The Christmas Fruit Cake.
An odor of spice permeates the kitchen, for mother is baking the fruit cake for Christmas in order that all of its fruity flavors will have time to blend throughout and make one delectable whole. Isn't it great fun to think of all the goodies which are connected with the holiday season? But oh, how hard it is to keep prying fingers away until at last the day arrives for festivity!

The following is my favorite recipe for fruit cake. As given the cake would weigh nine pounds and would cost $2.80. However, one-half the recipe makes a very large cake:

Fruit Cake.

Citron, 1 pound ground; raisins, 2 pounds; currants, 2 pounds; nuts, 1 pound cracked and shelled; shortening, 1 pound; brown sugar, 1 pound; flour, 1 pound; eggs, 1 dozen; salt, 2 teaspoons; liquid, 1/2 cup; cinnamon, 2 t.; nutmeg, 1 t.; allspice, 1 t.; cloves, 1/2 t.

Use conventional cake method of mixing ingredients. Fold in flour and nuts and fruits before the stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in a moderate oven (355 deg. F) for 2 hours.

Steaming Fruit Cake.

Fruit cakes may be either baked or steamed. Steaming makes them more moist than baking, but there is less danger of burning. If the cake is to be steamed it may be done in a regular steamer or in one improvised by using a roaster with a rack in the bottom. A low temperature must be used to prevent too much caramelization of candied fruits. Steaming may be done either in the oven or over a surface burner.

Bread pans are very good for baking these cakes because thin slices can easily be cut from this size loaf.

White Fruit Cake.

1/2 pound shortening; 2 c. sugar; 4 1/2 c. flour; 2 t. baking powder; 1/2 c. milk; 12 egg whites; 3 c. coconut; 1/2 pound blanched almonds; 1/2 pound candied pineapple; 1/2 pound citron.

Mix as for ordinary cake. Bake at 250 degrees F. for 2 1/2 hours. Or steam for 2 1/2 hours at 275 degrees F. Remove cakes from steamer and bake for 1/2 hour longer at 300 degrees F. This makes two 3-pound cakes.

IONE

had this year in the grades. Art Schmidt motored from Pendleton Thursday morning to spend the day with his mother, Mrs. Anna Schmidt.

Henry Rauch and family and Miss Doris Klinger were guests at the home of Julian Rauch for Thanksgiving. They attended the dance at the B. P. Doherty ranch later in the evening.

John Kilkenny of Hinton creek was down to see Frank Kilkenny Saturday. His nephew, John Kilkenny, returned home with him.

Willard Hawley was a business visitor in Hermiston Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindsay motored to Pendleton Monday on business.

Miss Gertrude Tichenor spent Sunday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Neill Melville.

John Viedman went to Pendleton Monday to spend the week with his sister, Mrs. G. Tindey.

Mrs. W. J. McDaid visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Michel Monday. They spent Sunday night at the home of Bill Doherty in Juniper.

Mrs. Frank Saling is now in Portland visiting relatives and friends.

MASONIC BODIES TO ELECT.

Annual election of officers of the three Heppner Masonic bodies will be held as follows: Royal Arch tonight; Blue lodge next Saturday, December 5, and Eastern Star on Friday, December 11.

Attorney Joseph J. Nys returned on Monday from Mt. Angel where he was called on Wednesday of last week by the very critical illness of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Stewart. When Mr. Nys left the home of his sister on Sunday, she had improved quite materially, having undergone an operation for the removal of gall stones, the cause of her illness.

Oregon City—Twenty-four women belonging to the Rock Creek extension unit are enrolled in a weight control project. At the first meeting they were weighed and measured. One was average weight, 14 were in the normal zone, 10 were over-weight and four under-weight. At their second meeting three of the over-weights reported loss of weight and one underweight had gained nine pounds. Safe weight control measures are studied and practiced. The project is supervised by Thelma Gaylord, home demonstration agent, with the cooperation of Lucy A. Case, nutrition specialist.

World Peace.

"And He shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." Isaiah 2-4.

World Peace, the League of Nations, Disarmament Conferences, all these are much in the minds of the people of earth just now. And as we approach the time of the birth of the Prince of Peace, it is worthy of note that approximately the only time in all the known history of the world when men were not largely at war, was during the lifetime on earth of the Son of God. This does not admit of dispute nor of argument; and it is a very significant thing. And we would do well to give thought, much thought, to it.

And if we have, really have, World Peace, it can only come, will only come when once more the Prince of Peace is on earth in the hearts and lives of men. Only then will chicanery and selfishness and deceit and personal aggrandizement be done—and all these things are the fruit of lives where the Spirit of the Prince of Peace is NOT. None of the man-planned quick remedies, nor panacea cure-alls will ever avail—BUT, when the Spirit of the Prince of Peace comes broadcast into the hearts and lives of men the world over, THEN WE SHALL KNOW REAL WORLD PEACE.

We invite you to come and worship with us if you have not a Church home. Attend our Bible School, and participate in our services of worship.

For the coming Lord's Day the sermon topics are: Morning worship, "The Church and World Peace." Evening worship, "Soothing Syrup or Tonic?"

METHODIST CHURCH.

GLEN P. WHITE, Pastor.
9:45 a. m., Sunday school.
11 a. m., morning worship hour.
Message, "The Times; Their Characteristics and Messages."
6:30 p. m., Epworth League.
7:30 p. m., song service and gospel message, "Kept."

We extend an invitation to you to worship with us. Let us give God a chance at our hearts and lives in these days of unrest and troubles. God is knocking at heart's door and longing to get an entrance. Why not let the King of Glory come into your heart and satisfy your never-dying soul? Remember He is waiting to come in. We invite you to come to the Lord's house and receive help to your soul.

NATIONAL GRANGE OUTLINES POLICIES

1. An international monetary conference for the purpose of: (1) Stabilizing the gold price of silver; and, (2) Stabilizing the purchasing power of gold in terms of the average wholesale prices of commodities.

5. Changing Congressional representation from the basis of population to that of citizenship.

6. Strengthening the Federal Marketing Act.

7. An effort to secure a united program by all farm groups for promoting the agricultural welfare.

The Grange Favors:
Distribution of a portion of Federal income tax among the states to relieve the tax burden on real estate.

Adoption by every state of a state income tax.

Uniform Federal and state grading of all farm products.

Extension of rural electrification on such reasonable rate basis as will greatly increase the service to farm homes.

More uniform tax laws among all the states.

Granting independence to the Philippine Islands at an early date.

Developing cooperative marketing agencies as a means of suppressing produce exchanges.

Increased outlay of gasoline tax and license fee money in building farm-to-market roads.

Reduction of military budgets and further progress toward international disarmament.

Drafting money and corporations, as well as men, in time of war.

Vigorous development of internal transportation facilities.

Federal aid in financing small cooperative groups.

Support of the Eighteenth Amendment and rigid enforcement of all laws.

A Court of International Justice for settling disputes between nations.

The early construction of a Great Lakes-to-the-Atlantic canal.

Consolidation of railroads, in the interests of efficiency and economy, and to remove the necessity for raising rates.

Operating Muscle Shoals as a Federal experiment station to develop data on the cost of generating and distributing electricity.

Federal supervision of motion pictures and distinct improvement in quality of same.

Duty on cotton to prevent foreign importations.

Intensive tariff on dried eggs and labelling of all products in which dried eggs are used.

Increased banking safeguards to check epidemic of bank failures.

Careful separation of the control of milk and milk products, as between health and agricultural authorities.

Omitting pulp wood from the list of commodities upon which an increase in railroad freight rates shall be allowed.

Advancing the opening of Congress and inauguration of President to January following election.

Encouraging shade tree planting along highways and fuller protection for those now there.

Investigation of a national system of old-age insurance, as opposed to non-contributory old-age pension system.

The Grange Opposes:
Use of the gasoline tax for any expenditure other than on highways.

All forms of short selling of stocks except for legitimate hedging purposes.

Issuance of bonds for current expenditures during the present crisis.

Compulsory military training in Land Grant colleges.

Any form of a general sales tax.

Any reduction in income tax and inheritance tax rates.

Establishment of a national Department of Education.

The national grange session was marked by harmonious action, nearly every policy being fixed by unanimous vote and not a single roll call required.

National Master Louis J. Taber received nearly every vote for reelection and will continue for another two years in his energetic leadership in behalf of equality for agriculture and a square deal for the rural interests.

Many speakers of prominence were heard, including Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, and Governor Phil LaFollette of Wisconsin. The address of National Master Taber and one full program hour were broadcast over a nation-wide hook-up, and on Sunday morning the entire grange delegate body attended service in one of Madison's largest churches.

The 1932 national grange session was voted to North Carolina and an extension appropriation of $40,000 was made to push organization work, in the expectation of surpassing the 1931 totals, when 383 subordinate and Pomonas and 159 juveniles were added to the grange roll of the nation.
