guests. Besides the members of the club there were also present Mrs. Werner Rietmann, Mrs. Sam Hatch, Mrs. Alfred Nelson and Mrs. George Peck.

Mrs. Louis Balsiger returned home Saturday from Newberg. She was met in Hood River by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kathan.

Alfred Balsiger, who is a student in Adcox Aviation and Automotive school at Portland, arrived in Ione Tuesday and will spend the vacation here.

Miss Hazel Orrell Feldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Feldman, and Mr. Emil R. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Russell of Key West, Florida, were married Monday morning, June 8, at the pleasant ranch home of the bride's parents. Rev. W. W. Head, pastor of the Congregational church at Ione, read the marriage service at 10 o'clock, and immediately following the wedding breakfast was served. The bride wore her traveling suit of black and white silk. Her flowers were sweet peas, pansies and baby breath. She was attended by her sister, Miss Kathryn Feldman, who also wore a suit of black and white. The bridegroom's attendant was Mr. Neil Shulman of Heppner. Shortly after the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Russell departed by auto for Corvallis. Here they visited for a day and then proceeded on their journey over the Roosevelt highway to Los Angeles where they will make their home. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

Mrs. Russell is a graduate of the high school at San Jose, Cal. She attended Behnke-Walker Business college, Portland, for one term, and is a graduate of the school of pharmacy at Oregon State college, Corvallis. She is a member of Kappa Delta sorority, and an active worker in Tenebris and O. E. S. While at O. S. C. she was elected to Rho Chi, honorary in pharmacy and to Phi Kappa Phi, most desired honor society in the college. For the past eleven months she has held a position in a pharmacy in Sheridan, Montana.

Mr. Russell is a graduate of the University of Florida, and also holds a higher degree from Oregon State college. It was while both were in school at Corvallis that the young people became acquainted. Mr. Russell has employment in the county chemistry department at Los Angeles.

Guests present to witness the marriage vows were Mr. and Mrs. John Wilt, Mrs. Ray Blake and Marjory Blake, all of Grass Valley, Miss Anna Wightman and Mr. Marvin Wightman of Heppner, Mrs. Della Corson, Miss Florence Shippy, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Miss Linea Troedson, Mr. Allen Gordon and Mr. William Hayes of Ione.

Gladys Brashers, member of this year's graduating class, left Sunday for La Grande to enter the normal training school.

Mrs. Ruth B. Mason of Locust chapter No. 119, O. E. S., is attending grand chapter at Portland this week. She made the trip in company with Mrs. Sara McNamer of Heppner chapter.

ALPINE.

MARGARET McDALD.

A large crowd attended the Farm Bureau meeting last Saturday night. This was the last meeting to be held until October when the meetings will be resumed at regular monthly intervals. The business meeting was followed by an interesting program, after which refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served in the basement.

Visitors from Pilot Rock who spent the week end visiting relatives in this community were William, Raymond, Joe and Frank McLaughlin. They were accompanied by their sister, Miss Mary McLaughlin and by Mrs. Dan Hiri of Pendleton. They returned to Pilot Rock Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kilkenny and family and Miss Rosanna Farley were among people from Heppner who attend the dance at the Doherty ty ranch Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert French and Mrs. Vere Hale motored to Alpine from their home above Lena Saturday evening.

Miss Doris Klinger visited at the home of Margaret McDald Thursday afternoon.

A grass fire started in this community Saturday morning and burned over a large area before it was finally extinguished Saturday evening. The grass is so dry at present that a fire once started is nearly impossible to control.

Dan Lindsay and son Bruce motored to Hermiston Saturday where they transacted business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt were visitors in the community last week from their home in California. Mr. Schmidt is a son of Mrs. Anna Schmidt of Alpine.

Neil Melville was transacting business in Pendleton Saturday. Frank Helms, who has been suffering from complication due to a broken leg, was brought home from Portland on Wednesday. Mr. Helms is improving but his leg will be in a cast for some time yet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haddox visited at the home of Mrs. Haddox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bennett Saturday. They also attended Farm Bureau Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jarmon, Oscar Jarmon and Lillah Bartholomew drove to Portland Saturday evening after Farm Bureau, where Miss Bartholomew will remain for awhile.

Willard Hawley and Bert Michel motored to Lexington and Heppner on business Saturday.

Miss Shirley Jarmon returned from her school near Portland Wednesday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jarmon of Pine City.

Mrs. Edward McDald and Nora and Margaret McDald, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Kilkenny and daughter Camilla drove to Pendleton, by way of Hermiston and Stanfield, Monday, returning Monday evening.

Miss Mae Doherty of Juniper spent several days at the McDald home last week.

After the Farm Bureau meeting adjourned Saturday evening the young folks gathered at the B. P. Doherty ranch in Sand Hollow and enjoyed themselves in dancing for the remainder of the evening.

Miss Mary McDald of Pendleton is a visitor in Alpine this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and children returned home early this morning from Oakland, Calif., where they have been spending a couple of weeks vacation with relatives. They were accompanied by Miss Rna Wilson who will spend the summer here with her father, Alex Wilson and other relatives.

"THE PRICE OF LIFE"

"If by the Spirit ye put to death the deeds of the body, ye shall live."—Romans 8:13.

This text is both a grave digger and a herald of life. It says that if a man would live he must die. Dying is needed that living may abide. The dirge precedes the declaration of life.

In preparation for it each man must prepare his own shroud, purchase his own coffin, and furnish himself for burial.

There is no pomp or circumstance to distract the mind and make agreeable the doom. The friends may weep, if weep they will, without the gate. The chamber of this sacrifice knows no companionship. Each one "dies to himself."

It is the tragedy of sin, the sublime tragedy, that each one dies alone. And all who would truly live must pass through this chamber of death. But it is the Spirit of God that chants the requiem; calls to life; and that flashes the light of a new world into the risen soul. No man ever enters the kingdom of God who is unwilling to pay the price. And no man ever consents to the call of Christ, and takes up His cross for the Calvary road, who can thereafter be barred from the friendship and knowledge of the Son of God. Now no question as to and definition of what the Kingdom of God is, enters here! We are here concerned with attaining spiritual life! What must we do to gain it?

For this we turn to God's Word and there read if we shall, "repent ye, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." We need go no further. We have that (if we have obeyed and taken the simple steps necessary to salvation), which will work in us to the utter cleansing of our natures and will work in us to the putting to death of ungodly deeds of the body; and to the living of real Christian lives.

O, yes, it takes real red-blooded, courageous manhood and womanhood to pay the price of life; and if you answer to that measure of manhood and womanhood, we invite you to come and make one with us. If you have not now a church home come, we invite you most cordially. Begin the Lord's Day in our Bible school at 9:45 in the morning; then stay for the morning worship; meet with the young folk in the Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock in the evening. We invite you! The sermon topics for the coming Lord's Day are: morning, "The Burning Bush;" evening, "The Jericho Road."

"Know ye that the Lord He is God; it is He that hath made us and not we ourselves; we are His people and the sheep of His pasture."—Psalm 100:3.

CLUB DOINGS BROADCAST.

Parents and friends of the 4-H club members attending the annual summer session at Oregon State college, June 8 to 20, as well as thousands of clubbers who are not attending, are being kept in closer touch this year than ever before with the activities of the session through KOAC, according to W. L. Kadderly, program director. In addition to broadcasting the daily assembly lectures from 1:30 to 2:30 each afternoon, one regular hour of classwork is being held before the microphone each morning at 11 o'clock, and in the evenings club delegations from various counties go on the air from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. Morrow county's delegation will participate in the program the evening of June 16. On June 20 will be given reports of arrivals of delegations home.
