

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Benton and son Dick departed on Tuesday afternoon for Portland, expecting to return home Friday or Saturday. The object of the journey to Portland was to take Jack Dosser, who has been a patient for some time at Morrow General hospital, to the Coffey clinic for a thorough diagnosis of his ailment. Mr. Dosser will then enter a hospital in the city for treatment, if this should be found necessary.

Miss Jeanette Koehnke, who taught music in the Heppner schools in 1910 and who now holds a professorship at Columbia university, New York, is at present traveling in Europe, according to word received by Mrs. F. W. Turner, old-time friend. The letter received was dated at Budapest. Miss Koehnke has travelled in Europe for the last several years during her summer vacations, Mrs. Turner says.

Attention, Juvelline Degree of Honor: Regular meetings for the winter months will be resumed, and on August 25 at 4 o'clock both Senior and Junior clubs will meet at I. O. O. F. hall, a banquet will follow in the dining room. It is important that all members be present as final arrangements will be made for our float in the Rodeo parade. Nora Moore, Junior Director.

Among out-of-town folks interested in the tax league meeting Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Huston, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Clark, Eight Mile; Bert Johnson, Henry Peterson, Laxton McMurray, Alcott Lundell, Ione; W. F. Barnett, R. B. Wilcox, R. B. Rice, Lexington; Jack Hynd, Cecil; John Broxnan, Lena.

Roger W. Morse, former Morrow county agricultural agent now extension dairy specialist with Oregon State college, arrived in the city Monday night and on Tuesday went out on a field trip with C. W. Smith, county agent. He reported Mrs. Morse and the children in good health, and all the family enjoying their location at Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Benton and son Dick enjoyed a day's outing Friday at Battle Mountain park near Ukiah, enjoying the occasion mightily except for the superabundance of yellowjackets which displayed an especial liking for the fried chicken.

Mrs. Mary M. Pedro and family and Mrs. Mabel Cunha and daughter, Mary, returned home on last Thursday night from Hilgard, where they had been in the mountains visiting Mrs. Cunha's son Ernest Dumond, who is tending camp for her.

Miss Elizabeth Harrington of Missyside, Wash., and Miss Isabel Dutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Dutton of Portland, are guests of Miss Anna Wightman at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wightman, at Alfalfa Lawn Dairy farm.

A grass fire on the hill above the David Wilson home was the occasion for an alarm Friday evening, resulting in a lively turnout of the citizenry. The fire was well under control by the time the fire truck arrived, and resulted in little damage.

Ed Gonty and son Thomas are enjoying a vacation at the coast. The eldest son, Edmund, returned from his vacation the end of the week and is in charge of the shoe store during his father's absence.

Mrs. Lillie Aiken is at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, reported to be recovering nicely from an eye operation which she underwent last week. Mrs. Henry Aiken is with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Piercey and family drove up from The Dalles Monday afternoon and visited friends here until Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Poulson arrived in the city Sunday evening after their summer vacation, to prepare for the school year. Mr. Poulson, who will again be at the head of the local schools, attended summer school at the University of California, Berkeley, while Mrs. Poulson studied music in Eugene. They will be domiciled for the winter in the new Jones apartments.

That the oil producing business is on the "fritz" in California, is the word of Seymour Wilson while in the county this week from his home at Huntington Beach, looking after property interests. Mr. Wilson has oil interests in the vicinity of Huntington Beach, as well as Morrow county wheat land in the Ione vicinity.

Dr. N. E. Winnard and Miss Charlotte Winnard, former Heppnerites, now of Eugene, are enjoying a respite in Alaska following the recent passing of Mrs. Winnard, according to word received by Mrs. F. W. Turner.

Carl Hainie and E. E. Fields of Fairfield, Idaho, passed through the city Monday looking for sheep. Mr. Hainie, formerly assistant cashier of the First National bank here, is now president of the Fairfield bank.

Chas. Benefiel, prominent Irrigon citizen, who was in town Saturday, informed the Gazette Times that he desired sheep, not mules, and instructed to have his ad changed accordingly.

Miss Mary Cunha and cousin, Miss Mary Ann Pedro, motored to Pendleton and Hermiston the first of the week. They said the Round-Up town looked quite busy just now.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edmondson and children from Redmond visited last week end at the home of Mr. Edmondson's mother, Mrs. Mattie Huston.

Miss Mary Lansdale, who taught school at District 48 last year, will teach at Hermiston this term. She will teach the first, second and third grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Little Butter creke residents, were transacting business in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore and children returned yesterday from their vacation spent at Seattle.

Mrs. Mary Rood was up from Portland the end of the week, looking after property interests.
