LA GRANDE DISTRICT NEWS

SUSPENDING publication of the La Grande District News by its publisher, George Huntington Curry, is noted regretfully. Mr. Curry published a clean, live weekly pa-per which was appreciated in La Grande, but let it drop as a busi-ness failure. He said:

"In many ways I sincerely regret discontinuing publication, yet I also feel a great relief in the prospect of escaping from the continuous grind of attempting the impossible. man who insists on sharing the bus-While I have believed there was a need for a county-wide weekly paper, I have been unable to discover per, I have been unable to discover valuable addition to any town. Many Jewish settlements had been made in Asia Minor owing to system of colonization developed by Antiochus Epiphanes. A syna-gogue was easily found in Antioch of Pisidia. There were no less than 10 Antiochs founded by Selucus Nikator and named after his father Antiochus. We need distinguish only between those in Pisidia and Syria. Marked attention was given in the address of Paul on that first sabbath. Many begged that the visitors tarry with them and repeat the teachings about Jesus Christ being the Messiah on the following sabbath. This was done and the entire chapter 13 should be read entire chapter 13 should be read with care for all the details.

Meanwhile the Jews saw the import of this new teaching and if it prevailed their long established system would need to be modified, for Paul taught that many items had been fulfilled. Jealousy started persecution and Paul made the declaration at Damascus he had been especially set apart as their ambassador on behalf of Jesus Christ. In proportion as the messages were accepted by the Gentiles, persecution was increased by the Jews and Paul and Barnabas had to depart in order to save their lives, but they went forward rejoicing.

How fast the tide of good times will come in nobody can predict. The country has been suffering almost as much from over-prediction as from over-production, and we are not gifted with the power of prophecy. But we have history to back our belief that the United States of America will come out of this depression, as it has come out of every preceding depression stronger and more powerful than ever.

A BANKER'S ADVICE.

(Astoria Astorian-Budget) BANKERS have a reputation for being hard-headed business men, basing their deductions on proven facts. The following, published in the American Bankers' magazine, s sound advice:

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in it's columns. This does not mean that you should have whole page, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned. A stranger, picking up a newspaper, should be able to tell what business is repre-sented in a town by looking at a paper. This is the best possible town advertiser. The man who does not advertise does an injustice to himself and the town. The iness that comes to town, but re fuses to advertise his own, is not a wideawake and liberal advertising business men."
