Winners of..

$5000 for the best letters on

"How advertising has increased my happiness"

This contest, sponsored by Foster and Kleiser Company, outdoor advertising, and a group of leading Pacific Coast newspapers, was announced in January. Entries were received until February 28, inclusive. Since that time, the judges and their staff have carefully read and studied the 10,352 letters received. It is a pleasure now to make public announcement of the awards, and public acknowledgment of our thanks to every person who entered the contest. The sponsors of this contest believe that the purpose of the contest has been achieved. The 10,352 letters are a valuable contribution to the development of better advertising... advertising which serves equally well the consumer, the producer and the distributor of meritorious goods or services.

When Sleep Descends

WHEN sleep forever descends, someone must take charge. It is a time when one who knows, and sees, and does, is of greater usefulness. But there must be other attributes than efficiency, and experience — there must be kindness, delicacy, and a true wish to serve when sleep descends.
