During her absence Miss Jeanne Huston was looking after the home work at the Robinson home. A jolly crowd of young folks spent Saturday at the Blue Mountain Home, a favorite place with picnickers. They started early and ate both breakfast and dinner out of doors. On their return they attended the show at Heppner. The pleasure party was made up of Earl Clifford, Jim and Lonnie McCabe, Kenneth Akers, Lake Beckner, Minnie Normoyle, Jessie McCabe, Jennie Patterson, Jeanne Huston, Ruth Keene and Lois Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest French were guests of the young folks at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely, Edith and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mr. Larsen was section foreman on the O-W-R. & N. and had been located here for about two years. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nicholson were Pendleton visitors Sunday. They were caught in the strange dust storm which came to this section of the country that day. The fall of dust was not so heavy in Ione as elsewhere. Many remarked upon the uncanny greenish hue of the sunlight that filtered through the canopy of dust. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn and P. J. Linn motored to Zillah, Wash., Tuesday, where Mrs. Linn will remain for a visit with her sister, going from there to her home in Vernonia. The fire endangered both the Stange buildings and McNabb warehouse. Volunteer fire fighters went from town to help in the work of putting out the blaze. The Harlan McCurdy family left last Friday for their sheep camp at Granite where they will spend the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowers of Kelso, Wash., spent a few hours in Ione last Friday. The council promised its support in this good work, and appointed a committee composed of M. E. Cotter, Lee Howell and John Bryson to work with the members of the Topic club to the end that our little park be made into a pleasant playground for both young and old. Goldie Jane Nelson, wife of Clarence Nelson, died at a hospital in The Dalles, Wednesday morning, July 8, following a lingering illness. Mrs. Nelson was 32 years of age. Mrs. Tom Griffith and two children from Arlington are here for a short visit with Mr. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn, and other relatives. Word was received here Tuesday that Mr. and Mrs. John Blake had met with an automobile accident while driving near Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Blake and a gentleman friend who was riding with them, are all in the hospital at Bend. Mr. Blake seems to have been more severely injured than the others. He has a fractured hip. The three had been on a business trip to Weiser, Idaho, and were on the way home to Klamath Falls when their car locked fenders with a passing car. Mr. and Mrs. Blake are the parents of Earl Blake and formerly lived in Ione. House guests at the Paul Balsiger home are Allan Learned of Darrington, Wash., Miss Isabelle Learned, Mrs. Wilson and Birdeen Wilson of

Hadlock, Wash. When the party returns to Washington, Mrs. Allan Learned, who has been visiting her parents for some time, will return with them. CHURCH OF CHRIST. JOEL R. BENTON, Minister. MRS. WM. R. POULSON, Director of Music. Bible school, 9-45 a. m. Morning worship, 11 o'clock. Christian Endeavor, 7 o'clock. Evening worship, 8 o'clock. Church night, Thursday evening, begins at 6:30 p. m. "Power and Authority." It was said of Benjamin Disraeli that, in spite of his remarkable career as a statesman, he lacked two qualities necessary to the highest leadership. He was never quite in earnest, and he did not impress one as having a dominating conviction. Charles Kingsley said, "I am more and more convinced and powerfully awake to the fact that the curse of our generation is that so few of us deeply believe anything." A dominating, enthusiastic conviction is always necessary to real leadership in any realm of life; for a true leader must have authority, and conviction is necessary to authority. His hearers said of Christ that

He "spoke as one having authority." But the original of this word indicates an inward source. The power of the Spirit was in Him and therefore He "spoke as never man spoke." And it will be the power of the Spirit in any human life, and that alone, which will cause that life to stand out as an exemplar of real Christianity. We shall speak for Christ with authority when His spirit fills our lives. If you are without a church home at present, we invite you to come and worship with us. For the coming Lord's Day the sermon topics are: morning, "Taking God's Name in Vain;" evening, "Losing and Finding Christ." "The people that do know their God shall be strong and do exploits."—Daniel 11:32. METHODIST CHURCH. GLEN P. WHITE, Pastor. 9:45 a. m., Sunday school. 11 a. m., morning worship hour; message, "Power of Faith." 7 p. m., Epworth League. 8 p. m., song service and gospel message, "Be Not Discouraged." "No chastening for the present seemeth joyous, but grievous, nevertheless afterwards it yieldeth the peaceable fruits of righteousness to them that are exercised thereby."—Heb. 12:11. You are welcome to all our services. EPISCOPAL CHURCH. REV. B. STANLEY MOORE, Missionary-in-Charge. Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. Church school at 9:45. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. "Lo, thou request truth in the inward parts, and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly."—Ps. 51:6. Ambitious Writer—What magazine will give me the highest position quickest? Gemmell went to Portland Saturday night and is now in the Veterans' hospital receiving treatment for sciatic nerve trouble. He expects to be away several days.

"Mama," said little Dorothy, "sister don't tell the truth." "Why, Dorothy, you mustn't say such things," reproved the mother. "Well, last night I heard her say, 'Charlie if you do that again I'll call mama.' And he did it twice more and she didn't call." NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
