The high school carnival given Friday evening in Legion hall was an enjoyable affair. The decorations deserve special mention, the committee in charge being Margaret Ely, Clara Nelson and Berli Akers. The entertainment committee composed of Minnie Normoye, Paul Smouse, Muriel Patterson and Opal Finn, arranged an especially interesting program, the first number being the "Trio". This was followed by the one-act play, "At the Stroke of Twelve". The third number was "Little Orphan Annie," a musical reading by Harriet Heller. The fourth number was two selections by the male quartet. All musical numbers were under the direction of Lyle N. Riggs and all accompaniments were played by Mrs. Earl Blake. The dance followed the program, music being furnished by the local orchestra. During the dance there were two intermission numbers, a solo by Joel Engelman and tap dancing by Betty Trevill. Miss Margaret Ely was chosen queen of the carnival.

Both students and faculty wish in this way to thank the parents and friends whose generous support and kind cooperation made the carnival such a decided success. Ture Peterson was a week-end visitor in the metropolis, going down Saturday with a mixed load of cattle and sheep.

Victor Peterson was out of town for a few days this week engaged in work connected with the Federal Land bank.

Joining the Ione party were Norman Swanson, student at Willamette university, Garland Swanson of the Eyerly Aviation school at Salem, Francis Troedson of Oregon State college, and George Ritchie, Jr., and Joseph Lowell, former Ione boys who now make their home in Portland.

Hank Adams and John Botts returned last week from Yakima and Naches where they had been at work in the hop and apple harvest. There will be a pie social and program at the Swedish Lutheran church in Gooseberry Saturday evening, November 14. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

The first meeting of the newly organized union Sunday school was held Sunday morning at the Congregational church. Seventy-three were in attendance. The union school will meet next Sunday at the Christian church. You are invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sparks have been visiting for the past week or more with Mr. Sparks' sister, Crystal Sparks, and with Mrs. Sparks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Anderson. Mr. Sparks informs us that he recently sold out his farming interests at Hermiston.

Miss Jean Huston, a senior in the Ione high school, spent the week end on the ranch with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Huston.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blake were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nicholson at their ranch home above town.

W. E. Ahalt and son, Bill Ahalt, returned home Monday after an absence of six weeks spent in Idaho and Montana where Bill was engaged in trucking. Mr. Ahalt Sr. states that he had a most enjoyable time and returns home much improved in health. During their absence they visited Moscow and Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, and Bonners Ferry, Troy, Libby and Thompson's Falls, Montana, traveling in all about 5000 miles. They will make their home in the W. E. Ahalt residence in south Ione.

Mrs. Harvey Ring gave a children's Halloween party at her home Sunday evening. Small folks present were Harry and Bernice Ring, Sibyl and Dorothy Howell, Earline Farris, Alan Howk, Grace Lindken and Eleanor and Billy Eubanks. A bonfire and indoor games were enjoyed and refreshments served.

Apple Pudding. Slice five large apples into a buttered baking dish. Cover with rich biscuit dough, rolled half an inch thick. Make some holes in it for the steam to escape through and steam for half an hour. Serve with hard sauce, made of creamed butter and sugar added to the beaten white of an egg, or with cinnamon sauce, made by sifting half a teaspoonful of cinnamon, three tablespoonfuls of sugar and a tablespoonful and a half of flour and pouring boiling water on it gradually and boiling it until it becomes smooth and thick enough.

Orange Layer Cake. Cream one-half cup butter with one cup sugar until very light, add three eggs one at a time, beating each one in five minutes before adding another. Sift two tablespoonfuls of baking powder with two cups sifted flour, mixing thoroughly, and add to the other materials, alternately with a half cup of milk or water (water if the cake is to be eaten while fresh). Beat batter well after all ingredients are in. Bake in two layers in a moderately hot oven for about twenty minutes.

Mixed Mustard. Add a teaspoon of sugar to two heaping teaspoons of dry mustard and half a teaspoon, level, of salt. Mix with hot vinegar and water to a smooth, thick paste.

Arrange the strips in a deep dish with two lamb's kidneys parboiled and sliced, one dozen oysters, one chopped onion, one bay leaf, one tablespoon minced parsley and a sprig of thyme. Dot with butter and pour over one cup of stock or hot water. Cover with a layer of flaky pastry, gash in several places, brush with the beaten yolk of an egg and bake for two hours in a moderate oven.

Her knowledge of the Scriptures coupled with her rich and deep experience in the things of the Spirit and her ability to preach, endow her with a grace and power to ably present to us the claims of the gospel upon our lives.

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A coated tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.

word Sunday from her daughter Helen, at the University of Oregon, that she is confined to the infirmary with the German measles. She is getting along nicely but losing out on a lot of her school work. Next Sunday morning, Nov. 8, Rev. W. P. Napier will preach again at the Congregational church. He will deliver an Armistice day message. We hope to see a large crowd out for the services. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruhl were given a surprise party last Saturday. About seventy of their neighbors and friends gathered there for the evening. Halloween games and cards were played and refreshments were served.

Miss Pearl Vail and Mr. Gene Gentry were married at Hermiston on Sept. 28 by Rev. Wallace Jones, former minister of the Christian church here. Mrs. Gentry is teacher in the primary grades, this being her eighth year here. Mr. Gentry is a prominent citizen and farmer of this community. They kept their marriage a secret for some time but last week it became known and their many friends have been extending congratulations to them.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mrs. S. G. McMillan Tuesday evening at her home. The occasion was her 53rd birthday. The party was planned by her daughter, Naomi, and she was assisted by her cousin, Peggy Warner. A delightful evening was spent playing games, after which refreshments of fruit salad, cake and cocoa were served. Those present were Mesdames S. G. McMillan, Katherine Sloum, H. E. Warner, Minnie Leach McMillan, Lawrence Sloum, Robert McMillan, J. F. McMillan and children, Miss Opal Leach, Miss Peggy Warner and Miss Naomi McMillan.

Edward Burchel returned home Tuesday morning from Wenatchee, Wash., where he has been for the past two months helping his grandfather with his fruit harvest. He witnessed the landing of the Pangborn and Herndon plane at the municipal airport in Wenatchee. On his return home he visited in Portland for a few days and took in the Oregon State-Washington State football game Saturday.
