Robert McCabe is employed in road building.

The class of 1930 also numbered seven. Mildred Smith and Mary Healy are taking business courses in Portland schools. Beulah Pettijohn is with her parents at Morgan. Kenneth Smouse is assisting his father on the wheat ranch. Harold Kincaid is at home on his father's ranch at present. He has been attending school at the Oregon Institute of Technology, Portland. Gene Engelman has employment in Portland and Kenneth Akers is at the home of his father in our city. This completes our list, 126 graduates in all, 69 boys and 57 girls. These young folks are all better fitted for life, if during the time they have spent laying their high school foundation for a higher education, they have built wholesome character.

LEXINGTON NEWS

Saturday, April 18, Lexington Grange will meet at the Leach Memorial hall. It being lecturer's night, there will be a short program, open to the public, after which candidates from Willows, Rhea creek and Lexington will be initiated into the first and second degrees of the order. After the initiation, there will be a social hour. All grangers are urged to attend.

Mrs. Sarah White, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Lane, Mae Gentry, Emma Lane and Peggy Warner, visited friends in Hermiston Sunday.

Lee Gilbreth of Dayton, Wash., spent several days in Lexington last week visiting relatives and friends and looking after business interests.

Mrs. Lon Edwards has returned from California, where she was recently called on account of the illness of her mother.

The faculty for Lexington grade and high schools has been chosen. Edwin Ingles will continue as principal; Clara Holey will have charge of English and music in the high school, while Mrs. Carol Ingles will have charge of the commercial subjects and physical education. In the grades Lillian C. Turner will teach the seventh and eighth grades; George Gills will teach the fifth and sixth grades and have charge of boys' athletics; Lavilla Howell will teach the third and fourth grades and Pearl Vail the first and second.

The pupils of Lexington school have been undergoing a thorough physical examination by Dr. Gray, Dr. McCrady and Dr. Barr, assisted by Miss Edith Stallard, during the past two weeks.

HARDMAN.

MRS. ELLA FARRRENS.

We feel proud of the record Hardman grade school pupils made for themselves at the recent Morrow county spelling contest, though they failed to bring home one of the prizes awarded. Nova Bleakman of the 6th grade didn't miss any words out of the first 500 and fell down only in the final spelling contest when she competed with three other contestants who had spelled correctly the first 500 words given. Roland Farrrens missed four of the first 100 words given. Francis Inskip and Lois Stevens, lower division contestants, both missed three words from 500. Those attending the spelling contest from here were Mrs. Bert Bleakman, Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman, Mrs. Wes Stevens, Mrs. Walter Farrrens, Miss Mae Doherty, Misses Dolly and Lucile Farrrens and Miss Elvira Bleakman.

A number of the young people of this community attended the dance given at Rhea creek and also the one at the Fraters ranch Saturday night.

Clarence McKitric was a visitor here Sunday.

The Misses Lily and Zetta Johnson and Maurice McKitric motored to Cecil Saturday.

The high school pupils and teacher took advantage of the beautiful spring day last Friday and took a horseback ride to Burton Valley. Everyone reports a good time.

Mary Ellen Inskip and Delcie Bleakman were sick with bad colds and were unable to go along.

Preparations are in progress for the institution of the town's tennis, croquet and golf sets on the lots back of the postoffice building and its completion is expected soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke and Mrs. Pearl Steers were Heppner visitors one day last week.

Miss Zetta Bleakman spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bleakman.

Mrs. Percy Bleakman was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burnside were visiting at the home of Mrs. Burnside's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Adams, Sunday.

Glenn Farrrens was a visitor here Sunday.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our appreciation for the assistance, and many kindly words of sympathy of friends and neighbors in our bereavement in the death of our beloved father, Hugh A. Conner. Mrs. Nora B. Caldwell, Mrs. Lora M. Moyer, Mrs. Effie M. Tucker, Percy E. Conner.

Regular convocation of Heppner Chapter No. 26, R. A. M., will be held at Masonic temple this evening.

Fred Tash is visiting in the city today from his home at Arlington.

MEMBERS ATTENTION.

Kate J. Young lodge No. 29; Degree of Honor, meets Thursday, April 23rd, in Odd Fellows hall. Inspection for year will be held at this meeting. There will be initiation, program and refreshments. All members are urged to be present. CLARA BEYMER, Sec.

New Ordinance Would

Control Radio Noises

Ordinance number 248, passed by the city council at its April meeting has for its purpose the control of both radio interference broadcast by electrical machines and broadcasting of noises from radio instruments themselves where such noises are regarded as a public nuisance. In order that Gazette Times readers may familiarize themselves with the new law, the full text is here given:

ORDINANCE NO. 248.

An Ordinance prohibiting electrical interference with radio reception, and prohibiting the operation of mechanical device machines, apparatus, or instruments to intensify the human voice or any sound or noise by which the peace or good order of the neighborhood is disturbed or annoyed, and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

The People of the City of Heppner do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to knowingly operate or cause to be operated within the corporate limits of the city of Heppner, Oregon, any machine, device, apparatus, or instrument of any kind whatsoever between the hours of six (6) o'clock in the afternoon and twelve (12) o'clock midnight, the operation of which shall cause reasonable preventable electrical interference with radio reception; provided, however, that X-ray pictures, examinations, or treatments may be made at any time if the machine or apparatus used is properly equipped to avoid all unnecessary or reasonably preventable interference with radio reception and are not negligently operated.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation within the corporate limits of said city of Heppner, knowingly to use or operate or cause to be used or operated within said city any mechanical device, machine, apparatus or instrument for intensification or amplification of the human voice or any sound or noise in any public or private place in such manner that the peace and good order of the neighborhood is disturbed, or that persons residing in such neighborhood are annoyed.

Section 3. This ordinance shall not be held or construed to embrace or cover the regulation of any transmitting, broadcasting or receiving instrument, apparatus, or device used or useful in interstate commerce or the operation of which instrument, apparatus or device is licensed or authorized by or under the provisions of any act of the Congress of the United States.

Section 4. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than Fifty ($50.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the City Jail for a period of not more than twenty five (25) days.

Section 5. Whereas, existing conditions are such that this ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, peace and safety of the citizens of Heppner, an emergency is hereby adjudged and declared to exist, and this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the council and approved by the Mayor this 6th day of April, 1931.

Passed by the Common Council and approved by the Mayor this 6th day of April, 1931.

(SEAL) W. G. McCARTY, Mayor. Attest: E. R. HUSTON, City Recorder.
