

Local Happenings

Robert D. Lytle, Vale attorney, accompanied by Mrs. Lytle, were visitors here Armistice day. While in the city they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tamblin, friends and former residents of Vale. Mr. Lytle is a prominent citizen of Malheur county and the city of Vale has been rather fortunately situated during these strenuous times, as the government has been prosecuting its reclamation work in that vicinity, giving employment to large numbers of men and through them distributing no small amount of cash. Mr. and Mrs. Lytle are returning home today.

Splendid rains prevailed in the north end of the county Friday night and Saturday, and again on Monday, and farmers of those communities feel now that there will be no break in the growth of wheat. Seeding has been pushed rapidly of late and there remains little to be done. The Morgan section was represented by Bert Palmateer and family, W. F. Palmateer and A. L. Troedson on Saturday. The rise in the price of wheat and the good rains are matters of much rejoicing on the part of these people.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Akers arrived from their Portland home on Monday night and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barlow this week. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barlow, Lucile, has been quite critically ill for the past week, and it was because of this that Mr. and Mrs. Akers hurried to the city to help minister to the needs of the little granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Alcott Lundell were here from Ione on Saturday, helping to swell the large number of farmers that were doing business in the city from various parts of the county. Mr. Lundell is one of the west side farmers who will profit by the upturn in wheat, as he has a portion of his crop to sell at the advanced price.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jones of Pasco and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. F. V. Jones of Wallula, were visitors in this city on Friday and Saturday, being guests at the homes of F. S. Parker and Vawter Crawford. Mrs. Jones, Sr., is a sister of Mrs. Parker and Mr. Crawford.

Fred Mankin and family were lone people in this city on Saturday. Mr. Mankin has just recently sold his wheat, getting the advantage of the "pepped up" price. He had a good yield this season and the advance in the market made him some money.

The regular November meeting of the Methodist Missionary society will be held next Tuesday, the 17th, at the church. The hostesses, Mrs. Sam Hughes, Mrs. Alex Gibb and Mrs. E. F. Campbell, extend a cordial invitation to any woman who would enjoy attending to do so.

A license to wed was issued Earl Earl B. Cramer and Mrs. Martha M. Titus, both of Boardman, by Gay M. Anderson, county clerk, Saturday.

P. A. Anderson, former Morrow county abstractor, has been visiting in the city this week from Portland.

Frank Everson, Ione wheat raiser, was a visitor in the city on Saturday and was smiling over the fine rains.

WOMEN: watch your BOWELS

What should women do to keep their bowels moving freely? A doctor should know the answer. That is why pure Syrup Pepsin is so good for women. It just suits their delicate organism. It is the prescription of an old family doctor who has treated thousands of women patients, and who made a special study of bowel troubles.

It is fine for children, too. They love its taste. Let them have it every time their tongues are coated or their skin is sallow. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients.

When you've a sick headache, can't eat, are bilious or sluggish; and at the times when you are most apt to be constipated, take a little of this famous prescription (all drug stores keep it ready in big bottles), and you'll know why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite laxative of over a million women!

Eight Mile section will gain a start that should carry it through the winter in good shape. Grain is up well now but frosty nights are holding it back.

The high school football team, with their coach and Superintendent Poulson and parents of the players were treated to a fine supper last evening at the dining room of the Christian church, mothers of the team members providing the feed.

The Morrow county court in Portland today for a meeting with the state highway commission, contemplate attending the state meeting of county judges and commissioners in the city before returning home.

C. G. Blayden, prominent resident of the Boardman project, was in Heppner today on business matters. The north end of the county has received abundant rains during the week, so Mr. Blayden states.

Mrs. Caroline Johnston of Camas, Wash., is a guest this week at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Cox, and renewing old friendships in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bechdoit, down from Hardman today, report the hills about their farm covered with a mantle of snow, and it looks quite wintry out their way.

MAKES HONOR LIST.

Oregon State College, Corvallis, Nov. 12.—Ruth Dinges, commercial student and graduate of Lexington high school, was among the 62 on the honor list of first year students taking the freshman English placement examinations at Oregon State college. The students on the honor list represent approximately the upper 5 per cent of the 1032 in the freshman class. Tests have indicated, according to Dr. John M. Kierzek, associate professor of English, that a close correlation exists between the honor list in English placement tests and the scholarship and leadership of the student throughout his four years at college.

The Frost is on PUMPKIN

Vacation days are over, and everyone has settled down to the serious business of going through another Winter.

"The frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock"

Nature is almost prepared for the storms and he cold to come. Mankin, so far as possible, has followed Nature's example.

Daily the sun rises later in the East and sinks earlier in the West. Evenings and nights grow longer. Electric lights and the radio are turned on earlier and kept on longer, as less and less time is spent in out-of-door recreation.

Longer hours of use necessarily mean higher monthly bills for electric service. Remember that when the monthly bill comes. Remember also, that "overtime" use often means lower cost per unit of service; quite different from "one and one-half the scale for overtime."

The frost is on the pumpkin and everything is ready for the Winter. We have prepared ourselves for our usual Winter's task of giving our best service at the lowest possible rate.

Serving you i our job. Can we do more than we are now doing? If so, how? LET US KNOW.

Wear Wool for Warmth and Good Looks

Since time immemorial WOOL has been man's most prized and comforting possession. WOOL has served the needs of all mankind from the very humblest to the most affluent. Man's ingenuity, recognizing its importance and value, has so widened the scope of WOOL that today almost every item of wear and home use seems the better and brighter for its use. Thousands of years of development have strengthened th invaluable place of wool. This week a whole nation pays its tribute to this outstanding fabric. And this season the fashion world decrees WOOL as the fabric of first importance in FASHION—in dresses—coats—hose—drapes and many other items prominently featured throughout the store.
