

BOARDMAN

By RACHEL JOHNSON.

The North Morrow County fair held in Boardman in the gymnasium Friday and Saturday was well attended by local and out of town people. A number of visitors motored over from Heppner, Lexington and Ione on Saturday. The exhibits, although not as numerous as in other years, were beautifully displayed. Many lovely flowers were on exhibit. The art division for the fair was a new feature this year and it had many pretty and original entries. The children of the 4-H clubs of Boardman had their work on display. The tallest corn stalk measured 16 feet and the largest squash weighed about 88 pounds. There was only one entry in the individual farm exhibit booth and was well worthy of first prize. This was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Myers of Boardman. There were 114 products in their booth which were all grown on their farm and with no two alike. The products consisted of various vegetables, fruits, grasses and grains. Judges for the fair were: Miss Jessie Palmer, home economics teacher of the Heppner high school, judge of the sewing and cooking; 4-H club work and domestic science; Mrs. Ed. Hutton of Heppner, judge of flowers, domestic art and art work; A. I. Poulson of the Union Pacific, judge of the agricultural products and poultry; Garnett Best, assistant county agent of Hermiston, judge of the livestock. The home economics club had a booth where they sold cold drinks and hamburger sandwiches. Sports were held Friday afternoon and in the evening a movie was given by the fair board. On Saturday the Irigoin 4-H club entertained the crowd with their music. In the afternoon the girls 4-H club demonstrations were held in the school auditorium after which the livestock demonstrations were given outside. The boys' camp cooking club demonstrated their method of making biscuits and cooking them over a camp fire. The dance Saturday evening was well attended, and enjoyed by all. The music was excellent and was furnished by the Kaufman orchestra of Pendleton. Officers for the fair were: Leo Root of Boardman, president; Mrs. Claud Coute of Boardman, secretary; Mrs. Isom of Irigoin, treasurer. The directors were Frank Fredrickson and Mrs. A. C. Houghton of Irigoin and George Wicklander and Ingard Skoubo of Boardman. Mrs. Lucy Rodgers, county school superintendent, Chas. W.
