THANKSGIVING.

THANKSGIVING Day has become such a universally observed national holiday that few people realize that its general observance on the last Thursday in November is quite a recent development. All of the states of New England and some of the other northern states had an annual day of thanksgiving by the proclamation of the Governor, but while this custom came from the earliest colonial times, it seldom happened that more than two or three states picked the same day.

Sunday School Lesson

Algermon—Eusebia, what is it your father sees in me to object to? Eusebia—He doesn't see anything in you, Algermon; that's why he objects.

Dr. JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

Speaking of Teeth.

I doubt if any one every fully appreciates his or her teeth quite so much as when they have just been all extracted by the dentist. When the victim struggles through the agonizing days, trying to "break in" a new set of artificial teeth he remembers that a treasure he has lost in his natural teeth; if it were to do over again, he'd treat native molars and incisors with a great deal more of respect than he did when he had them.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH AMERICA?

WE HAVE NOT seen any more intelligent or biting explanation of the economic depression from which the country seems now to be beginning to emerge than that which was written a little while ago by Miss Emily Woodward, editor of the Vienna (Ga.) News. This is what Miss Woodward said about it: "A people, for the most part accustomed to living moderately and even frugally prior to the war, we launched into an orgy of spending such as has never been known in the history of man. Although endowed with a modicum of reasoning power, we have deliberately thrown discretion to the winds, changing our standards of living from quiet simplicity to frenzied luxury. Equipped with sufficient mathematical knowledge to know that four from two leaves minus two, men and women with incomes of $200.00 a month have spent at the rate of $400.00. This has been piled quite generally whether the income has been $25.00 or $2500.00. Farming and other businesses are more or less demoralized, but it is not due altogether to 5-cent cotton and the tariff. It is due in part to our waste, abuse of credit, poor business management and laziness.

earth that requires obedience as to how often you should see your dentist, or how often a man or child should apply a nostrum to any part of the mouth, gums, teeth or throat. Just the simple, well-known admonition: Be clean, alert against any harmful practice—and consult your dentist at the first symptom of rebellion in the dental region. There is no minimum or maximum on your visits to the tooth doctor; go when you need his service, be it one, none, or twenty times a year.
