

IONE.

JENNIE E. McMURRAY.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Tucker returned last week to Ione and Principal Tucker is hard at work getting things in readiness for the opening of school September 7. Mr. Tucker spent a part of his vacation in study at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Tucker visited her people at Lander, Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keller spent Thursday and Friday of last week at Weston, where their son Frank is employed this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Helms of Hermiston were guests for a couple of days last week at the home of Mrs. Helms' sister, Mrs. Lloyd King.

Harbick and Estes of the Wells Springs Gas and Oil company motored up from Portland Monday. It is reported that drilling operations at the well will be resumed shortly.

A. B. Montgomery and daughter, Faye, of Portland, were registered at the Park hotel Monday night. They were on their way to Pendleton to attend the Round-Up.

Hank Adams and John Botts departed by auto Tuesday with Portland as their destination. Next month the two gentlemen expect to go to Yakima where they have promise of work in the hop harvest.

Mrs. Walter Cochran of Arlington and Mrs. Oscar Cochran of Ione motored to Wallawa the first of the week. They will bring Mrs. Walter Cochran's young son, Jimmy, home in time for the opening of the Arlington school. The young man has been spending the summer with his maternal grandmother at Wallawa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sperry returned last Friday from a business and pleasure trip to Portland. On the return trip they were accompanied by their two small daughters who had been spending the summer in the city with Mrs. Sperry's aunt, Miss Niblin.

Mayor John Louy returned Saturday from a trip to Arlington and The Dalles. He had gone down to visit his brother who has been ill for some time, but is now somewhat improved.

Gene Engelman of Portland is spending a week very pleasantly with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Holman and two children, Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran and Bobby Cochran, all of Yakima, motored to Ione Sunday. Mr. Holman returned home the same day, but the rest of the party remained here for a week's visit with relatives and friends. All are former residents of Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmateer were Yakima visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk motored to Zillah, Wash., Sunday, returning the same day. Going with them was Walter Linn who remained at Zillah with Mrs. Linn, she having been visiting there for some time at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Higdon. Also going with the Howks was Clarence Linn who stopped off at Sunnyside, expecting to go later to Yakima.

Mrs. Ernest Shipley returned home Sunday night. She had been to Ashland to visit her grandmother who is ill. Mrs. Shipley, in company with her mother, Mrs. Earl Allen, and sister, Mrs. Lesley Reppinger, made the return drive from Ashland in one day. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Reppinger left Monday for their homes at Lostine and Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Conner and Charles, Jr., went to Arbuckle mountain Sunday to bring out a load of wood. While up there they had the opportunity to witness a forest fire, burning over a mile front, at a distance of about eight miles from the ranger station. On the way home our party saw an abandoned automobile burning by the side of the road.

George Ritchie of Portland arrived in town Monday to view the ashes of his home, burned last week. He was accompanied by Walt Smith who wrote the insurance on the house, and by his daughter, Ellen, who will visit for a few weeks with Miss Edris Ritchie in Heppner.

A band of the French sheep passed through town Sunday morning on the way to the stubble pasture on the Smith & Sons ranches. The herders report the pasture poor and the streams and springs drying up in the lower mountains.

Bill Ahalt and his father, W. E. Ahalt, departed the latter part of last week for King Hill, Idaho, where they will visit at the homes of Byron and Harold Ahalt. Bill Ahalt expects to do trucking near Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Wilson and Mrs. Nellie Walters left Monday for Portland. After a short stay in the city at the Walters home the three will motor to Huntington Beach, Calif., the home of the Wilson family. While here Mr. Wilson rented his ranch on Willow creek to Fred Pettyjohn. This farm was rented last year by Fred Griffin.

Bergevins and Wards returned last Friday from their trip to the huckleberry patches of the Mt. Adams district. They returned with a good supply of berries which they shared generously with their friends. Mr. Bergevin says that in the thirty-one days preceding their registration, 7,600 persons had registered and that during that time 44,000 gallons of huckleberries had been taken out.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole Smith returned the latter part of last week from Bond, Ore., and Tacoma, Wash., where they had been called by the death and burial of Mr. Smith's father, W. H. A. Smith.

Denward and Betty Bergevin have been visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bergevin, of Gibbon.

Bob Thompson suffered a severe loss last Friday night when fire destroyed sixty tons of hay on his Rhea creek ranch, known as the old Lum Rhea place.

Mrs. Earl Blake, chairman of the Ione school board, informs us that the report that has been circulated that Ione would have less than nine months of school this year, is entirely erroneous. The schools here will open September 7, with a full corps of teachers, and with nine months of hard work ahead of them.

Bill Sparks departed last week for California where he has employment. He drove the car for a party of friends from Lexington.

Wallace Matthews and Ray Sparks left Wednesday on a business trip to Wenatchee.

W. F. Honey and John K. Honey of Portland are business visitors in Ione this week.

Little Miss Josephine Case of Portland is a guest at the home of her grandmother Mrs. J. E. Grimes.

W. H. Chandler, rancher of lower Willow creek, is in the hospital at The Dalles. He was suffering with a painful carbuncle on his neck. An operation was necessary and following the operation skin grafting had to be done.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ries and five children of Toppenish, Wash., arrived Sunday. They will visit here at the homes of Mrs. Ella Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beezeley, and at the home of Mr. Ries' brother, William Ries at Olex.

Mrs. Lillie Beezeley of Paonia, Colorado, came to Ione on the early Sunday morning train. She is the mother of Ray Beezeley and will visit here for some time. The lady has been spending several months on the Pacific coast, visiting her children.

Mrs. Charley Botts and five children returned Monday from a trip to Yakima. While away they enjoyed a family dinner at the James Botts home at which twenty-five members of the family were present. All of the grandchildren, numbering thirteen, were present.

Mrs. Dorothy Sparks, Mrs. Mary Rood and Mrs. Charles Calkins, all of Portland, visited recently at the Henry Clark home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Corley and children are taking a week's vacation before the opening of school. They are spending the time in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole Smith motored to Walla Walla Sunday and while there were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Appling.

Going to Walla Walla Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Smith was Wayland Ritchie who has work for the winter on the Appling dairy ranch.

Mrs. Wrex Hicock of Portland arrived in Ione Wednesday and will make an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore. Mr. Hicock who has not been in the best of health for some time, is in a hospital at The Dalles for rest and treatment. He is rapidly regaining his strength.

Curtis Canning left Wednesday for his home at Olympia, Wash. He has been working during the summer at the Clarence Nelson ranch. Mrs. Guy Cason and two children who have been spending a couple of weeks on the ranch with Mrs. Cason's mother, Mrs. Lana Padberg, departed Sunday for their home at Arlington. Mr. Cason drove up to take his family home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElligott were visitors in Portland the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Baerndorf of Morgan were hosts at a dinner party Sunday complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Wilson of Huntington Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Nellie Walters of Portland. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Hal O. Ely, George Ely, Francis Ely, Mrs. Willard Farrens, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely.

Miss Edith Ely will teach again this year in the Rhea creek school. Her school work will begin Sept. 7.

CHURCHES

ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Rev. Stanley Moore, Missionary-in-charge.
Church School at 9:45.
Morning prayer and sermon at 11:00.

Young People's Fellowship at the Rectory at 6:00 p. m.

A brief questionnaire was sent some time ago to many thousands of people in one of our large cities. It asked:

1. Do you attend Church?
2. Do you advocate abolishing the Church?

Three thousand people answered "No" to the first question, but when it came to the second, not a single person advocated the abolition of the church, not even one of the three thousand non-churchgoers.

The reason is not far to seek: Men may become so careless about the Church that they never think of entering her doors, but they never become so indifferent that they can deny the vital necessity for the Church. They know that if any community abolished all religious instruction, all preaching of the Gospel and of Christian principles, the moral sense of the community would be dulled and finally lost.

Lack of the religious sense, the urge toward God and goodness and noble living, is doubtless the cause of domestic troubles today. In its loss can be traced the roots of our economic sufferings today. I believe. Religion, true religion, gives poise, straightforwardness, assurance, faith, purpose, objective vision to the lives of those who seek it and possess it. I believe with the ancient prophet:

"Where there is no vision, the people perish."

METHODIST CHURCH.

GLEN P. WHITE, Pastor.
9:45 a. m., Sunday School.
11:00 a. m., Morning worship.
hour. Message, "Above the Crowd."
7 p. m., Epworth League.

8 p. m., Song service and gospel message, "Getting Better Acquainted with God."

Are we acquainted with God? We might well ask ourselves this question. Do we know Him in intimate relationship? The Psalmist said: "As the hart panteth after the water brooks so panteth my soul after Thee, O God." This is the true cry of the human heart and that inborn thirst can be satisfied. We may know God better from day to day. Just how, we will discuss Sunday evening. Your presence at the service will show your personal interest in this vital subject. We are always glad to see you at our services and will endeavor to be a spiritual help to you.

That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. I Col. 1-10.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

JOEL R. BENTON, Minister.
Mrs. Wm. Poulson, Director of Music.
Bible school, 9:45 a. m.
Morning worship, 11 o'clock.
Christian Endeavor, 7 o'clock.
Junior Endeavor, 8 o'clock.
Evening worship, 8 o'clock.
Church night, begins Thursday evening, 7 o'clock.

A Satisfying Religion.

"He satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness." Psalm 107-9.

Thru his own personal experience and thru his close contact with the great masses, General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, knew the kind of religion it takes to satisfy the human heart.

He defined it as consisting of four things: First, a sense of the conscious favor of God. You feel that He loves you; that He holds you in His arms; (His Word tells us that). Second, the consciousness that He has made you to be good thru His indwelling Spirit. If the world poured into your lap all its wealth and honors, you would be a miserable creature unless you could feel and know that you were good and honest and pure and true. Third, the consciousness that you are doing your duty to the Lord and to those about you. Fourth, the assurance that all is going to be well. There may be difficulties in the way now, but if we have the assurance in our hearts that all will be well in the end, it will bring satisfaction.

These are things we all long for. At least in our more sober and quiet moments. We want to be in favor with God. We want to feel that we are what we ought to be, and that we are doing what we ought to do. In the midst of all the trials and troubles of this present life we want to feel and know that there is a brighter and happier life beyond. These things represent the deepest longings of our souls. The only satisfying religion is the religion that will answer these longings.

There is such a religion, and that religion is the religion of the Bible, of Jesus Christ. The religion revealed to us in the Word does indeed satisfy all the longings of the soul. It answers every want and aspiration of the human heart, and it tells us of a God who "satisfieth the longing heart." It tells us how to make the most of the life we now live, and how to make sure of the life to come. And this satisfying religion we can all have without money and without price, on the simple condition that we confess Christ and submit ourselves and our ways to Him as our Lord and Master. "Whoever shall confess Me before men, him will I confess before My Father who is in Heaven." Matt 10:32.

If you have not a Church home we invite you to come and be at home and worship with us. You will find in this House of God a deeply reverent attitude of worship; every detail in harmony with the Scriptural plan; in our Bible School you will find a class for yourself where you will have an interesting hour in the study of the Word. Our director of music has returned from her vacation and the work of the choir will once more be taken up. Those who are interested in the ministry of song are requested to get in touch at once with Mrs. Wm. R. Poulson. For the coming Lord's Day the sermon topics are: Morning, "Can One Be a Christian Outside the Church?" For the evening, "How to Become a Christian."

Once Despised Tomatoes Now Favorite Delicacies

Have you had your tomatoes today?

Once despised and considered poisonous, this versatile vegetable, or fruit if you prefer, is now not only accepted but highly prized by the smart hostess and wise housewife.

Because of their richness in vitamins and minerals, particularly Vitamin C, tomatoes are recommended for the entire family, including the babe of two months who gets his daily ration of strained juice, says Cousin Jane of the home economics division of the Oregon State college extension service, who talks to Oregon homemakers every day over KOAC. There is no end of ways in which they may be served, and no meal of the day to which they are not a valuable addition.

Tomato juice, strained and seasoned with salt and pepper is rapidly becoming a popular substitute for orange juice in the breakfast menu. For luncheon or dinner a delicious cocktail is made as follows:

Tomato cocktail: Boil one quart of cooked tomatoes, two stalks of celery, chopped, 1-2 of a green pepper and 1-2 teaspoons salt for about 5 minutes, and rub through a sieve fine enough to keep back the seeds. To the tomato juice and pulp add 2 tablespoons tomato catsup, 1 teaspoon onion pulp and 1 teaspoon horseradish. Stir well and chill. Best before serving. Pour into small glasses.

For a main luncheon dish the following recipe is a favorite:

POSTAGE RATES RAISED.

Postage rates on first class mail to Canada, Great Britain and Ireland have been increased, effective September first, announces W. W. Smead, postmaster. Rates on letters to Canada have been increased from 2 cents to 3 cents, and postals 1 cent to 2 cents. Letters to Great Britain and Ireland will take 5 cents which formerly took 3 cents, and postal cards will require 3 cents postage.
