

FIELD MEET, PARADE TO MARK HEALTH DAY

School Pupils From Over
County to Participate;
Many Expected.

EXAMINATIONS SET

Doctors, Dentists to Cooperate in Inspection of Rural Children;
Over 200 Boys to Compete.

More than 200 boys will participate in the Morrow County Grade School Boys' Athletic meet at the rodeo field at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, to be preceded by a health parade at 10 o'clock in the morning in which many schools of the county will take part in celebration of Child Health Day. The wind-up of the parade will be featured by a Maypole dance given by girls of the Heppner school under the direction of Miss Juanita Leathers.

Beginning at 9 o'clock all rural school children who apply at their offices will be given physical and dental examinations by Heppner doctors and dentists who are cooperating in making the day successful in its purpose. All rural children who have not had examinations are urged by Miss Edith Stallard, county health nurse, to take advantage of this opportunity.

High Aims Followed
The county schools and Morrow County Public Health association are cooperating with the county health nurse in making this day a banner occasion for better child health in Morrow county. They are attempting to carry out the mandates of "The Children's Charter" adopted by President Hoover's White House Conference on Child Health and Protection, one of the aims of which is, "For every child protection from birth through adolescence including: periodical health examinations and, where needed, care of specialists and hospital treatment; regular dental examination and care of the teeth; protective and preventive measures against communicable diseases; the insuring of pure food, pure milk and pure water."

Boys who will participate in the track and field meet in the afternoon, 97 of whom have been entered from the Heppner school, have been divided into five weight classes in which they will compete. Events include 50- and 100-yard dashes, running and standing broad jumps, running high jump, baseball throw and 8-pound shotput. Scoring will be done on a point system, and ribbons in each weight division for first, second and third places, as well as ribbons in each weight division for the school taking the most events. A loving cup will be awarded the school making the highest score in the meet.

Work With Schools.
An admission price of 10 cents will be charged those attending the meet to cover costs.
The city is preparing to welcome the large number of people expected to come from all parts of the county, and special eating accommodations are being arranged.
As a part of the health week program Miss Stallard, Chas. W. Smith, county agent, and Miss Lucy Case, nutrition specialist from Oregon State college have been visiting the schools in various parts of the county this week showing 4-H club and health pictures and talking on various phases of the work.

HEALTH MEETINGS HELD.
Miss Edith M. Stallard, county nurse, C. W. Smith, county agent, and Miss Lucy Case, nutrition specialist of Oregon State college, are visiting various places in the county this week holding series of health meetings. They were at Boardman Wednesday afternoon, and at Irigoin in the evening. Today a meeting is being held at Ione in the afternoon, and one at Hardman in the evening. They will be in Heppner tomorrow afternoon and at Lexington in the evening. All meetings are being held in the schools.

Moving pictures of 4-H club and health work are being shown, with talks on various phases. The meeting in Heppner tomorrow afternoon will begin at 3 o'clock and all parents are invited to attend.

BUSINESS WOMEN MEET.
The regular meeting of the Heppner Business and Professional Women's club was held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Poulson on Monday evening, with a goodly attendance present. Two new members were added to the roster, these being Mrs. J. W. Montgomery and Mrs. Gus Jones. The next meeting of the club will be held Monday evening, May 4, at Paria house, and a dinner will be served at 6:30. Phone Miss Allinger for reservations. The regular meetings of the club will be the first and third Mondays of each month.

GRANGE MEETS SUNDAY.
E. W. Snell of Arlington will be the principal speaker at the Rhea Creek Grange meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30, talking on the 1931 legislature. Other features are being arranged and the public is invited.

SOME WOOL SOLD HERE THIS WEEK

There is some activity in the wool market at Heppner and several clips have been disposed of this week. J. P. Clancy has taken over the clips of Kiernan & Lennon at 15c; F. S. Parker at 14c; Krebs Bros. at 15c; Willie Doherty, 14c. E. J. Burke purchased the sand wool of Bernard and Willie Doherty at 14c, and it is expected that buying will be quite general from now on as shearing is getting under way.

Last season's top price for Heppner wools was 20 cents, several of the growers in the foothill section getting this price. The wools sold so far come principally from the sand country, and indications are that the average price on the Heppner market will not be much under last year's prices.

LOCAL NEWS
Mr. and Mrs. French Burroughs Jordan Siding residents, were visitors here Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Burroughs reports his wheat coming along fine, but in the last week the tar weeds have been showing up and to look at some of the fields right now one would think the wheat had disappeared, as the weeds are in full blossom. There are few fields the county over not afflicted with the pest to a greater or less degree this season.

Harvey Miller was in from his ranch at Swaggart buttes today. He thinks the cold wind of last week took more moisture out of the fields than would have resulted from several weeks of bright sunshine. The heavy blow left a pall over the county for several days, but no serious damage resulted.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howell were visitors at the Ralph Jones place on Butter creek Sunday. While there Henry tried his luck with line and hook and landed a fine catch of trout.

Leo Gorger, who with his brothers, farms extensively in the north lone section, was doing business in the city on Tuesday.

Roy Neill was a Pine City ranchman attending to matters of business in this city Tuesday.

Route For Health Day Parade Is Announced

Miss Edith Stallard, public health nurse, announces that the parade for Health Day, which will be made up of the children from the rural schools of the county, will form at 12:30, near the power house, and is scheduled to start promptly at 1 o'clock. The line of march will be down Main street to the corner where the Mollahan service station stands, then west to Gale street and south on Gale street two blocks to Willow, thence back to Main street. At the intersection of Main and Willow streets the Maypole dance will be held. The athletic contest at Rodeo field follows immediately after the Maypole dance.

Miss Stallard states further that she is greatly pleased with the cooperation of Heppner business men, who have unanimously consented to decorate places of business in connection with Health Day. In this regard Miss Stallard also wishes to announce that all children now in the rural schools and all those who will be enrolled this coming fall, both in rural and city schools, may go to any physician in Heppner during the forenoon on Saturday, May 2nd, for physical examination.

ENTERTAIN PAST MATRONS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McAtee was the scene of a very pleasant gathering Monday evening when they entertained in honor of the Past Matrons' club. Several clips of bridge were made by Mrs. D. M. Ward and Harry Tamblin, and following the play refreshments of strawberry shortcake and coffee were served. Guests present were Mesdames Earl W. Gordon, W. E. Pruyn, Blanche Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Del Ward, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. John Wightman, Mr. and Mrs. Gay M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dix, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tamblin and the host and hostess.

BOB TURNER PITCHING.
"Bob" Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Turner and senior at Whitman college, Walla Walla, has been taking his turn on the mound for the college baseball team as one of the "first string" pitchers. Turner has been making a good showing, according to reports. In a double-header engagement recently, in which Turner worked, Whitman took an even break with Washington State college, winning the first game 8-2 while losing the second 15-1.

DR. POLING SPEAKS.
Dr. D. V. Poling, well known educator from Oregon State college and last year's commencement speaker at the high school, addressed the Heppner high school student body yesterday afternoon on the theme of higher education.

TOWN ORGANIZES FOR FIRE FIGHTING

Business Firms Cooperate With
Forest Service; J. W. Hiatt to Lead; Purpose Told.

Cooperation of Heppner business houses brought to a successful culmination the organization of an emergency forest fire-fighting force at the office of F. F. Wehmeyer, district ranger, Saturday afternoon. J. G. Clouston, from the U. S. Forest office at Pendleton, was present to assist in the organization.

J. W. Hiatt was chosen as leader for the 15-man force which will hold itself in readiness to answer an emergency call within half an hour's time. L. L. Gilliam was named cook and Francis Doherty timekeeper. All necessary equipment aside from clothing and bedding will be supplied by the forest service.

Firms which have so far cooperated with the organization by providing a man from their regular force to act with the emergency crew include Ferguson Motor Co., Hiatt & Dix, Gilliam & Bisbee, Peoples Hardware Co., Heppner Farmers Elevator Co., Thomson Bros., M. D. Clark, Pacific Power & Light Co., First National bank, Heppner Gazette Times, Latourell Auto Co., Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co., Case Furniture Co., Humphreys Drug Co.

Mr. Wehmeyer has directed a letter of appreciation to each cooperating firm in which he sets out something of the purpose of the organization. In it he says:

"On government and private holdings, within a fifty mile radius to our south, we have several billion feet of merchantable timber. The values should increase with the passing of years and its protection should be of real interest to all of us, if for no other than mercenary reasons. In addition we have a natural recreational play ground at mile high elevations, where camping, hunting, summer homes, will prove to be a comfort and delight to this and many succeeding generations."

"Next to farming and water power, forestry is Oregon's greatest future. If we can keep those portions of our land, not suitable for other purposes, in growing timber, the forests will continue to pay a fifth or more of our payrolls in countless future years."

"May I suggest that you stress the matter of preparedness with the man you have selected, that there may be no delay in the promptness with which this organization may be called into the field, should the need of emergency arise."

"Each man should have a pair of well broken heavy shoes, a pair of medium or heavy weight wool socks, a wool shirt, an overcoat or jacket and two blankets rolled up in a piece of canvas and kept somewhere handy. Ninety per cent of the success of our work will hinge on their inception and increase in growth at an alarming ratio with each hour's delay, according to weather and atmospheric conditions."

EVENING SCHOOL TO DRAW PUBLIC

Local Educational Plant to be in Full Swing Night of May 8 for View of All Interested.

How are the young people who attend the Heppner schools educated? Many people who have not had an opportunity to visit the schools in the daytime are no doubt interested in this question. Parents especially would be interested, believes W. R. Poulson, superintendent, who has announced that Friday evening, May 8, school will be conducted in every detail just as it is regularly in the daytime. At this time the public is especially invited to visit the schools and see the educational plant in progress.

Rapid strides in the advancement of educational methods have been made since the days of the little red schoolhouse in which grandmothers and granddads of the community received their common school education. And young mothers and dads may also be surprised to see the changes that have taken place since their school days. Both the local grade and high schools have kept pace with educational advancement the country over, being highly accredited. The high school is counted among the better high schools of the state in having been admitted to the Northwest Association of Accredited High Schools, graduates of which are admitted to colleges and universities any place in the northwest, and other leading institutions of higher education in other parts of the United States, with full freshman standing without being required to take entrance examinations.

With education in the state claiming a very large portion of the tax dollar, taxpayers should be especially interested at this time in seeing whether full value is being received. Mr. Poulson believes a large number of people will be interested in taking advantage of this opportunity to see the school plant at work. He not only invites but urges everyone to do so.

Where Teams Play Next:
Condon at Heppner, Ione at Arlington, Rufus-Bialock at Fossil.

Sixteen members of Heppner's baseball squad saw action in the game at Rufus Sunday, in which Rufus-Bialock was taken into camp 22-12. The game was played beside the Columbia River highway on a topsy-turvy ball diamond which made fielding uncertain, and drew among other interested spectators a stage load of people who were entertained for about ten minutes.

At this time Heppner had just loaded the base in the sixth inning and Cason's bunt, the first of the game, unloaded them when the surprised Columbia river boys threw the ball away in the attempt to head off runners.

R-B Pitcher Removed.

Heppner took a four-run lead in the first inning when they knocked McNays off the mound, and lanky Mr. Chase was introduced before any outs could be secured. Chase whiffed three batters in succession to stop this rally, but was himself treated to a volley of 15 hits before the game was over. Even at that the Heppner boys might have been held down considerably had it not been for some 15 errors his teammates piled up behind him.

The home boys gave better support to Wilcox and Robertson, the two pitchers for the day. Only four errors were counted against them. Ground balls were the order and Shurman at second base took the fielding record with five assists. Harold Gentry, shortstop, made three. Bob Correll, catcher, took hitting honors with five clean blows out of six times at bat. He also was high scorer with six runs, being walked once to first.

Ladies' Day Sunday.

Next Sunday will be ladies' day at Rodeo field when Condon comes here to play, all ladies to be admitted free. The usual charge of 50 cents for men and 25 cents for boys will be made. The clash Sunday is expected to be a hot one with Condon striving hard to retain her place at the top of the percentage column and the Heppner boys fighting just as hard to bring her down to their level.

HOOSGOW THEME USED BY JUNIORS

Annual Banquet for Senior Class
Staged in Prison Surroundings.
Rock Pile and Everything.

Seniors, juniors and faculty members of Heppner High school were in the hoosgow for a couple of hours Saturday evening. Not a real jail, to be sure; but a cleverly worked-out prison motif was used by the juniors in the annual farewell banquet to the departing seniors in the basement of the Christian church.

Plans of the affair were kept secret to the very last minute and great was the surprise of the guests when the outer doors were thrown open and they found themselves staring at the gates of a cold, gray prison with several inmates behind the bars. The convicts—or waitresses, as they turned out to be—slowly opened the gate and the guests passed into a large prison room. The walls were hung with gray building paper on which were painted rocks of all descriptions. There were also many evidences left on the walls of past inmates.

In the center of the room was a huge rock pile and its accompanying mauls and hammers.

The table decorations carried out the blue and gold colors of the seniors and also the green and white of the juniors. Small pennants with the class numerals were in front of each place and larger ones appeared in the flower baskets.

The menu was worked out on the scheme of a conviction record, each bearing a picture of the convict, his cell number, description and prison record. The program was printed on several keys fastened on a ring. John Franzen, president of the junior class, was a very excellent toastmaster. Miss Grace Nixon, the senior warden, presented their conviction record which was very cleverly done. The funniest thing on the program was the stunt put on by the sophomore girls, dressed in prison garb, who served the banquet. These were Nancy Jane Cox, Jean Anderson, Phyllis Pollock, Viola Brown, Hazel Beyer and Margaret Brosnan who was a very efficient head waitress.

Their stunt was a mock court in which several members of the class and faculty were summoned to court and such charges as one-arm driving, and no fishing license were preferred.

Everyone went home glad to be freed from the prison sentence but not sorry they had been in jail for a few hours.

Class and faculty members present included: seniors, Earl Thomson, Francis White, Mary White, Harold Gentry, Ella Fell, Alma McFuffee, Alice Cason, Lavella White, Joe Swindig, Theresa Breslin, Winifred Thomson, Patricia Monahan, Jeanette Turner, Vivian Lieualien, Guy Anderson, Anne McNamee; juniors, John Franzen, Billy Cox, Lucille Moyer, Louise Moyer, Gene Mikesell, Ralph Benton, Mary Thomson, Eddie Kenny, Virginia Cleveland, Viola Ruby, Adele Nickerson, Vallis Jones, Claude Hill, Lucille Beyer, Evelyn Schultz, Mary McDuffee, Mary Gemmell, Theodore Thomson, Florence French, Lucille Hall, Ruth Turner, Ireta Taylor, Lolla Hiatt; faculty, W. R. Poulson and Mrs. Poulson, Paul Menegat, Miss Charlotte Woods, Neil Shurman, Miss Bernita Fay Lumley, Ted Lumley and Mrs. Lumley, Miss Grace Nixon and Miss Jessie Palmer.

Miss Palmer, home economics instructor, supervised plans for the banquet. Bruce Gibb, senior class president, was unable to be present due to illness.

Two Divorces Granted

In Short Court Session

A short session of circuit court was held by Judge D. R. Parker here Monday. Among cases disposed of were two divorce proceedings in which decrees were granted plaintiffs in both instances on failure of defendants to appear. Minnie B. Furlong was granted divorce from Chas. H. Furlong and awarded the custody of their minor child, Kathleen Furlong, defendant to pay $50 a month for her care. Stacy Roberts was granted divorce from Leora K. Roberts.

Judgments were granted plaintiffs in the cases of Federal Land Bank vs. Jos. M. Hayes and O. T. Ferguson vs. Ed Bergstrom and A. H. Bergstrom. Plea for withdrawal of demurrer was granted B. H. Peck in the case of Clyde Fridley, administrator, vs. E. Albee, et al. Order of dismissal was made in case of Farmers & Stockgrowers National bank vs. M. L. Case on plaintiff's motion. Orders of confirmation were entered in cases of Farmers & Stockgrowers National bank vs. J. H. Hayes, et al, and Chas. Allinger vs. E. H. Turner.

CLOSING EXERCISES SCHEDULED.

Heppner schools will close the year's work Friday evening, May 15, with commencement for the high school graduating class in the evening at the school auditorium. Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University of Oregon, will be the commencement speaker. Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday evening, May 16, in the auditorium, with Rev. Thomas D. Yarnes of Salem addressing the graduating class.

CHILD HEALTH DAY BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the Congress by joint resolution has authorized and requested the President of the United States of America to proclaim annually that May Day is Child Health Day; and,

Whereas, the responsibility for the well-being of children is a community responsibility as well as an individual duty; now,

Therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, do call upon all Governors of the States of the Union, and all Governors of territories and possessions of the United States to declare to their people that May Day should be used wherever possible as Child Health Day, for the consideration of all public and private measures by which the health of our children may be conserved and advanced. I especially commend for consideration on that day "The Children's Charter" as set forth by the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection.

HERBERT HOOVER.

Governor Meier's Message

To the People of Oregon:

The annual, national wide observance of May first as Child Health Day and the week thereafter as Child Health Week, shows a growing appreciation of the importance of sound physical endowment and proper opportunities for nurture and development.

Good health is not merely a matter of individual concern; it is a matter of public importance. It requires community of purpose and united effort.

This year the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection has added an incentive and a program for the conservation of the nation's human resources by renewing interest in childhood and youth. It has brought up to a full realization of the fact that the foundation for a better future generation must be laid during the impressionable years of childhood.

I hope that the people of Oregon will cooperate in an observance of Child Health Day and Child Health Week which will bring the objectives of the White House Conference into Oregon and that we may, during this week, make an investment of interest in child health which will bring rich returns throughout the year and for the future.

JULIUS L. MEIER, Governor.

SMALL CAR SUMMERSAULTS.

While on his way up Willow creek to the artesian well Monday forenoon, W. E. Pruyn, city watermaster, met with an exciting experience, and marvels that he got out of it with no bones broken and able to tell how it all happened. Going along at a moderate pace, Mr. Pruyn noticed a piece of 2x4 lying in the road which he thought to pass over without striking, but instead hit it just right to upend it and the result was the complete turning over of the machine and top side up again in the ditch. The turning over process did not remove Mr. Pruyn from the seat and steering wheel, and he came right side up with the truck, which received some damage to the cab and a broken windshield. After taking stock Mr. Pruyn found he was not seriously injured, so he started the machine and went on to his destination, finishing the job he had started. A slight cut on the cheek under the left eye and a wrenched right knee were the sum total of Mr. Pruyn's injuries.

CROW, MAGPIE WAR TO START SUNDAY

Lions and Others to Raid
Pests; Losers to Treat
Winners at Close.

ROAD WORK ASKED

Delegates In Portland Today to Meet With State Commission;
Scoutmaster Named.

The annual Lions club crow-magpie contest is slated to commence Sunday with enlistment of the entire club membership and as many others as have signified their intention of participating. Chas. H. Latourell, chairman of this year's campaign, told Lions Monday. That the campaign may be even more successful in its purpose this year than last, the various granges of the county and the Alpine Farm Bureau are being asked to cooperate in waging war on the predatory bird pests. The contest will last for four weeks, and at the close the losing side will entertain the winning side. Mr. Latourell and Dr. A. D. McMurdo are the team captains.

In connection with the crow-magpie drive, B. R. Patterson chairman of the club's committee, announced that many birds' heads and eggs are being brought in by farm boys, who are being paid five cents apiece for the heads and a cent each for the eggs. Mr. Patterson was instructed to go ahead with the old-time fiddlers' contest, which it is expected will be staged in Heppner in the near future.

Work on Rock Creek.

G. A. Bleakman, county commissioner, urged the club to send representatives to the state highway commission meeting in Portland today, for the purpose of looking after the interests of the Heppner-Spray road. Assistance on the Rock creek portion of the road will be asked by the delegation headed by Al Rankin, good roads committee chairman.

John Hiatt has accepted the scoutmastership of the local Boy Scouts, announced W. R. Poulson, Lions committee chairman, who urged that Mr. Hiatt be given every possible support by the Lions and other organizations of the town. It was expected that a meeting of the Boy Scout executive council would be held this week when details for the thorough reorganization of the scouts would be gone into. Some financial assistance for the work will probably be asked. Mr. Poulson said, but it is not expected that a great amount will be necessary this year, as the local troop will not be required to pay their allotment to the Blue Mountain council, district organization of scouts. Two patrols, each to be sponsored by a separate organization, will be organized to compete with each other in the various phases of scout work if one plan cited by Mr. Poulson is put into effect.

Former Residents Visit.

Visitors at the meeting included F. A. McMenamin and P. A. Anderson, both of Portland and who formerly engaged in business in this city. Both men complimented the Lions on their work. Mr. McMenamin, who still retains property interests in the county, being associated with W. E. Wigglesworth in conducting a large farming operation in the north end of the county, made special mention of economic problems in which the Lions might interest themselves. Fred Lucas of Lexington was also introduced as a visitor.

Heppner Mothers Invited

To Attend U-O. Meeting

University of Oregon, Eugene, Apr. 28—(Special)—Honoring mothers of students, the University of Oregon will entertain May 8 and 9 with a special program. The annual Mothers' banquet, the outstanding event of the week end, will be held Saturday evening in Gerlinger hall, at which 850 will be seated.
