

BOARDMAN

By RACHEL JOHNSON.

The hunting season for Chinese pheasants and Hungarian partridges opened last Thursday and will remain open until October 31. The local people and many out-of-town hunters are taking advantage of the hunting season.

Members of the high school, alumni and faculty enjoyed a party Friday evening. The party was given by the losers of a magazine contest which the high school recently had. The first part of the evening was spent in the gymnasium where the girls and boys played basketball games. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing in the auditorium. Lunch was served late in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo were hosts at a lovely party Friday evening in their home, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Nick Falser, Mrs. George Spring and Mr. Stansberry of Portland who are visiting on the project. Six tables of 500 were in play. Mrs. Spring and Nate Macomber won high honors and Mrs. Kunze and Aage Jensen low. Others present were Mrs. Nate Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. Falser, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Randa, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Channing, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Skoubo, Mrs. Dillabough, Mrs. Hendricks, Mike Cassidy, Ralph Wasmer, Mr. Stansberry, and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Agee took a load of honey to Sherman county Tuesday. They returned home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter of Hillsboro visited with Mr. and Mrs. Stevens last week. The Dexters are thinking of locating in Boardman again and were looking over some places here.

Mrs. Harrison from Seaside was an overnight visitor at the W. O. King home last week when on her way to Spokane to visit her daughter. Mrs. Harrison was a pioneer resident of Boardman.

The Home Economics club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dugan in Messner. The usual pot luck dinner was enjoyed. About 30 ladies were present. Mrs. Falser and Mrs. Spring were honor guests.

Mrs. Jay Cox and family were dinner guests at the Gillespie home Thursday evening. Later they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Mrs. Claud Coats, Rachel Johnson and Ray Barlow. The evening was enjoyed in playing bridge.

Visitors last week at the Dugan home were Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Dugan and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dilling of Portland.

Howard Ellis is home from Rock creek where he has been working for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow have purchased the house and lots in town previously owned by Mr. Rayburn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Ayers were dinner guests at the Ves Atteberry home Sunday.

Mrs. H. E. Waite spent several days in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Becholdt and Archie of Hardman spent Sunday at the Royal Randa home. Other visitors there Sunday were Mr. Meyers, Mr. Samuelson, Mr. Johnson and Jimmy Meyers of Hood River.

Preaching services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m., in the Seventh Day Adventist church. Elder Nearness will be in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead and family were dinner guests Sunday evening at the Randa home.

A lovely party honoring Mrs. Robert Berger was enjoyed at the Chas. Dillon home Friday afternoon. About 35 ladies were present. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorten and Miss

Mestzers of Portland spent several days last week hunting pheasants in Boardman. They are friends of the Jenkins family and visited at their home while here.

Joe White of Willow creek is hauling hay from the project for feed this winter.

Mrs. Maggie Farley and family of Willow creek spent Sunday at the Pete Sievin home.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Spring and Mr. Stansberry took Mrs. Ransier to Pendleton to see her brother Roy Marlow, who is very ill.

Out-of-town hunters on the project and who were guests at the W.

O. King home while here were A. N. King, Paul Newton and Mr. Arthurs of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ransier entertained a few friends Thursday evening in their home by playing 500. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Falser, Mrs. Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Ralph Wasmer and Mr. Stansberry.

Carrol Kennedy's sister, Mrs. Fred Morton of Seattle, and his mother, Mrs. Henry Shrader of Spokane visited Wednesday and Thursday at the Kennedy home.

Grange met Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Penny of Stanfield and Mr. and Mrs. Best of Hermiston were visitors. Mr. Best, assistant county agent of Umatilla county, gave an interesting talk on dairying. Mr. Penny, of the Farm Bureau, gave estimates of the cost of lumber for the grange hall.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Nick Falser, Mr. and Mrs. George Spring, Ralph Wasmer and Mr. Stansberry were dinner guests at the Ransier home. After dinner the Ransiers and their guests motored to Irrigon where they attended a party at the Houghten home.

Buster Randa returned home Saturday. He has been working for the past month with a highway rolling crew. He came home with Raymond Hiatt who was taking a state truck to Salem.

Mrs. Dugan severely burned her hands one night last week while pumping a gasoline lantern. Mrs. Dugan had lighted the lantern and was pumping it when the gas spurted out and burned both of her hands. She was taken to a doctor and had the burns dressed. At the present time the burns are healing nicely. The lantern had been filled too full of gasoline and the pumping forced some of the gas out thru the valve and onto her hands.

Jay Cox of Yakima came Sunday for a few days' visit with his wife and family. On Sunday they were dinner guests at the J. F. Barlow home.

Mr. Campbell and Mr. Marshall of Portland spent Sunday at the Porter ranch, hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Haven of Seaside are stopping at the Peck auto park for two weeks during the hunting season. Mr. and Mrs. Haven spent several weeks in Boardman last fall during hunting season.

A grange card party was given at the Channing home Monday evening. Thirteen tables of 500 were in play. Honors were accorded to Mrs. Paul Smith, George Spring, Mrs. Blayden, Mrs. George Wicklander and Howard Packard.

Charlie Andregg and sister, Mrs. Burger, of Portland stopped for a visit at the Paul Smith home last week while on their way to La Grande.

The new Red & White grocery store opened Saturday. Mr. Ford from Hermiston is the manager. The store is in the building where the former Denson grocery was.

"Was Edna's father rough with you when you told him you had secretly married his daughter?"

"I'll say. He nearly shook my arm off."

WHY THESE SHARES ARE BEING SOLD

Low and steadily lowering electric rates to industrial, domestic, agricultural and other customers, along with liberal rules for extending lines to new customers, are stimulating constant demands for enlargements of the company's plant and equipment. New capital must be invested in large amounts each year to provide for this growth, and to extend the advantages of the company's service throughout this wide-spread territory. Sale of these shares will supply new capital necessary for this sound and constructive investment.
