

IONE.

Rev. W. W. Head, pastor of the Congregational church at Ione, officiating. Only relatives were present to witness the ceremony. Rev. Head read the short but impressive ring service. The bride was attended by her sister; the groom's man was Ordie Farrans of Ione. The home was beautiful with a profusion of flowers. Immediately following the ceremony, dinner was served. The young couple will reside on the home ranch while Mr. and Mrs. Bottemiller will make their home in Portland. Besides the bride's relatives who were present at the wedding, there were also present Mrs. Willard Farrans and Clinton Jackson of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bauernfeind of Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young of Eight Mile and Mrs. Ernest Farrans and two daughters of Yakima, Washington. Student body election was held Monday afternoon and the following students were placed in office for the year 1931-32: Francis Ely, president; Opal Finn, vice-president; Muriel Patterson, secretary-treasurer; Margaret Ely, yell leader; Norton Lundell, transportation manager; Norman Everson, athletic manager. By a vote of the student body, the sportsmanship cup was awarded Earl McCabe. Presentation of the cup will be made at commencement time.

The Ione school was well represented at the May Day meet at Heppner Saturday. Our part in the parade, "Folks From Healthland," won much favorable comment. King Milk rode in a chariot, drawn by four horses, and attended by four members of Healthland. Butter, spinach, beets, carrots, turnips and lettuce—all the delicious things that go to make up a healthful diet, were represented by costumed children. The boys made a splendid showing in the track meet, winning 19 points for Ione. Heppner won 22 points and received the cup.

In the tuberculosis essay contest, the two papers written by Virgil Esteb and Norman Swanson were selected to represent Ione high school in the county contest. The county elimination took place Saturday as part of the health program. Norman Swanson's essay was adjudged the best, and he was duly presented the five dollars prize money.

Please bear in mind that the Ione school band will give an open air concert on Mothers' Day at 7 o'clock in the evening. The date set for the student body play, "The Cat," is May 14. The cast, all members of the senior class, is as follows: Quincy Sumner II, Norman Swanson; Abigail Sumner, his sister, Helen Smouse; Quincy Sumner, III, his son, Barton Clark; Michael Hoops, Francis Troedson; Charley Hoops, Michael's son, Earl McCabe; Rowena Southworth, Gladys Brashers; Peggy Parker, Veda Eubanks; Gloria O'Hennessey, a maid, Geneva, Pettyjohn; Eddie Fallon, a detective, Virgil Esteb; The Cat, a woman burglar, Margaret Crawford. The play is being given under the direction of Miss Dolores Leavens.

May 15 is the date set for the annual high school picnic. D. V. Poling, well known educator from Oregon State college, spoke to the high school Thursday, April 30, on the subject of "Higher Education."

Our few warm days of last week were followed by a thunder shower. Not much rain fell in Ione, but some of the nearby districts report heavy rain fall and the rush of muddy water in Willow creek indicated that heavy rains had fallen on upper Willow and Rhea creeks. The Cecil alfalfa farmers now have sufficient water for irrigation. Garland and Norman Swanson and Barton Clark motored to Salem Friday to attend the May Day Fete at Willamette University. The boys returned Sunday.

Bill Ahalt was a guest last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Buchanan, on Willow creek. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson of Portland were week-end guests at the home of Mr. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Ida Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lindeken motored to Pasco, Wash., Saturday, returning the same day. They were accompanied by their guests, Mrs. Louis Wageman and Mrs. Harry Lindeken who took the train at that place on the return trip to their home in Nebraska.

Mrs. Mary Young, mother of Frank Young of Eight Mile, is reported to be quite ill at the home of her daughter in Portland. Mrs. Young has been with her daughter for several months.

Elmer Griffith and Frank Robinson have been on a fishing trip to Maupin. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Colvin and Donald, Mrs. Helen Farrans, Dorothy and Genevieve, all of Portland, visited from Saturday till Monday with relatives in Ione. Mrs. Farrans has employment at the XXX station on the base line road and would be pleased to have her Ione friends call on her when in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bergevin were genial hosts at a chicken dinner Sunday evening. The following friends enjoyed their hospitality: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lieualen, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cotter and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Morgan, Milton Morgan and Grant Conway spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bartlesmy at Mays. Ione lost in the ball game Sunday at Arlington by a score of 9-7.

Friends here have received word that John Lundy is quite ill at his home in Portland. Mr. Lundy is a former resident of this district.

The Ione high school baseball team defeated Arlington by a score of 11-9 at Arlington Friday. W. J. Blake and son Ted, Mrs. Earl Blake and two children, and Mrs. Victor Peterson drove to Portland Sunday. Mrs. Peterson went to have dental work done, and Mrs. Blake was taking her little daughter, Joan, to the city for medical attention.

At Heppner CHURCHES

HOME COMING SUNDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

9:45 a. m., Sunday School. 11:00 a. m., Morning Worship hour. Mothers' Day message by Rev. Thomas D. Yarnes of Salem. There will be special Mothers' Day features, including music by the choir appropriate for the day, and featuring one number by the double quartet. This is Home Coming Sunday for Methodists and their friends. We expect to make this a great day in Zion. Basket dinner at noon.

Let us render unto Mother the honor that is due her. Eph 6:2: "Honor thy mother." "The noblest thoughts my soul can claim, The holiest words my tongue can frame, Unworthy are to praise the name More sacred than all other. An infant, when her love first came, A man, I find it just the same; Reverently I breathe her name; The blessed name of Mother."

We extend an invitation to all our members and friends to meet with us and help make this a memorial day. No evening service. Baccalaureate message at the school auditorium at 8 p. m. GLEN P. WHITE, Pastor.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

JOEL R. BENTON, Minister. Mrs. W. R. Poulson, Director of Music. Bible School, 9:45 a. m. Morning Worship, 11 o'clock. Christian Endeavor, 7 o'clock. Evening Worship, 8 o'clock.

"Mother" Kipling wrote, in "The Light That Failed," "If I were hanged on the highest hill, Mother O' Mine, Mother O' Mine, I know whose love would follow me still. Mother O' Mine, Mother O' Mine, If I were drowned in the deepest sea, Mother O' Mine, Mother O' Mine, I know whose tears would come down to me, Mother O' Mine, Mother O' Mine. If I were damned of body and soul, Mother O' Mine, Mother O' Mine, I know whose prayers would make me whole, Mother O' Mine, Mother O' Mine. We all had, (or else fortunately we still have) Mothers. Let us honor our Mothers this coming Sunday in our attendance at God's House. If you have not a church home we invite you to come and worship with us. "Mother" is the topic for the morning hour of worship. No evening service on account of the union service in the high school auditorium. "As one whom his Mother comforteth, so will I comfort you." Isaiah 66-13.

Check for Telephone Co.'s Taxes Received by County

A check for $2,269.44, representing the taxes of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in Morrow county, was turned over to the sheriff's office Tuesday by D. J. Butcher, The Dalles manager for the company.

The total tax bill of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company throughout the state amounts to more than $410,000 for the first half of 1930, or more than $820,000 for the entire year of 1930, according to Mr. Butcher. This includes only personal and property taxes, and does not include income and other taxes.

SALADS.

"In the Spring the young man's thoughts turn to nutrients which fancy—Ah, but the housewife's her family needs. Salads no longer are merely a spring and summer dish for fresh vegetables and fruits obtainable all the year 'round we are using salads more frequently. But the Spring, when we have so many more fresh vegetables than before is the time to treat ourselves to all the cellulose, vitamins and minerals which are needed by the body and which we crave unconsciously. The French have an excellent habit of at least one salad a day and although the Americans as a whole have not accepted this custom, salads are becoming more appreciated in our homes. The salad should be just as staple an article of diet as meat or pie for it gives the diversification that the American diet needs. In making salads uncooked fruits and vegetables are preferable, since they have more of the protective vitamins which cooking destroys to a great extent. The salad offers one of the chief decorative notes of the meal since its fruit and vegetable ingredients bring to the table the most colorful foods served. The salad should have special care to see that it makes the table attractive and to stimulate the appetite. Ingredients should be blended for color harmony and contrast as well as flavor. The decorative salad may develop a special idea such as cucumber boats, orange baskets, etc. The success of a salad depends upon the dressing used. The purpose of the dressing is to heighten and bring out the taste of neutral foods. The dressing also helps to bring out the decorative effect which may be done by adding grated cheese to it, ground nuts, red or green jelly or serving it in little lettuce cups at the side of the salad. Garnishes should be simple and edible. Some very good ones are: pickle fans, radish roses, pimientos, olives, cherries, celery curls (then celery strips which have stood in cold water to which lemon juice has been added.) The following are suggestions for making salads: 1. Salad greens, lettuce, endive, escarole, etc., should be crisp and dry, being revived if wilted by standing in cold water to which a spoonful of lemon juice has been added. 2. If vegetables and fruits are cut in uniform shapes, a salad is more attractive. 3. Before assembling the salad all materials should be strained since the juice will make the dressing watery. 4. Salads should be combined just before serving. Ingredients may be prepared and kept separate and cold. 5. Lemon or pineapple juice will prevent apples, pears, bananas, etc., from turning dark. 6. Meat, fish salads are improved in flavor by marinating. To marinate, allow the cut materials to stand in French dressing which is drained off before the salad is made. 7. Salads make their appeal thru quality, not quantity. A small, attractive salad is preferred to a large messy one. Custom no longer demands that we leave the lettuce used as a garnish. In fact it is sometimes considered an insult to leave it untouched on the plate. Eat the salad green and don't waste the rare vitamin C. As to salad recipes, one need only look over the food in the refrigerator. Any left-over fruit, vegetables, meat, poultry, or fish may be used. Salads allow much room for the imagination. All sorts of pleasing and unusual combinations may be made.

CHILDREN FEATURE HEALTH DAY SHOW

(Continued from First Page.) Points scored by schools were: Heppner, 22; Ione, 19; Lexington, 10; Dist. No. 10, 4; Dist. No. 59, 1; Dist. No. 11, 3; Dist. No. 5, 5; Dist. No. 18, 2. Neil Shurman, athletic instructor of the Heppner schools in charge of local arrangements, extends thanks to all officials for their assistance. The loving cup will be on display shortly at Gordon's in Heppner. Climaxing the day for child health was the weenie roast staged in the evening by Heppner post American Legion as a benefit for the proposed city park and playground for children. The Heppner school band had a part in this activity also, playing several numbers.

TO STAGE FIDDLER CONTEST

An old-time fiddlers' contest for the purpose of selecting their entry for the county-wide contest to be held later by the Lions club in Heppner, will be held at the next social meeting of the Rhea Creek grange on Saturday night, May 16. Anyone caring to enter is invited to participate in the contest. Good 3-bottom, 16-in. John Deere plow for sale—hardened shafts. Frank Shively, Heppner, 52ft.

ROAD WORK MOVING. Grading on the McKinney section of the Heppner-Hardman market road is proceeding rapidly with the county road crew under direction of Henry Taylor. Beginning at the mouth of Porcupine canyon the grade is well completed as far as the home of Clark Stevens, where it intersects the grade leading down from Hardman. This is all new work, as the survey was changed to follow along the hill west of the creek south for about two miles. The entire section will be some 4 miles, and we understand the county court will try to complete the grading for the entire distance this season. This road has been a special care of Commissioner Bleakman for many years, and he is feeling pretty good over the progress that is being made.
