There has been a great deal of unfriendly comment abroad over the situation in the United States during the past eighteen months. Unemployment, the breadlines in the big cities, and similar sensational items of news were printed in European papers, with the result that Germany, France and Italy picture the whole population of the United Staets reduced to destitution. Apparently they have never heard, over there, of our miniature golf craze, which began just after the depression hit us and so far has developed into a $150,000,000 business. Not everybody in the United States spends his time in the

And, to come back to the green grass and the weeds, Nature is doing a little better by us this year than last. At least, there has been more rain this Spring all over the country than there was a year ago, and more snow in the North than average, but there doesn't seem to be any danger of another widespread drought in 1931.

JESUS IN THE HOME OF ZACCHAEUS Luke 19:1-10.

REV. SAMUEL D. PRICE, D. D. Here is a human interest story that took place in real life. Jesus had completed His Perean journey, which lasted about three months. The Jordan river had been forded and now interest centers in the city of Jericho. Then it was a decidedly popular resort; now it is largely a place of ruins with a few dwellers Blind men were healed as would draw a crowd and the people
