Keep Youth's Purity. "Keep thyself pure." 1st Tim.

Peter has a story of one who acted as the amenuensis of Marcus Aurelius-Marius the Epicurian.
The story opens with Marius as boy leaving home for school. His mother wanted to say some-thing to him as a last word of counsel. She took him into her room and as they looked across the Campagna, she put her hand upon his shoulder and said: "Marius, a white bird which you are to carry with unsullied wings across a crowded public place; your soul is like that." That was all she said, but that was enough. It was the best thing she could have sadi.

"A white bird with unsullied wings." That, young man, young woman, is what your soul is like in the innocency of your youth. God help you to keep it like that. God help you to carry your soul across the crowded places of the world with unsullied wings.
